IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL AMATEURS OF GOOD EATING.
IN this country, where the arts are daily making such rapid progress, the CULINARY art has hitherto been neglected—pastry, especially, has never been undertaken on an extended scale. It is true great many articles of that kind are daily imported from Europe; but the high prices asked for those delicacies, prevent great many persons from enjoying them; and what a difference in the taste will they have if prepared on the spot, and offered fresh to the consumers.
Forcibly struck with this idea, wishing to obviate to the little variety to be found in our market, especially in the forthcoming season, we have called from France one of our friends, a disciple of the celebrated COLIN, of Nantz, and with his assistants we intend to possess, on a great plan, the Culinary Art, and hope to present to families, travellers, and the public in general, all kinds of Pastry. Every Sunday there will be found at their store a great variety of turkies, large and fat pullets, venison, and all kinds of poultry, with or without truffles, &c.; the variety of good things will be such that Amateurs will be puzzled to make a choice. In the days of the week, we will thankfully receive all orders for any article in our line, and beg persons who will favor us with their patronage, to give a day's notice of their commands, so as to enable us to afford them complete satisfaction. We will also undertake all public and private dinners, &c.; go out in private families, to order and prepare entertainments.

ST MARY'S COLLEGE, in the State of Missouri, situated 12 miles from the Mississippi, in the country, where a pure and salubrious air reigns, presents even by its location, many advantages to youths who wish to devote their first years to study, and to the attainment of moral virtues. The course of instruction which is there pursued, embraces a general knowledge adequate to every state and condition. The teachers spare no pains to form, according to the maxims of sound reason, the heart and mind of the youths who are entrusted to their care.
With regard to the Sciences, the following branches are taught, viz: Writing, French, English, Spanish, Latin, Greek, Mathematics, Book-keeping, Surveying, Geography, Logic, Philosophy with all its branches, Metaphysics, Natural and Moral Philosophy.
Terms:—For board and tuition, $100 yearly; washing, $12; medicines and the physician's attendance, $7; the use of the library, $2. Students who feel desirous of studying the Greek, the Spanish, Surveying, or Natural Philosophy, will pay, as an extra charge, $10 for each branch.
All payments must be made every six months in advance. Parents will provide their children with clothes, books, and every thing necessary, unless they should desire it to be furnished at the College; in that case they are required to place, at the beginning of the year, in the hands of the Director of the institution, (at present the Rev. Mr Paquin,) $50, of which an exact account will be rendered. Each scholar, on entering the College, must be provided with the following articles: a mattrass, 5 feet by 2 1-2; two pair of sheets, six shirts, six pair of stockings, two pair of shoes, six handkerchiefs, two complete suits of clothes, bed clothes for winter and summer, combs, a tooth brush, a bag for clothes, a knife, fork and spoon, and towels.
Every six months bulletins will be sent to parents concerning the progress of their children.
The place of disembarking in order to arrive at the College, is St Mary's Landing, on the right bank of the Mississippi 12 miles below St Genevieve. Mr. Davis, who has established himself at that place, will receive the students, and will furnish them with the means to arrive at the College. Parents will please to forward to that gentleman the things they will desire to send to their children.
All communications addressed to the President, (at present Mr Odin,) or to Mr Devenport, resident at New Orleans, will receive a prompt attention.
Letters addressed to the President, or to the Scholars, must be post paid.
N. B. The Director of the establishment is now in New Orleans, on a visit, and will leave for the above place on the 25th of April next. Parents who wish to send their children to the College, may apply at the Parish to Rev. L. Moni, to Mr Jos. Devenport, agent of the College, or to Rev J. Paquin, at the Bishopric. march 25

EXHIBITION OF
INDIAN PORTRAITS.
AT 78 CHARTRES STREET.
MR CATLIN, who has been for 5 years past, traversing the prairies of the "Far West," and procuring the PORTRAITS of the most distinguished Indians of those uncivilized regions, together with paintings of their Villages, Buffalo Hunts, Dances, Landscapes of the country, &c. will endeavor to entertain the citizens of New Orleans for a few days, with an exhibition of 200 portraits and other paintings which he has collected from 37 different tribes, speaking different languages, all of whom he has been among, and painted his pictures from life.
PORTRAITS OF "BLACK HAWK," and nine of his principal Warriors, are amongst the number painted at Jefferson Barracks, while prisoners of war, in their war dress and war paint. Also, four paintings, representing the annual RELIGIOUS CEREMONY OF THE MANDANS,
Doing penance by inflicting the most cruel tortures upon their own bodies—passing knives and splints through their flesh, and suspending their bodies by their wounds, &c.—A series of Thirty Landscape Views.
Descriptive of the picturesque scenery of the Upper Missouri, and a series of twelve
together with some splendid specimens of Costume, will also be exhibited.
The great interest of this collection, consists in its being a representation of the wildest tribes of Indians in America, and entirely in their NATIVE HABITS and COSTUMES—consisting of Sioux, Puncahs, Konzas, Shiennes, Crows, Ojibb-ways, Assinneboins; Mandans, Crees, Black-Feet, Snakes, Mahas, Pawnees Ottoos, Ioways, Flat Heads, Weahs, Peorias, Sacks, Foxes, Minatarrees, Rickarees, Osageez, Camanches, Wicos, Pawnee-picts, Kioways and others.
In order to render the exhibition more instructive than it could otherwise be, the paintings will be exhibited one at a time, and such explanations of their dress, customs, traditions, &c. given by Mr Catlin, as will enable the public to form a just idea of the customs, numbers and condition of the savages yet in a state of nature in North America.
The exhibition and Lecture will commence on Wednesday evening, 25th inst. at 7 o'clock, and be repeated for several succeeding evenings; and it is hoped that visitors will be in and seated as near the hour as possible, that they may see the whole collection as they are passed over.
Price of admission, $1 00; children half price.
