FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,
HENRY CLAY.
NEW-ORLEANS:
MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 23, 1843

CLAY CLUB.

A meeting of the members of the Clay Club will be held at their room, (25 Exchange Place), on Monday evening, 23d instant, at seven o'clock.

ALFRED ROUSSEAU,
C. C. WILLIAMS,
ALPH. CANONGE, } Secretaries.

THE ELECTIONS.

With one solitary exception, New Jersey, a perfect torrent of whig triumphs flows in upon us. We have the unspeakable satisfaction of announcing the most glorious and unexpected whig gains in Pennsylvania—victories which, if they have not already secured the State to the whigs, render her vote for HENRY CLAY in 1844, more than probable. We have also to record the splendid achievements of the gallant whigs of Ohio, who, to the surprise even of their own political brethren, seem to have determined thus early to efface the stigma which their inactivity a year since inspirited upon the State. Already does the name of HENRY CLAY, like the voice of a clarion, arouse the slumbering energies of that great party which prostrated locofocoism in 1840, and even at this comparatively early stage of the contest, have the indomitable whigs of Ohio and Pennsylvania rallied around his standard and marched to victory. But to the return:

PENNSYLVANIA.—The mail failed yesterday from beyond Montgomery, and we are consequently without further returns than those brought by Saturday's mail. They are of the most cheering character. The following are the members of Congress known to be elected:

District 1st—E. J. Morris, (W.) gain.
2d—Joseph R. Ingersoll, (W.)
3d—John T. Smith, (L. F.)
4th—Charles J. Ingersoll, (L. F.)
5th—Jacob S. Yost, (L. F.)
6th—Meredith Pratt, (W.) gain.
7th—A. R. McIlvaine, (W.)
8th—Jeremiah Brown, (W.)
9th—John Ritter, (L. F.)
10th—R. Brodhead, Jr. (L. F.)
11th—B. A. Bidlack, (L. F.)
12th—
13th—Gen. Frick, (W.) gain.
14th—Alex. Ramsey, (W.)
15th—Dr. Ness, (Independent L. F.)
16th—James Black, (L. F.)
17th—
18th—Andrew Stewart, (W.)
19th—
20th—
21st—William Wilkins, (L. F.)
22d—
23d—
24th—

Besides these the whigs will probably carry INGE in the Huntington district, and their candidate in the 20th district, composed of Washington and Beaver.—The 23d district is doubtful. The others will probably be locofoco. Dr. Ness, the member elect in the 15th district, is in favor of a protective Tariff and Distribution. He is two-thirds whig. It must be remembered that Pennsylvania was districted so as to give the whigs but six members at the farthest. They will have ten certain, and possibly 12. For the Legislature, thus far, the whigs have chosen 24 representatives and the locos 21.

In Allegheny county the whigs lose a member of Congress by their own dissentions. The full vote of the county is 11,500; but three thousand voters, mostly whigs, staid away from the polls and suffered the election to go by default.

There were three Canal Commissioners to be chosen by the whole State. Each party nominated their men. The result of this contest will furnish a pretty accurate mode of judging of the popular vote. Thus far the whigs have made astonishing gains.

OHIO.—The returns from Ohio are of a similar complexion to those from Pennsylvania. The following intelligence speaks for itself:—

Muskingum, whig majority 1100.
Gettysburg Compiler 24th.

These two counties make up the 14th Congressional District. Harper, (whig) is elected by over 1000 majority.

Licking, 225 whig majority for Congress, whole whig ticket elected. Whig gain.

Franklin, 475 whig majority. Whigs elected to the Legislature.

In the Congressional District composed of Fairfield, Pickaway and Fayette, Florence, whig, elected over Medill—whig gain. Fairfield (loco) 475, Pickaway (whig) 450, Fayette (whig) nearly to hand from.

In the District composed of Perry, Morgan and Washington, Perry gives 480 loco majority, Morgan 215 (W.) Washington not heard from—good for 500 at least, in spurring Johnson's over Baker, loco. Another whig gain.

In the District composed of Belmont, Harrison and Monroe, there is no doubt of Morris's election over Cowen, whig.

The returns from Steubenville District are not decisive, but we believe McCaughin, loco, is elected.

A slip from the Zanesville Republican, dated Oct. 11, 4 P. M. says:—

Later and better. Licking county elects two whigs to the Legislature by 300 majority!—Wheeling Times.

To these we are enabled to add the following from the Cincinnati and Louisville papers:—

Knox, whig majority 200. Fayette 573 do. Ridgway (w.) elected to Congress in the District composed of Licking, Franklin and Knox. In the District made up of Adams, Ross, Pike, Jackson and Hocking, Van Matre (w.) is elected to Congress, and the whigs have gained a Senator and three Representatives. Highland, Forsyth and Adams have likewise elected one whig Senator and two whig representatives. Miami gives a majority and Shelby 70. This elects the whig Representatives in the District composed of these two counties with Mercer and Drake. Preble gives Campbell 600 maj. to Congress, and elects a whig to the Legislature. Clinton and Brown uncertain. The latest rumor is that the locos have carried it.

So far as heard from it seems to be pretty certain that the whigs have selected Schenck, Vance, Ridgway, Johnson, Florence, Vinton, Van Matre and Harper—three more than they calculated upon—and the locos, Duncan, Weller and McDowell to Congress.

The Louisville Journal of the 14th says: "there is no doubt the Whigs have secured a majority in the lower House, and probably in the Senate." If this intelligence prove correct, the triumph will indeed be overwhelming.

NEW JERSEY has gone for the Locofocos. The story is told in the following, from the New York Tribune of the 13th:—

The Whigs are beaten. The members of the next Congress will stand:

First District, (Cape May, &c.)—Edmund B. Walter, Whig.
*Second District, (Mercer, &c.)—*George Sykes, Loco.
Third District, (Huntington, &c.)—Isaac G. Farlee, Loco.
Fourth District, (Middlesex, &c.)—L. Kirkpatrick, Loco.
Fifth District, (Essex, &c.)—Wm. Wright, irregular Whig.

The Legislature is also gone, viz:

Whigs:

	Council.	Assembly.
Hudson,	1	1
Essex,	1	1
Somerset,	1	2
Mercer,	1	3
Burlington,	1	3
Gloucester,	1	2
Cape May,	1	1
Cumberland,	1	2
Total,	7	15

Locofocos.

	Council.	Assembly.
Bergen,	1	2
Hudson,	1	2
Passaic,	1	3
Morris,	1	3
Sussex,	1	3
Warren,	1	3
Hunterdon,	1	4
Atlantic,	1	2
Monmouth,	1	5
Middlesex,	1	4
Cumberland,	1	2
Gloucester,	1	3
Salem,	1	3
Total,	12	36

Our friends have lost, as we feared they we said have, by opposing a Reform of the State Constitution, which is popular with the people—in our view, justly so. But they have been beaten by their own divisions, and a proper share of the blame must be on the other side.

The Locofocos claim four members of Congress; but according to the Tribune, (usually very accurate authority) they have but three. There is no United States Senator to elect this year. That piece of work was effected by the Whig Legislature of 1842.

GEORGIA.—The result is 86 county as is as follows:

Crawford,	38,181
Cooper,	34,757
Crawford's majority,	3,424

Five counties to hear from, viz: Emanuel, Montgomery, Liberty, Rabun and Ware, which gave a Locofoco majority in 1842, of 409.

MARYLAND—POPULAR VOTE.—A disreputable Locofoco journal in Baltimore, calls it the Republican and Argus, has published a spurious statement of the popular vote at the recent election, and claims a Locofoco majority of 498 in the State. In shallow falsehoods are than exposed in the Patriot of the 13th:

Now, we restore to my that—there gentleman a more wilful and deplorable attempt to deceive the people, and to bolster up a fallen cause by misstatements and false numerous, than the Republican and Argus has made in its entire prospectus. The long impudence with which the writer says that the Whigs will never say a word about the popular vote, and his flagrant dishonesty in merely publication for the purpose of the article in question, the public are conclusive that the writer is entirely at home in "manufacturing facts"—in at his Bar, look at the falsehoods of party! To say nothing of the entire omission of the Whig vote, we down the vote of 1841 in Baltimore, Washington and Prince Georges counties, as a test vote—look at Worcester county in his table! The writer claims 420 majority in the State, and to make this out, he claims nearly 200 majority in Worcester, where the whole Whig ticket was elected, and where the leading Whig led the lowest Locofoco 417 votes!

Correcting the vote of this county, and the pretended Locofoco majority is reduced to nothing—even according to their own calculation! In the elegant language of the Locofoco majority, it may be said, "put that in your pipe and smoke it."

But this table is erroneous throughout. The vote in Montgomery county is also mis-stated. There were five Whig candidates in that county, and three Locofocos; and yet there is no allowance made for the Whig vote given to the fifth candidate. The result in Dorchester is known to have been accidental, and no more exhibits the relative strength of parties in that county, than does the claim of 200 Locofoco majority in Worcester, truly state the result of the late election there. The vote for Frederick county is also mis stated. The remarks about a Locofoco majority in Hartford are contradicted by the results of the last Congressional contests, and the recent one called out the largest poll ever taken in the county. But there is no necessity of pointing out the deceptions of this Locofoco table. The vote given by the whole Delegation in Congress, and the recollections of the whole statesmen, and heads it with untruth.

There is no man of ordinary intelligence, who does not know, that the result of the recent election demonstrates that the people of Maryland are in favor of Mr. Clay. When the day for the Presidential election arrives, and that great man is placed in competition with any person the Locofocos may bring out, there will be entire unanimity in the Whig ranks. Montgomery, St. Mary's, Charles, Somerset, Worcester and Dorchester, will then bring out their full strength, and go with overwhelming majorities for Harry of the West.

Our friends abroad will not be misled by these false statements of the Locofoco presses. The statement on which we have been commenting, will doubtless be copied far and wide by the papers of the Locofocos, but the people are too intelligent to be deceived by such barefaced untruths. Here at home every man, to what every party he may belong, knows that Maryland is Whig, and will be at her electoral vote for HENRY CLAY, by a majority full as large as that received by the lamented HARRISON.

YUCATAN.

By the arrival of the schooner Argus, in 13 days from Laguna, we are indebted to the kindness of Capt. BERNON for a file of Tobasco papers, at which place the Argus landed.

At Laguna active preparations were making for hostilities with Yucatan, which it is thought would be shortly recommenced. The harbor had been closed by order of Santa Anna, and no vessels arriving from Campeachy, either with cargoes, or in search of logwood were allowed to enter.

The Tobasco papers are filled with the official documents of General Ampudia, in relation to the recent insurrection headed by General Sentmenat, the details of which possess no interest for our readers.

The Yellow Fever was raging with fatal violence at Tobasco, and had carried off a number of the inhabitants.

FROM HAVANA.

By the arrival of the schooner Belle we have received Havana papers to the 14th inst. They contain one or two items of Mexican intelligence which we transfer to our columns:—

The Mexican papers notice the emission of counterfeit dollars, and state that the Government is instituting a rigid inquiry into the matter. In the spurious coin, the word "Republica" is badly executed, the space between the two first syllables being very great; and the leaves of nopal which appear to spring from the earth on the reverse of the coin, are larger in the counterfeit than in the genuine specimens.

The French ship Rose Amalie, which left Vera Cruz a few days ago, has returned to that port, having lost her pilot and two or three of the crew by sickness.

FUNERAL HONORS.—The remains of W. R. ROTTA, a member of the Perseverance Hose Company, who died in this city since in Arkansas, were yesterday afternoon deposited in the Cypress Grove Cemetery. The funeral was attended by several companies of firemen, in their customary uniform, and a large number of citizens and friends of the deceased.

Mr. R. had been for several years a merchant of this city.

☞ The Company of Cassadores Volantes proceeded yesterday afternoon to the placing of the first stone of a funeral monument for the interment of the members of the company, in the Catholic Cemetery No. 2. Mr. Blanco, Captain of the Company, presided over the ceremonies which were concluded by an appropriate address delivered by one of the members.

MICHAEL MCCARTHY, a native of Biltimore, M.d. died on the inst. at the Lake end of the New Canal.—The deceased has a wife and children living in Baltimore, who would find it to their advantage to confer the proper power upon an agent in this city, to attend to the securing of the property which he has acquired during his residence in this city.

Baltimore papers will please copy.

ARREST OF A SUPPOSED COUNTERFEITER.—A man named Isaac Clegg was brought before Recorder BATOWIN yesterday morning, charged with attempting to pass a counterfeit $5 Indiana Bank bill upon Mr. Clancy. He was remanded for further examination this morning.

NEW SUGAR.—Two parcels of the new crop were received, viz:—10 hhds. by the steamer Gov. Roman from W. T. Miles' plantation, in Assyrelles, consigned to Messrs. Degelas and Grace, and 15 hhds. by the steamer Fort Towson, from T. Landry's plantation, in Assension, consigned to Messrs. F. de Lizardi & Co.—These are the first receipts of the new crop. Last year we received new sugar about ten days earlier.

S. H. BYARD, Cashier of the Bank of Mobile, died, a short time since, in Lexington, Ky.

☞ We are indebted to the polite officers of the steamer Empress for the Louisville and Cincinnati papers.

COL. ERWIN, the member elect to the Mobile Legislature whose demise we noticed a few days ago, was a whig, and not a locofoco as erroneously stated by us.

☞ The Frankfort Commonwealth says that Thos. McCalla, the son of Gen. John M. McCalla, is to go to Sardinia as young Mr. Wickliffe's secretary.

MARRIED—On the 3d inst., at the residence of Geo. Hancock, in Shelby county, Ky., by the Rev. Mr. Toris, Gen. A. SIDNEY JOHNSTON to Miss ELIZA M. GRIFFIN.

ANOTHER MEMBER OF CONGRESS DEAD.—Col. JOHN MILLER, a member of Congress from Georgia, died in Savannah on the 15th inst. after a brief illness of only two days. The Republican pays a high tribute to the character of the deceased.

HEADS OF HOUSES.—The Herald of Saturday says that the prospect of returning health is not very good. On Wednesday there were five interments, on Thursday eight, and on Friday six—showing an increase over the previous three days. The present warm weather is considered highly deleterious to health.

SICKNESS OF Mr. DELLETT.—The Montgomery Journal of the 13th, says: "We learn by a letter from Clairborne, that Mr. DELLETT, representative in Congress from the Mobile district, is prostrate with an attack of disease from which there is little or no hope of his recovery."

THE GARDES D'ORLEANS celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary yesterday. At ten o'clock the corps attended grand mass at the Church of St. Louis, when a collection was made for the purpose of repairing the tombs containing the ashes of Captain DOMINIQUE YOU, who was in command of a battery at the Battle of Orleans. After parading through some of the principal streets of the city, they adjourned to a sumptuous dinner prepared in honor of the occasion.

SPEEDY DESPATCHES—but not by the U. S. Mail.—The National Intelligencer of the 12th instant has the following:

"Elderly people, who were accustomed in the snail's pace of mail coaches of the old-time time, can hardly get their minds to realize the rapidity with which information is now-a-days conveyed from one end of the country to the other. We were led to this remark by hearing late evening to glance at the date of an Augusta paper, and finding it the 9th of October. To hold in our hands here in Washington, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, a newspaper printed in Georgia the day before yesterday! It seemed incredible, but it is only one of the miracles achieved by "all conquering steam."

APROPOS OF THE PLAY CALLED THE "REST DAY." And a story is told of its first production in London. The celebrated Farren declined a part in it; remarking that if the piece ran beyond a single night, he would eat an old hat for every time it was played. The play none to immediately sunk into oblivion. On arriving at the theatre one evening, Mr. Farren was informed by the call-boy that Mr. Wallack had left something on a pole (pike for him, covered with a large handkerchief, from "Tom Jones," what he left it for. The boy lifted the covering, and behold, ranged in the front seat, and, were the pride of the district, shabby-genteel, "a hat of London!" Farren startled—a mind current of nagility to the flesh. "Please, sir," said the boy, "Mr. Wallack gave me half you said, when you found the part of Crummie, in the Rest Day." That little piece flourished a single night, you would not eat an old hat; so as it has not been played thirty times, he thinks it right to give you something to eat before the meal becomes too large for your digestion!" Farren said it was an old hat indeed!

LIFE OF HENRY CLAY—By Junius.

We have one earnest recommendation to make to the "Clay Club" of this city, and to the various whig associations throughout the State, and that is, to make provision without delay, and take the proper measures to scatter over Louisiana the tracts of "Junius" which are now in the course of publication at New York.—These little pamphlets are working infinite good to the whig cause, and we observe with pleasure, that they are becoming the standard publications among our party. They are powerful papers, composed principally of facts with which every voter in the Union ought to be acquainted. Four of the series have already been published, viz:—"The Test" or Parties Tried by their Acts; 2d, "The Currency;" 3d, "The Tariff;" and 4th, "The Life of Henry Clay." They are uniform in size and price, 16 pages each, $20 a thousand copies, having been prepared expressly for universal circulation among the people.

All of these tracts are executed with unrivalled ability. It only requires that they should be known, to be every where in demand. We trust that measures will be immediately adopted to establish a depot of these tracts in this city, for the supply of the State. Let a few thousand copies of each set be obtained, and we will venture to say, they will not long encumber the shelves of the agent. There is nothing in the way of political publications which, with no small an amount of reading matter, can produce greater effect. They are of the highest order of political writings, brought by simplicity of style and direct appeals, to facts, within the comprehension of the humblest intellect.—In 1840, during the Harrison campaign, more than a million of copies of the tract entitled "The Crisis of the Country," were circulated, and doubtless contributed materially to the brilliant success of the whig cause.—All we have to say to our friends, of the new series, is: "Get them—Try them—Prove them"—and we trust the City Club of this city will not only order on an abundant supply, but will place them by translation, within the comprehension of those members of the whig party, who are acquainted only with the French language.

These tracts are published at the Tribune office, New York, and may be procured by orders on the editors of that paper. They are copy-righted, and of course cannot be published elsewhere.

NEW WORKS.—We are indebted to J. WINCHESTER, publisher, through Mr. J. M. STEEL, Camp street, for copies of two new novels, entitled Fireside Recollections and the Young Sculptor, by Mrs. Ellis; and One Hundred Romances of Real Life, selected and annotated by Leigh Hunt. Both these works are highly spoken of.

"FRENCH WITHOUT A MASTER.—Messrs. BIRTO & Morgan have received a few copies of this admirable work. We have already alluded to it in terms of fitting commendation.

MARINE DISASTER.—The French ship Neptune, Capt. Bureau Dulorier, from St. Jago de Cuba, bound to Bordeaux, with a cargo of logwood, sugar and coffee, experienced on the 24 instant, when in the latitude of the Bermuda Islands, a terrible hurricane, the approach of which was indicated by a fall of two inches of mercury in the barometer. Captain Dulorier informs us that the violence of the wind was beyond anything he had ever before witnessed. His masts were carried away, while he lost all his topmasts. The ship made water very rapidly; it fill it was five feet deep in the hold, when the Captain was obliged in order to lighten her, to throw overboard 50 barrels of sugar and some bags of coffee. Being unable to proceed on her voyage, the ship put into Savannah for repairs, having been fifty-eight days at sea.
