Sale by the honorable Charles Fagot, judge of the parish of St.-Bernard.

BY order of the Court of Probates of the parish of Orleans, and by the consent of a family meeting, will be sold on Friday, the 20th September next and on the following days, at 11 o'clock A. M, on the following mentioned property, situated in the parish of St.-Bernard, distant of about five miles below the city of New-Orleans on the left bank of the river, by the honorable judge Chs. Fagot, acting ex-officio as public auctioneer for the parish of St.-Bernard, the following property and rights dependencies, utensils, horses, carriages, &c. &c. belonging to the partnership heretofore existing between Messrs. Augustin Viavant and Pierre Urbain Forestier, to wit:

BEAUSEJOUR'S PLANTATION.

A Piece of Ground situated on the left bank of the river, at about five miles below the city of New-Orleans, having (French measure) one arpent front on the river Mississippi and extending in length to the lake, designated by the No. 9 (nine) on a plan which was made by order of the vendors of the plantation of St.-Amand, said plan is deposited at the office of Carlile Pollock Esq. notary public, by an act passed before said notary on the 10th of April 1832. The said lot of ground is bounded on the upper part by the lot designated on the said plan by the No. 8 and on the lower part by the limits of the lot N. 10. The said lot No. 9, which was formerly a part of the plantation of Messrs. St. Amand, will be sold without guarantee for all measurement in depth exceeding eighty arpents from the river. Together, all the improvements thereon, consisting of a handsome DWELLING HOUSE, two other buildings attached to it, store house, hospital, four negroes dwellings, chickens' coops, &c. all of which are new, having been lately finished, excepting the dwelling house which is not entirely finished. The whole to be sold as it may stand on the day of sale.

The Beausejour's plantation is sold with a mortgage existing on it, as a security for the payment of a last note drawn by the venders, amounting to $2 533 33⅓. The venders will bound themselves in the act of sale to the payment of said last note at the time it will become due, and it will give to the purchasers a full and sufficient guarantee for the canceling of the mortgage when the said note of $2,533 33⅓ will be paid by them.

Will also be sold on the premises (separately from the piece of ground and the buildings) the instruments, some lots of lumber and fire-woods, a lot of piews and planks, the Animals, a Gig, and other moveable effects.

Terms and conditions of sale.—The plantation Beausejour with all the buildings thereon, at 1, 2, 3 and 4 years credit, in equal notes with approved endorsements and special mortgage until final payment. For what will be sold separately from the piece of ground and of the buildings as above described, the terms will be cash for all sums under $100, and at 60 days credit with approved endorsed notes for all sums above one hundred dollars. No moveable effects will be delivered before the conditions of the sale shall be fulfilled.

The act of sale will be passed before Felix de Armas notary public in the city of New-Orleans. aug 14

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.

A mulatto creole named BASILE belonging to Mr. Francis Olivile Forcelle, planter of the parish of St. John the Baptist, absented himself from his masters house on the 16th of August last. Said slave is about 20 years of age, his size is about 5 feet 4 inches, French measure, and his hand has been burnt by an explosion of powder; he speaks French and a little English. It is believed that he has fled to New Orleans, and that he represents himself as free, and will probably look for work as a sugar maker in some segar manufactory. The above reward will be given to any person bringing him back to his master, or will secure him in any jail within the state. aug 11

SLAVE RUNAWAY.

RANAWAY from the plantation of Louis Tassin, at Bonnet Carre, on 16th of this month, an Americanized slave named JUPPY, she speaks little French, aged about 25 years, about 5 feet 4 inches high, little board—has a stern look—his hair is straight and long, and has a cicatrice on the right hand occasioned by a wound from an axe. Having carried away all his clothes it is probable he will change his dress. It is to be presumed that he was enticed away by two white men who were seen near the environs of the plantation, and who disappeared at the same time he did. Captains of steamboats and others are cautioned not to harbor him. A reward of $25 will be given for his apprehension upon notice thereof being given to his master. aug 11
