MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS, General Council.
SITTING OF SATURDAY THE 7th OF JUNE, 1840.

An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled, "An ordinance relative to Public Carriages for hire in the city of New Orleans, approved May 27th, 1839." The General Council of New Orleans ordain as follows:

ARTICLE 1. From and after the promulgation hereof, it shall not be lawful for any owner, driver, or person having charge or authority over a public hack, carriage or cab for hire, to charge other than the following rates, under a penalty of not more than $50 for each offence, unless the said driver be a slave, then the penalty shall not be more than 15 dollars for the first offence, and 50 dollars for every offence thereafter, to be recovered before any Court having jurisdiction thereof; the fines or penalties collected under this ordinance to be divided between the three municipalities, as provided for in the twenty second section of an Act entitled "An Act to incorporate the city of New Orleans, approved March 8th, 1836.

ART. 2. For every trip within the incorporated limits of either municipality, or from the incorporated limits of one municipality to the incorporated limits of the adjoining municipality, twenty-five cents for each passenger.

From Esplanade street to the Ursuline Nuns, convent, 37½ cents and lower down, pro rata, according to the rates of distances herein after established.

From the incorporated limits of the 2d Municipality to the incorporated limits of the 3d Municipality, or vice versa, fifty cents for each passenger.

For every trip out of the incorporated limits of either municipality, to the incorporated limits of either of the other municipalities, sixty-two and a half cents for each passenger.

For every trip out of the incorporated limits of one municipality to the incorporated limits of the adjoining municipality, sixty two and a half cents, provided the distance does not exceed twelve squares of the city proper; then the charge to be pro rata.

ART. 3. After gun fire, the owner or driver of a carriage, hack or cab for hire, shall be authorised to exact double the rates prescribed in the foregoing article, for each passenger.

ART. 4. For every trip from either municipality to the lake shore, via Bayou road, or shell road of the New Orleans Canal and Banking Company, 5 dollars for the whole carriage, not exceeding four passengers, and for a cab or gig, three dollars, and one dollar for each and every hour after the first hour the said carriage is detained by the passengers at the lake.

ART. 5. Any owner or driver of carriage, hack or cab, who shall refuse either to a number of persons, or to a single person, to convey them or him, to the places comprehended to be within the measure of this ordinance, and upon the terms set down in the same, shall be liable to a fine of from ten to one hundred dollars for each contravention, at the discretion of any competent Court, before which suit shall be instituted for the recovery of the same.

ART. 6. Any owner or driver of a carriage may, upon agreement with passengers, charge at the rate of one dollar per hour for the use of the whole carriage for four persons, provided that the owner or driver shall be allowed to charge at the rate of one dollar per hour, should only one person desire the use of his carriage.

ART. 7. It shall be the duty of every owner or driver of carriage, hack, or cab for hire, to have the number of the same painted on the lamps in figures, in a conspicuous manner, not less than three inches in length, and three quarters of an inch in thickness, which lamps shall be lighted every night, moonlight or dark, at dusk, and continue so lighted while in the streets, or elsewhere on hire, and in contravention of this article, or any part hereof, the said owner or driver shall be subject to the same fine, and be recovered in the same manner as set forth in the 5th article of this ordinance.

ART. 8. It shall be the duty of every driver of a carriage, hack or cab, while at the stands to remain in his or their seats, or within ten feet of their horses' head, and on all and every occasion of leaving their carriages, they shall leave their whips in them —for every contravention of the provisions of this article, the driver shall be liable to a fine of not less than five dollars, nor exceeding fifty dollars, to be recovered as provided in the 5th article of this ordinance.

ART. 9. Whenever complaint shall have been made of one or more carriages, or the drivers thereof having been racing or found driving at a speed to endanger the safety of persons or passengers, they shall be liable to a fine of not less than ten dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, at the discretion of any competent Court before which suit may be instituted for the recovery of the same.

ART. 10. Every owner or driver of carriage, hack or cab, shall be bound to have the present ordinance framed and hung up and kept in constant repair, in some conspicuous place in his carriage; in default whereof, he shall be liable to a fine of twenty-five dollars, recovered before any Court of competent jurisdiction.

ART. 11. All ordinances or parts of ordinances, contrary to the meaning of this are hereby repealed.
(Signed) GEO. MORGAN, President.
Approved July 1st, 1840.
Signed, WM. FRERET, Mayor.

AUCTION SALES.

Valuable and Extensive Sugar Plantation and Slaves for sale.
BY BEARD, CALHOUN & CO., Auctioneers.

ON MONDAY, the 11th day of January next, (1847) at 12 o'clock, M., will be sold at Banks' Arcade, by consent of all the heirs who are of full age, the following property and slaves belonging to the succession of the late Joseph Dusuau, of the Parish of Jefferson, deceased, to wit:

First, a certain Sugar Plantation, situated in the Parish of Jefferson, in this State, measuring thirty-four arpents six toises and two feet front on the Mississippi River, by a depth of forty arpents, except the upper arpent, which has a depth of eighty arpents and upwards; together with another tract of ground in the rear of said plantation, being the double concession thereof and containing two hundred and eleven acres and two thirds, superficial measure; the two side lines of said tract converging towards the rear, the lower line running South 40 degrees 32 minutes West, and the upper line running South 31 degrees 37 minutes West.

Together with all the buildings and improvements on said plantation, consisting of a brick sugar-house and purgery, covered with slate; a steam engine and mill, and all the appurtenances necessary for making a sugar crop.

There are on said plantation, mattrasses, containing plant cane, which are supposed to be sufficient for planting 250 acres, and a large part of the land required for the next planting is already ploughed.—The arpent of land on the upper line, which extends back more than eighty arpents, runs to a bayou by which the whole plantation can be drained.

There are on the place four dwelling houses, one of which is a large commodious family mansion, in perfect order; together with the amplest conveniences in the way of out-houses, comprising stables, kitchens, negro quarters, billiard room, and every thing necessary for a country residence.

Attached to the sugar mill are a saw mill and grist mill run by steam power.

Secondly, All the horses, mules and horned cattle employed in the cultivation of said plantation, as well as the agricultural implements, carts, ploughs, &c., and the sheep, cattle, horses and mares—the whole being amply sufficient for the cultivation.

SECOND DISTRICT COURT of New Orleans—Whereas Alfred Amable Lebeau has petitioned the Court for letters of administration on the vacant estate of the late Marie Eulalie Enoul Dugue Livaudais, his wife, deceased intestate; Notice is hereby given, to all whom it may concern, to show cause within ten days, why the prayer of the said petitioner should not be granted.

By order of the Court. WM. K. WAUTON, ja7 3t10d Deputy Clerk.

STATE OF LOUISIANA.—Fifth District Court of New Orleans.—To all whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas, Lallande Ferriere having purchased at a sale made by the Sheriff of the Parish of Jefferson, the property herein after described, has applied to the Clerk of this Court in whose office the deed of sale was recorded on the fourth day of February: A. D. 1846, for a Monition or Advertisement in conformity to an act of the Legislature of the State of Louisiana, entitled "An act for the further assurance of titles to purchasers at judicial sales;" approved the tenth day of March, 1834.

Now, therefore, know ye, and all persons interested herein, are hereby cited and admonished in the name of the State of Louisiana, and of the Fifth District Court of New Orleans, who can set up any right, title or claim in and to the property herein after described, in consequence of any informality in the order, decree or judgment of the court under which the sale was made, or any irregularity or illegality in the appraisements and advertisements, in time, or manner of sale, or for any other defect whatsoever; to show cause, within thirty days from the day this Monition is first inserted in the public papers, why the sale so made should not be confirmed and homologated.

The said property was sold by the Sheriff of the Parish aforesaid on the sixth day of December, A. D. 1845, by virtue of a decree of the late District Court, rendered on the fourth day of October, A. D. 1845, in a suit entitled Dominique Lanata vs Sylvain Guy Arnoult, f. m. of c. No. [illegible] of the Docket of said Court, at which sale the said Lallande Ferriere became the purchaser thereof for the price of three thousand and ten dollars, payable at twelve months from the day of the sale, with eight per cent interest and special mortgage till paid, which was settled as follows, to wit: said purchaser has furnished two bonds payable as aforesaid, each signed by L. L. Ferriere as principal and F. Victor Marat, as security, and dated December 6th, 1845, one in favor of said Dominique Lanata for the sum of two thousand four hundred and one dollars, and twenty-seven cents amount of principal, interest and costs; and the other in favor of the President and Board of Council of the city of Lafayette for the sum of three hundred and three dollars and sixty nine cents and the balance of the price of adjudication of three hundred and five dollars and four cents in a receipt from Felix Bouligny, owner of the said property at the moment of the sale.

Description of property as given in the Judicial conveyance, viz: a certain lot of ground situated on the Batture in front of the faubourg Lafayette, Parish of Jefferson, in this state, designated by the letter G on a plan made by J. Pilie, on the 2d day of March, 1821, and deposited in the office of Carlile Pollock, late notary of the city of New Orleans, said lot measuring sixty feet front on the public road or Levee street and extending in depth to the river Mississippi, bounded on one side by lot designated by the letter F, on the other side by Josephine street, together with all buildings and improvements, circumstances and dependencies thereon without any exception or reserve.

Witness the Hon A. M. Buchanan, Judge of the Court aforesaid, this 17th December, 1846.
