OFFICIAL.

PROCLAMATION.

BY JOSEPH WALKER,

Governor of the State of Louisiana.

TO THE CITIZENS THROUGHOUT THE STATE.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, entitled, "an act to ascertain the sense of the people on the expediency of calling a Convention to alter the Constitution and to provide for the election of delegates, and the holding of the Convention," approved February 23d, 1852, it was enacted that on the 12th day of the next following, a poll shall be opened at each of the election precincts in this state, now established by law, for the purpose of receiving the votes of the qualified voters of the State for or against the calling of a convention to change the Constitution, and whereas, it is to be ascertained by the canvass of the returns made, that on the 10th day of May, 1852, the Governor, Secretary of State and Attorney General, in the presence of all such persons as may attend, did open and proceed to count the votes as given as aforesaid, for and against a convention, which votes stand as follows: "A majority of all the votes taken at the said election, being found to be held, shall be in favor of calling a convention to alter the Constitution of this state" and the proclamation, making known the result of said vote, and shall at the same time issue his proclamation, ordering the sheriffs of the several parishes of this state, to issue writs of election for the number of delegates to which the respective parishes may be entitled to represent in the State Convention, and shall direct and cause to be published in the same manner as is required by law for the promulgation of the General Assembly, and in the several Senatorial Districts, such number of delegates as shall be entitled to represent in the General Assembly, and the several Representative districts, such number of delegates as shall be entitled to represent in the General Assembly, and shall cause publication of such proclamation to be made in the official journals of this state, and in the several Senatorial
