A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the grandest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to recoil at being uncovered, and sometimes even to shun society to avoid the jests and sneers of their acquaintance; the remainder of their lives are consequently spent in retirement. In short, not even the loss of property fills the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To avert all these unpleasant circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and frees it from scurf. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm are shown by the proprietors.

Read the following:

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen.

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling off of hair, but a also a certain restorative. WM. THATCHER, senior, Methodist Minister in St. George charge, No. 86 North Fifth st.

John P. Inglis, 331 Arch street. John D. Thomas, M. D. 163 Race st. John S. Furey, 101 Spruce st. Hugh McCurdy, 243 South 2d st. John Gard, Jr. 123 Archst.

The aged, and those who persist in wearing wigs, may not always experience its restorative qualities, yet it has never failed in its virtues in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

From the Mayor. COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, City of Philadelphia.

I, ROBERT WHARTON, mayor of said city of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs. J. P. Inglis, John S. Furey, & Hugh McCurdy, whose names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of character and respectability, and as such full credit should be given to said certificate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the city to be affixed this ... eighth day of December, &c. ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor.

TOWN OF DE KALB.

WILL be sold, at the City Exchange, St. Louis street, at 12 o'clock, on Thursday and Friday the 21st and 22d of June 1838; the lots in the town of De Kalb, the tract of land adjoining it, divided into lots of various sizes from 50 down to 1 4 of an acre.

De Kalb, is situated at Leas landing, on the eastern bank of the river Tanchipaho, a few miles above its juncture with Lake Ponchartrain, in the parish of St. Tammany. This town can challenge competition with any other which has been offered to the public for many years past, for all that is desirable or valuable.

The land forms a bluff on the river Tanchipaho, a high, dry and cooling, with fine water, fishing and fowling, gardens to any extent may be formed on a good soil, which is found along the banks of the river. The adjacent country is capable of sustaining a large population; is well adapted for summer retreats.

Within six miles of De Kalb, are several springs, has fine water as any in the Southern States; to which there is a direct road on good ground.

There will be an easy communication from Madisonville to De Kalb, by land and from thence to all the country through Holmesville, Mississippi, over a beautiful country, remarkably well located for railroads.

Families seeking for health in the summer, can find no situations in the neighbourhood of New Orleans preferable to De Kalb.

Persons wishing to purchase at private sale, will find the subscriber on the premises on the last Saturday in every month, or to Mr. M. G. Penn at Covington, and the public are invited to attend to visit the spot and each one to judge for himself.

A plan and map of the premises will be exhibited at the sale.

Terms—6, 12 and 18 months credit, with endorsed notes, payable at the Union Bank in New Orleans or at Covington with mortgage on the premises. april 25—6 3m

PENMANSHIP. Practical and Ornamental, Taught at DOLBEAR & BROTHERS' Writing Academy, No 8 Chartres street.—The extensive patronage which the ... method of Writing has received in various parts of the United States, and the increasing application for instructions in the science, as well as the practice of Writing, has induced them to establish permanent academies in New York, New Orleans and Mobile; and it is their attention to afford greater facilities for the acquisition of Penmanship than are offered by any other institution in the country. Persons entering one of them has the privilege of attending at either of the others without extra charge. The ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to call. Specimens of rapid improvement given by persons from 8 to 50 years of age, who have received lessons in this city may be seen at any hour of the day. Ladies are taught a delicate and rapid epistolary style; also, various styles of ornamental writing, suited to Albums, Notes of Compliment, &c. Gentlemen are taught a free and expeditious handwriting calculated to facilitate business transactions, by dispensing with the delay incident to deciphering the hieroglyphical scrawl of most men of business, and imparting to the clerk a style at once rapid and elegant. Persons visiting the city for only a few days will receive special attention.

The number of Lessons is not limited, but every person who enters is desired to remain till he writes sufficiently well for any kind of business. This is the interest of both teacher and pupil.

Ladies who prefer it can receive lessons at their own residences. Ornamental writing executed with elegance.
