MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS.

COUNCIL OF MUNICIPALITY NO. THREE.

Sitting of 4th December, 1843.

AN ordinance levying a special tax on the real estate and slaves situated within the limits of Municipality No. Three for the year 1842 and 1843.

Article 1. Be it ordained by the Council of Municipality No Three, That in the exercise of the authorities and powers vested in the Mayor and City Council, by the 6th section of an act to incorporate the City of New Orleans approved 17th February, 1805, and by the 2d section of an act supplementary thereto approved March 4th, 1836, a special tax on all the real estate situated within the limits of this municipality of two dollars per hundred, is hereby imposed on the value of real estate as ascertained by the last assessment of 1842 and 1843 for those two years, and the Treasurer is hereby authorised and required to collect said tax immediately, that of 1842 payable in 1843, from the 1st of January, 1844, and that of 1843 payable in 1844, from the 1st day of May 1844.

Article 2. Be it further ordained, That in the exercise of the authority and powers above stated, a special tax on all slaves situated within the limits of this municipality of one dollar per head is hereby imposed, as ascertained by the last assessment of 1842 and 1843, for those two years, and the Treasurer is hereby authorised and required to collect the said tax immediately, that of 1842 payable in 1843 from the 1st of January, 1844, and that of 1843, payable in 1844 from the 1st day of May 1844.

Article 3. Be it further ordained, That the special taxes imposed by the two preceding articles of this ordinance, if not paid into the treasury (the first of 1842 payable in 1843 within ninety days and the second of 1843 payable in 1844 within ninety days) the parties in default shall pay five per cent interest per month on said taxes, conformably with the fifth section of an act approved March 4th, 1836, explaining the extent of the powers vested in the Mayor and City Council of New Orleans.

Article 4. Be it further ordained, That immediately on the receipt of the municipality notes into the treasury, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to cancel the same, and to report to the Council weekly the amount thus received and cancelled.

Article 5. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance be published in French and English, during fifteen days, in the official gazette of Municipality No 3, so that the inhabitants of this corporation may know the contents, and the Mayor is hereby authorized to publish the same as soon as approved by his honor.

Article 6. Be it further ordained, That the Finance Committee is hereby requested to count and burn weekly, in presence of two of the members of this municipality, all municipality notes which may have been received in payment by the Treasurer during the week.

THE BEE JOB PRINTING OFFICE,
And Office of the Rotary Press.

THE subscriber respectfully gives notice to the public that he has removed his Job Office to the ground floor at the store No. 80 MAGAZINE STREET, in Banks' Arcade, opposite to the Commercial Bank, where JOB PRINTING of every description and in the very best style will be executed at the Northern or Western prices.

He will also keep a supply of such articles of stationery as are ordinarily used by the merchants and by steamboats at very low rates, and to this and the business of Job Printing will confine his attention exclusively. Among his assortment of stationery will be found a supply of Blanks, of such kinds as are commonly wanted.

Among other improvements, he procured, and has now in operation, one of the celebrated patent Rotary Card Presses of J. N. Hickinson of Boston, on which can be printed 3000 CARDS PER HOUR, which enables him to afford handsome mercantile and other cards at the surprisingly low price of FIVE DOLLARS PER THOUSAND; and he procured a supply of the beautiful embossed cards and note paper invented by the same gentleman, upon which he prints fancy cards for weddings, balls, parties, visiting &c. of the most highly finished and splendid descriptions, at prices lower than are generally charged for the ordinary kinds.

It is not deemed necessary to enumerate all the kinds of printing which the subscriber is prepared to do; it is sufficient to say that ALL SORTS OF JOB PRINTING ARE EXECUTED AT HIS OFFICE.

The subscriber returns his sincere thanks to this community, where has been extended to him, hitherto, a very large patronage in his line of business, and ventures to express the hope that his recently increased facilities will enable him to serve the public still more extensively.

Between St [illegible] and [illegible].

D B. BLANCHARD—Surgeon-Dentist to their Majesties the King and Queen of France, the Princes and Princesses, Surgeon-Dentist to the faculty of Medicine of Paris, and of New Orleans.

Fixes natural teeth, without the least pain, in imitation perfectly natural, from one tooth to a complete set.

Directs the second teething of children, and corrects any deviation in their teeth;

He has had long experience, minute and constant practice, in France and America, in the dentist art, and all that relates to its operations, preserving at once the mouth and the teeth;

He possesses a gum-cement, which repairs ravages caused by decay, of the same color of teeth, and which is the most precious substance that has yet been employed—hone other can at this time, plumb the teeth so hermetically as this.

The operation is made without any pain, and is achieved in a few minutes.

Recently invented for the Teeth.

Or Oautré, without mixture, the most malleable and most perfect ordinarily employed.

A New Fusible (called platina) to plumb the teeth;

Litho-Caustic, instantly causing pain in the teeth to cease;

Elixir to reform the gums, consolidating the looseness;

Teeth-Water for healing the mouth and preserving the teeth;

Spirits of Cayac rectified, to give a tone to spongious gums.

Opiate of Quinine to clean and fortify the teeth;

Tooth Brushes, of various kinds, to crash all songs of a tartar taste about the teeth.

Office, at No. 100 Royal street. Is open every day from 9 in the morning until 3 in the afternoon, Sundays excepted. Charges moderate.

ODONTALGIC EXTRACT.
B. F. SMITH,
No. 120 St. Charles street.

CONTINUES to relieve the most violent Toothache in a few minutes, and at the same time entirely destroy the nerve in less than 24 hours POSITIVELY without pain. The public should be aware, however, that this remedy is not offered as a Universal Panacea, it being only successful when the pain proceeds from an exposure of the internal membrane or nerve.

For the truth of the above statement, the subscriber is referred to the following highly respectable gentlemen, most of whom can speak from their own experience.

Rev. W. A. Scott, Dr. W. H. Tengarden
