Architecture, Civil Engineering and Surveying.

HAVING removed my office to Banks' Arcade, on Magazine street, in New Orleans, I respectfully state that I shall continue to tender my professional services in every branch of Architecture, Civil Engineering and Surveying. Plans for private and public buildings of every kind and the erection thereof, with the various styles of modern styles, will be made with a strict regard to solidity, comfort and beauty, and accompanied with specifications and estimates, based on the local average prices of labor and materials.

The surveys and sections of greater internal improvements and public works, as railroads, canals, protective water works on rivers, as levees, Fascine works, etc. a corresponding attention will be devoted. Having a sufficient number of assistants at my disposal, I am now prepared to extend my business to a distance from New Orleans, if the object be important enough, and to procure contracts and buildings of thousands of mechanics and laborers for the energetic execution of works of the greatest magnitude. Surveys and plans of railroads, topographical maps, drawings of machinery, glass work, specifications, estimates for country residences, dwelling houses, warehouses, cottages, etc. will at all times be made at short notice, but I shall also most faithfully superintend the execution of any kind of buildings or other improvements. The great multitude of plans made by me, and which have been exhibited and circulated during the last few years, are a guarantee that my terms are reasonable.

Letters may be addressed to me either in the English, French, Spanish or German languages.

HENRY MOELLHAUSEN,
Architect and Civil Engineer.
