DISASTER.

The brig Canton, Capt. Anderson, bound to Boston, with a full cargo of produce, had just left the Levee on Saturday night, at 10 o'clock, in tow of the steamer Alton, when she came in contact with the ship Oregon, in tow of the steamer Walk-in-the-Water, going up to Natchez, causing the former vessel to sink almost immediately. This unfortunate disaster occurred in the middle of the river, opposite the Mint, and in such deep water, that the brig has altogether disappeared. We regret to state that a sailor was drowned in attempting to descend into the cabin after the collision. The ship Oregon received no injury. The following is the cargo of the Canton:—1083 brls pork, 694 kegs lard, 96 brls and 3 half brls beef, 807 pigs lead, 174 bales hemp, 75 brls flour, 60 brls molasses, 26 brls lard oil, 137 brls beans.

T. REA'S JOB PRINTING OFFICE,

And Office of the Rotary Press.

THE subscriber respectfully gives notice to the public that he has removed his Job Office to the ground floor at the store No. 80 MAGAZINE STREET, in Banks' Arcade, opposite to the Commercial Bank, where JOB PRINTING of every description and in the very best style will be executed at the Northern or Western prices.

He will also keep a supply of such articles of stationery as are ordinarily used by the merchants and by steamboats at very low rates, and to this and the business of Job Printing, will confine his attention exclusively. Among his assortment of stationary will be found a supply of Blanks, of such kinds as are commonly wanted.

Among other improvements, he procured, and has now in operation, one of the celebrated patent Rotary Card Presses of J. N. Hickinson of Boston, on which can be printed 3000 cards per hour, and which enables him to afford handsome mercantile and other cards at the surprisingly low price of Five Dollars the Thousand; and he procured a supply of the beautiful embossed cards and note paper invented by the same gentlemen, upon which he prints fancy cards for weddings, balls, parties, visiting &c, of the most highly finished and splendid descriptions, at prices lower than are generally charged for the ordinary kinds.

It is not deemed necessary to enumerate all the kinds of printing which the subscriber is prepared to do; it is sufficient to say that ALL SORTS OF JOB PRINTING ARE EXECUTED AT HIS OFFICE.

The subscriber returns his sincere thanks to this community, where has been extended to him, hitherto, a very large patronage in his line of business, and ventures to express the hope that his recently increased facilities will enable him to serve the public still more extensively.
