VI—The company to be managed by a direction of thirteen stockholders, each director to own at least twenty shares—the directors to choose a president and other officers required for the company. As soon as the capital shall be filled the commissioners shall call, by a ten days notice in two newspapers, a meeting of subscribers to elect a board and organize. No subscriber, in default for instalments duly called, shall be entitled to a dividend declared whilst he is in default, nor shall he be permitted to vote during such default. No larger dividend is ever to be allowed to Mr. Hargous' shares, although full paid, than to those of subscribers, even though only part paid.

X—It is a condition of the transfer made by Mr. Hargous of his grant and lands, that at least $1,000,000 per annum shall be expended on the road till it is finished. This clause not to apply to the first year, during which the surveying, engineering and preparatory works, may not require so large an expenditure—nor to any year during which the expenditure may be prevented by causes beyond the control of the company.

XI—If a loan is required by the company, the money may be raised by the issue of bonds secured by the mortgage of their land and road, &c.—but no loan shall be made for a sum greater than half the cash paid by subscribers, and until the subscribers have paid up their $3,000,000, no part of the burthen of the loan shall be borne by Mr. Hargous' shares. No loan to be made before two millions are paid in by the subscribers. Any dividend declared during the existence of a loan, shall not be paid to the holders of the shares liable for the loan, but shall be appropriated towards the extinguishment of the loan.

XII—The moneys heretofore advanced by the citizens of New Orleans, for the defraying of preliminary expenses, shall be refunded by this company, according to the conditions of the subscription.

XIII—The shares of stock subscribed provisionally, in anticipation of the formation of this company, shall be considered as subscriptions made under this charter, and the instalment of five dollars paid by said provisional subscribers for hastening the work by a prompt survey of the road, shall be received and imputed as a part payment of the first instalment required under the charter to be paid at the time of subscribing.

The following is the Prospectus reported by Mr. Benjamin:

PROSPECTUS.

We, the undersigned, subscribe for the number of shares placed opposite our names, in the Tehuantepec Railroad Company, which is to be organized on the plan set forth in the annexed outline.

The conditions of our subscriptions are:

1. The $5 per share now paid are to be taken as part payment of the first instalment required of subscribers under the proposed charter.

2. If any material change be made in the contemplated charter, each subscriber, who disapproves such change, shall be entitled to withdraw this subscription, and receive back the $5 per share now paid.

3. The money now paid is intended for making the survey the Isthmus by Major Barnard, or any other officer that may be chosen by the Permanent Committee in his default. That Committee is to superintend and control the expenditure.

The office will be open during the usual business hours.
