COURT OF PROBATES.—PARISH OF ST. BERNARD.

BY virtue of an order from the Hon the Court of Probates in and for the parish of St. Bernard, and with the consent of all the parties interested, will be sold, at public auction, by the undersigned judge of the parish aforesaid, on Saturday the 15th day of February 1834, on the premises, at noon, the following property belonging (for one half portion,) to the succession of Edouard Marie Ducros, late deceased, to wit:

A SUGAR PLANTATION, with all the buildings and improvements thereon, situated in the Parish of St. Bernard, at about four leagues from the city of New Orleans measuring about ten arpents front on the river Mississippi, by forty arpents depth or less, bounded on the upper side by M. Louis Toutant Beauregard's property and on the other side by property which belongs or belonged to Mr. Poydras, as well as a certain cypress swamp situated in the back side of said plantation, and all the cattle, horses, animals, and all the moveable property appertaining to said plantation, and also all the twenty-two following slaves, to wit:—Aimer, Mary, Ben, Cato, Charles François, John, July, and her two children, Louise and Constance, Narcisse, Joseph, Sal'y and her two children Maria and Louise, Sylvie, Tom, Hector, Clora, Sally, Selina, and Elizabeth alias Betsy, and four hundred shares in the capital stock of the Union Bank of Louisiana, secured on said property and slaves. The whole will be sold in one lot; the ages, sexes, qualities and defects, of said slaves will be made known on the day of sale.

Conditions:—The purchaser thereof shall bind himself to pay to the Union Bank of Louisiana, in deduction of the price of his adjudication, the sum of twenty thousand dollars due by the sellers on the first day of March 1834* for having borrowed the sum on the credit of their shares in said bank; and the balance of the price of said adjudication shall be paid: One fourth in March 1835; one fourth in March 1836; one fourth in March 1837, and one fourth in March 1838, in notes by portions endorsed to the satisfaction of the testamentary executor of said succession, bearing an interest at the rate of five per cent per annum from the date of the adjudication until due, payable at the domicil of the Union Bank in New Orleans, with mortgage on said property until final payment of the capital and interests. Said notes if not punctually paid when due, shall bear an interest of ten per cent per annum, from the time of their being due, until final payment. The said purchaser shall take the reversion of the mortgage given in favor of said Union Bank, to secure the aforesaid shares, and also to secure the payment of the sums borrowed on the credit of said shares; and the said purchaser shall bind himself to furnish to the said bank additional securities to secure his aforesaid 400 shares, and to cause the mortgage which exists on sixteen slaves in favor of the said Union Bank, to secure the aforesaid 400 shares to be raised and annulled, in as much as the aforesaid sixteen slaves, are not to be comprised in the above sale.

And on Monday the 17th day of February 1834, by virtue of the above order, will be sold at public auction, by Francis Dutillet public auctioneer, at Hewlett's Coffee House, in the city of New Orleans, at noon, the following slaves and shares belonging to the aforesaid succession, to wit: Jack, a negro man, about 40 years old, good axe and good field hand; Jim Brooks, a negro man, about 27 years old, good axe and good field hand; John Cane, a mulatto man, about 26 years old, good cartman and good field hand; Solomon Johnson, a negro man, about 28 years old, a field hand; Melite, a negro woman, about 40 years old, with her three children, Edmund, a negro boy, about 8 years old, Stephen, a negro boy, about 6 years old, and Jenny, a girl about 2 years old; Sabina Snowden, a negro woman, about 27 years old, with her boy Thomson, about 1 year old; Peggy, a negro woman, about 45 years old, Martha, a negro woman, about 28 years old, and Ana, an orphan girl, about 3 years old. Eleven shares in the merchants' Insurance Company of New Orleans, on which Thirty Dollars per share are paid in.

Conditions: The shares shall be sold for cash, and the slaves with full guarantee, shall be sold at one year's credit, from the date of adjudication, in notes endorsed to the satisfaction of the testamentary executor, and payable at the domicil of the Union Bank in New Orleans, with mortgage thereon until final payment. Said notes if not punctually paid when due, shall bear an interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum, from their being due until final payment. [signed] GUSTAVE S. ROUSSEAU, Judge.

DR. PARSONS,

SURGEON-DENTIST, from New York.

RESPECTFULLY informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of New Orleans, and its vicinity, that he has taken rooms at Mrs Fox's, No. 147 Chartres street, where he performs any operation on the teeth and Gums in a style not surpassed.

NATURAL and ARTIFICIAL TEETH set in the best manner, and at the most reasonable charges. Also, PORCELAIN TEETH, from a single one to a whole set.

On the first appearance of Tartar or Scurvy, Teeth should always be cleansed, as the corrosion of the Tartar will in a short time reach the roots of the teeth, and they will eventually fall out; and by attending to them in season they may be restored, at a trifling expense, to their original beauty.

The operation of plugging and filing the Teeth when decayed, is so truly important that it is impossible to recommend it too earnestly to the attention of the public. Thousands of the most useful Teeth, which otherwise would, on account of their painfulness, be sacrificed by extraction, may thus be preserved for many years.

From a practice of Dental Surgery for more than twenty years, he hopes to merit a continuation of public patronage. The most difficult Teeth and Roots extracted.

The most celebrated Tooth Powder and Tooth brushes may be had.

N B. He will attend at the dwelling of those Ladies and Gentlemen who request it.
