CONGRESS.

The SENATE was not in session on the first instant.

In the HOUSE a bill was passed for the relief of OSBORN CROSS. This gentleman is a quartermaster in the army, and in 1842 he was robbed of 6,600 dollars in Treasury notes. They have been all the past season, and are yet at and near Key Biscayne Bay.

Our climate during the past winter and spring has been most delightful, neither hot nor cold, but a "golden mediocrity" in which the time could be passed in the open air with comfort and pleasure. Summer is just setting in but with it comes the almost continued trade wind, tempering the fervid rays of the sun and rendering the summer months more agreeable than much higher latitudes.

THE VOICE OF MARYLAND.

We have received, from Annapolis, the subjoined official report of the proceedings of the Whig members of the Legislature of Maryland, at a meeting recently held by them in Annapolis, upon the subject of the next Presidency. The preference here declared for Mr. Fillmore, as the Whig candidate for President, is that of the Whigs of Maryland, and the assurance given that he will, if nominated by the National Convention, receive their cordial support, was alike due to him for the manner in which he has discharged the duties of the Presidential office, in most trying times, as to the desire which the Whigs of Maryland feel, to give an emphatic expression of their approval of all he has done, by casting their votes for his re-election.

What is also said in these resolutions, of the Compromise measures, and of the doctrines of WASHINGTON, find a hearty response in the hearts of the Whigs of Maryland.

At a meeting of the Whig members of the Legislature, held in the Senate chamber, the following proceedings were had:

On motion, Hon Wm. Lingan Gaither was called to the chair, and Thos. J. Marshall, Esq., appointed secretary.

The following resolutions, reported by Mr. Farnandis, from a committee appointed at a former meeting, were then adopted:

Resolved by the Whig members of the General Assembly of Maryland, That we cordially approve of the following resolutions, adopted by the Whigs of Virginia, and adopt them as also, in our opinion, expressing the sentiments of the Whigs of Maryland, to wit:

1. That we regard the acts of Congress commonly known as the Compromise, as a final adjustment of the questions involved in them; and we will consider any attempt to disturb them as a blow aimed at the peace of the country and the integrity of the Union.

2. That we approve the administration of President Fillmore, believing that by his wisdom, evinced in the conduct of our national affairs, amidst embarrassing difficulties, his loyalty to the constitution, his firmness in the maintenance of the laws, and his just regard for the rights of the States, he has eminently fulfilled our expectations and justly entitled himself to our continued confidence and support.

3. That we prefer Millard Fillmore as a candidate for the Presidency, over all other persons who have been proposed for that high station, and if he shall be nominated by the Whig National Convention, the Whigs of Maryland will give him their cordial support.

4. That the Whigs of Maryland will give the like support to any other true Whig, who may become the nominee of that convention, who has stood by and does stand by the Compromise, and regards it and stands by it, with unalterable determination, as a final settlement and adjustment of the measures involved in it.

5. That the wise maxims of Washington, respecting the foreign policy of this country, which have been practically illustrated in the administration of President Fillmore, ought ever to guide the Federal Government in its intercourse with foreign nations.

WM. LINGAN GAITHER, Chairman.
THOS. J. MARSHALL, Secretary.

BUFFALO, May 1.

First Arrival at Buffalo from New York.—The canal boat Henry W. Palmer, arrived here yesterday from New York being the first boat that has reached here from the above city since the opening of the canals.

THE NAVY YARD MEETING.

The gathering at the American Theatre on Saturday night was a respectable, but hardly a numerous one. When the speaking began, however, the house gradually filled, until a tolerably large meeting had assembled.

Major Beard called the meeting to order, and the following officers were nominated:

Hon. A. D. Crossman, Mayor, President; Gov. Isaac Johnson, Gen. J. B. Plauche, J. P. Benjamin, Recorders Genois, Winter and Seuzeneau, Messrs. Stanton, Cohen, Matthews, Adams, Harris, and a number of others, Vice Presidents. The Secretaries were Julien Neville, L. Heyliger, B. F. Flanders and J. M. Burke, from the respective districts of the city.

Messrs. J. P. Benjamin, Logan Hunton, and W. S. Campbell, were in turn called upon by the meeting for a speech, and all elaborately treated the subjects of the meeting.

The following committee was appointed by the Chair, to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting: Messrs. W. S. Campbell, L. J. Harris, W. C. C. Claiborne, Col. I. G. Seymour, and J. W. Stanton. This committee reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

1. Resolved, That the citizens of New Orleans owe it to themselves and to the great Commercial interests throughout the whole country connected with them, to claim from the Federal Government that protection, which the importance of the commerce of the place deserves, and which should be in consonance with the strength and character of this country.

2. Resolved, That New Orleans being one of the principal cities of the Union, and the first and most prominent of the South, is considered by her citizens as entitled to a fair proportion of the public expenditure, as compared with any other city in the Union, of the same relative importance, and having contributed largely to the general funds which have been expended in Northern cities to their great advantage and improvement, should now in her turn receive the consideration of Government in order to promote her advancement by a reasonable attention to her wants.

3. Resolved, That in view of the vast commercial importance of this city, receiving, as it does, the products of nearly one half of the States of the Union, and considering our close proximity to the various isthmus routes to the Pacific, over which, ere long, will pass a commerce of immense extent and value, it is incumbent upon us to urge upon the Federal Government the necessity of having a Navy Yard established here, of ample magnitude, so that our city and its commercial interests may receive such protection, in the event of war, as a well appointed Navy Yard can afford.

4.—Resolved, That the citizens of New Orleans, in general, highly approve of, and concur in, the energetic action pursued by his Honor, the Mayor, and the late and present Councils of the city, as well as by His Excellency, the Governor, and our State Legislature, in endeavoring to impress upon the Administration, at Washington, by able and unanswerable arguments, as shown by their memorials and reports, the desire of this community that a Navy Yard should be established here.

5—Resolved, That we have noticed with satisfaction the movements already made for the establishment here of a Navy Yard and Depot by our late Representative in Congress, the Hon. E. LaSere, and by our Senators, the Hon. P. Soule and Hon. Solomon W. Downs, and we rely on the continued exertions of our whole delegation to effect the desired object.

6.—Resolved, That in order to conduce to the welfare of our city and to ensure success in developing its resources, it is incumbent upon us to promote and encourage among ourselves a spirit of devotion to objects of public good, and to exert our united and collective influence in representing, demanding and insisting upon our rights or claims on the General Government, not only so far as regards the immediate object of this meeting, but in reference to a regular transmission of the Mails—the deepening of the water on the Bars, at the Mouth of the Mississippi—and the establishment of a Mail Line of Steamers to Vera Cruz—all of which are subjects of great interest to our city, and require the immediate and earnest attention of our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

7—Resolved, That the Hon. Mayor of the city be requested to address copies of the report of the proceedings of this meeting, to the President and Heads of Departments at Washington, and also to the members of our Congressional Delegation, to be by them brought forward in the Halls of Congress, and that the Mayor be further requested to address such communications accompanying the copies of said report, as will clearly represent the sense of the citizens of this city.

On motion of Logan Hunton, Esq., the following resolution was also adopted:

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting do appoint a committee of twenty persons to proceed to Washington, and to urge, by all honorable means, upon the President, the Secretary of the Navy, and upon Congress, the importance and necessity of this work.

The meeting adjourned sine die.

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.]

WASHINGTON, May 2, 1852.

A Counter Whig Manifesto—Alleged former Opposition of Mr. Fillmore to the Compromise—Denial thereof—A Scott Letter in favor of the Compromise—The Seward committee Room, &c.

A counter manifesto will soon be published to the manifesto of the Southern Whig members, who left the Congressional Caucus, lately held at the capital; and an attempt will be made in this counter manifesto to prove that General Scott is as good a compromise man as Mr. Fillmore or Mr. Webster or Mr. any body else.

Not satisfied with this, I hear it whispered that certain statements are about to appear, purporting to show that Mr. Fillmore was opposed to the Compromise, previous to the death of General Taylor, and would, as Vice President of the United States, have given his casting vote against the omnibus bill, had there been a tie vote on the subject in the Senate. Now, I simply know not from hearsay, that Mr. Fillmore expressed a very different opinion on the subject at the time, from what his enemies or opponents would now make him appear to have said, and I venture to assert that Gen. Foote, now Governor of Mississippi, may be able to bear testimony on the subject. I, for my own part, feel certain that Mr. Fillmore was all right on the Compromise before the death of General Taylor, and feel confident that other witnesses will be found, to prove the national position of Mr. Fillmore, long before an inscrutable dispensation of Providence took away the late President, and placed Mr. Fillmore in the White House.

But I should not be surprised to see coffin hand bills issued against Mr. Fillmore, as they are against General Cass, though I should be amazed if either of them were to retaliate on their calumniators.

Gen. Scott, it is now believed, will, after all, come out with a compromise letter, with a view of securing the South. The decided opposition of the Native Americans in Pennsylvania, and of the order of the United Americans in New York, have had the influence to soften the General's rigor, and Mr. Seward himself is said to have expressed himself in favor of a few distinct lines, to do away with certain prejudices that might exist in the minds not only of Southern Whigs, but of the Whig Union men of the North itself.

Though a declaration in favor of the compromise might not add to the bona fide voters of Gen. Scott in the North, the fact cannot be denied that it would place the commissariat of that army in an incomparably superior position which is all important in the great Presidential campaign.

Room No. 14 of the Astor House—commonly known in New York as the Seward Committee Room—is now transferred to Washington, where a committee of vigilance is about to be established for free soil purposes.

The idea that Daniel Ullmann, Esq., the late candidate for Attorney General in the State of New York, is in favor of bringing out Governor Jones, of Tennessee, is a great mistake. Mr. Ullmann is a staunch and unwavering friend of Fillmore, and no mistake.

☞ The Home Journal says that the last instalments of Jenny Lind's munificent gift of $150,000 towards the endowment of schools in her native country, has been despatched. Her pledge to give that sum has been redeemed, and she may now calmly rejoice in the consciousness of having nobly accomplished a noble endeavor. It is a satisfaction too, to the people of this country to reflect that in rewarding the sweet singer, their money has been well bestowed.

CERTIFICATE FOR THE CURE OF BROKEN-DOWN MERCHANTS.—Read the Document.—We have often tried, in our feeble way, says the Boston Transcript, to make the people of this city understand the benefits to be derived by giving publicity to their business, through the medium of the press. It will cure broken down, weak, sickly business men, save more lives than were ever saved by all the medicines ever sold, taking the certificates of doctors and druggists for true; but read the document:

HEAR THE TESTIMONY.—In the year 1840 I started business in the city of Boston, with a cash capital of $5,000, and a good fair credit. I hired me a good store at a moderate rent, applied myself industriously to my business. In 1842 I took an account of stock, and found that I was $3,000 worse off than when I began, more than half of my capital had been sunk in expenses and bad debts. This rather discouraged me, but as it was the first year of my business, and I was but little known, I thought I would try it another year. My creditors and friends recommended that I should join a church or an engine company, both of which I did, and in 1843 I again took account of my affairs, and found that if I could sell my stock out at the market prices, I should lack just $1500 of having money enough to pay my debts. I had a note against one of the brothers in the church for $200, which some said was good; this would reduce my indebtedness that amount; but he never paid it.

To make a long story short I failed—burst up—went to smash—and all my friends and creditors pronounced me a ruined man; and to make it sure they turned me out of the church. In 1845 I contrived to get a little money, with which I bought a few goods. I got some bills and cards printed, and sent them to every one I could think of: the consequence was, they began to come in and trade a little. I continued to push the cards and bills, and also to advertise in the newspapers, and customers came in from all parts of the country. I soon had to enlarge my store, and I now do a bigger business than any man on the street. I keep up my advertising, and my business keeps increasing.

I have got $15,000 invested in good stocks; I own the house I live in, and it is worth $7500—my goods are all paid for, as I buy for cash, and I have paid off all my old debts of 1843. This I attribute to your invaluable remedy to an unhealthy business, of letting the public know what you are doing, and what you want to do, through the press.

If this certificate will be the means of saving one poor man, situated as I was seven years ago, my object is accomplished.

C. SHARP, Jun.

☞ For one of the best true Macaronies in our own day, says the London Examiner, we are indebted to the wit of Mr. Gilbert Abbott A'Beckett. We may reproduce it as a convenient specimen, though it is doubtless well known to many of our readers:

Qui nunc dancere vult modo,
Wants to dance in the fashion oh!
Discere debet—ought to know,
Kickere floor cum heel and toe,
One, two, three,
Hop with me,
Whirling, twirligig, rapide.

Polkam jungere, Virgo, vis,
Will you join the Polka, Miss?
Liberious—most willingly,
Sic agemus—then let us try;
Nunc vide,
Skip with me,
Whirlabout, roundabout, celere.

Tum leva, cito, tum dextra,
First to the left, and then t'other way;
Aspice retro in vultu,
You look at her, and she looks at you,
Das palmam,
Change hands, ma'am;
Celere—run away, just in sham.

KOSSUTH.—We extract the following from the American Telegraph, published at Washington:

This gentleman, in his speech in Faneuil Hall yesterday said that 'the cradle of American liberty', should be called the "cradle of liberty in America." He appears to think that liberty in this country is not yet out of its cradle. He may do some mischief before he gets away, as our Yankee brethren appear to be ready for all sorts of idolatry; but when he gets clear out of the country, will he not tell the world a pretty story about us! Just wait a little. But while he is doing so, we will be looking out very sharply for a new lion.

The following document, which may be found in the public archives in this city, should prove encouraging to adventurers:

PHILADELPHIA, May 2

Preparations for the Great Firemen's Parade.—The New Market Fire Company from Baltimore arrived here yesterday afternoon, and were received at Dock street wharf by the Fairmount, and a large escort from other companies. They were much admired.

The Liberty, Deptford and Independent Companies, of Baltimore, reached the city at two o'clock this morning, in a train of 10 cars. The Franklin Hose House, on Broad street, was beautifully illuminated. The Liberty was received by the Fairmount, who formed a procession of 150 men, and escorted them to their quarters. The Independent was received by the Good Will, and the Deptford by the Vigilant. The Monumental Hose, from Baltimore, were escorted by the Good Intent Hose.

Delegations from Boston and Lowell arrived on Saturday evening. The Columbian Engine Company, of New York, was met at Tacony this evening by a delegation from the Northern Liberty, to escort them here. The Tivoli Hose, of Albany, will be received to night by the Columbian Hose.

The city is thronged with strangers, and the streets are decorated with streamers. The firemen are in a bustle of preparation.

WASHINGTON, May 2

Presidential Matters, &c.—Since General Houston's return, his friends are redoubling their efforts in his behalf, asserting that, if the Democratic convention nominate him, success is certain—the friends of the Maine law, without distinction of party, being strongly in his favor, while but few democrats would fail to support him zealously. They count him stronger than Cass.

Gen. Scott's friends appear sanguine of his nomination by the Whig Convention, averring that with him they fear no Democrat that may be nominated. Webster's friends, it is said, will now support Fillmore.

The Marine Band commenced their series of summer concerts in the President's grounds yesterday afternoon.

PORT DEPOSIT, MD, May 1

Lumber at Port Deposit.—This has been a great lumber season here in consequence of the frequency of high water in the Susquehanna.—A variety of opinions has existed with regard to the quantity of lumber which has reached here up to this time, the estimate varying from five to fifteen hundred rafts and arks. There is just now, by actual count, three hundred and ninety seven rafts of sawed lumber and shingles in Port Deposit.

City Intelligence.

CHARITY HOSPITAL.—The report of this institution for the last week, shows:

Admissions	244
Discharged	234
Deaths	32
Patients remaining	[illegible]

Among the deaths, we noticed that Jean Hergozen, a bar keeper, died from having cut his throat while laboring under the influence of delirium tremens.

John Upton, a carpenter, was admitted for treatment of an injury of his chest, occasioned by having fallen from the roof of a house where he was at work.

John Berry, a seaman, was admitted on the 4th. He had received a severe injury of the spine from having fallen down the hold of the ship Andover.

CHARGE OF ATTEMPTED MURDER.—Francis Fleming, the man who was thrown out of a third story window on the night of the 23d ult., has sufficiently recovered to leave the Charity Hospital. On Saturday he made the following affidavit before Recorder Winter:

"Francis Flemming having been duly sworn, doth depose and say that on or about the 23d of April, 1852, in the night time, while deponent was asleep in the house of one Beatty, known as Beatty's Exchange, corner of Tchoupitoulas and Common streets, in the First District of this city, deponent being a boarder in said house, he was suddenly awakened by feeling some one searching his pockets, and discovered one Charles Reynolds and some three or four other persons, whose names he does not know, but whom he will point out. Deponent then called for the man of the house, and thereupon said Charles Reynolds and those persons with him, seized hold of deponent and violently and feloniously threw him out of the window of the room which was on the second or third story of the house, causing him to fall on the banquette, near the curb stone, leaving him for some time insensible. Deponent had, when he went to sleep, $80 in gold and bank notes, in one pocket of his pantaloons, which he had not taken off, and about $20 in silver in another pocket. The $80 were taken, but the silver was undisturbed. The robbery was, as deponent verily believes, committed by Reynolds and the other persons whom he charges with having feloniously and burglariously entered his room, robbed him, assaulted and beaten him, and then threw him out of the window with intent to murder him, against the peace and dignity of the State."

Reynolds has been in prison ever since the morning of the occurrence, for as soon as Flemming could speak, he gave such information as led to his arrest.

COMMITTED.—George Potier, Constantine Roland, P. J. Kunis, and Francis A. Boyer, whose arrest, a few days ago, we noticed, on a charge of swearing to fraudulent papers to obtain Texas land scrip, were examined before Recorder Genois yesterday, and were committed for trial before the First District Court.

ARRESTED.—John Darcy and Michael Smith, were arrested at an early hour yesterday morning, on a charge of shooting with intent to murder, whom, we could not learn.

SUICIDE.—Patrick Carey, a native of Ireland, aged 40 years, committed suicide on Saturday night in the Charity Hospital, by hanging himself to a bed post. He had been admitted on the 28th ult., his disease being a chronic inflammation of the liver. When the fatal act was committed he was delirious. An inquest was held by Coroner Wilkinson, a verdict in accordance with existing facts was rendered.

INQUEST.—An inquest was held yesterday at Uncle Sam's Coffee House, on New Levee street, on the body of a German named John Seisam. The deceased was a boarder in the house and died very suddenly on Saturday night of congestion of the bowels.

A CARD.

NEW ORLEANS FEMALE ORPHAN ASYLUM, }
May 8, 1852. }

In behalf of the two hundred and fifty-five Orphans, now under charge, of Sister Regis gratefully acknowledges the receipt of $3,707 50, less the actual expenses, $697 50, (net amount three thousand and ten dollars,) being the entire proceeds from the Exhibition of Fire works for the benefit of the Camp street Female Orphan Asylum, on the 23d ultimo.

In announcing this pleasing result, Sister Regis would respectfully tender her own and her Orphans' thanks to Mr. Cabolr, for the able manner in which he prepared the beautiful and much admired spectacle; to Mr. C. Hopf, for his well conducted musical arrangement; to Mr. P. Irwin, for the appropriation of the receipts from his omnibusses at the Exhibition to the Orphans' benefit; and to Mayor Crossman and the kind officers and assistants, for the valuable services rendered by them on the occasion. To the very generous conductors of the entire city Press, she feels under deep and lasting obligation for the frequent and untiring kindness, which, on all occasions, they have extended to the Asylum. She would assure the ladies and gentlemen who have labored so zealously in the Orphans' behalf, that a grateful remembrance of their kindness will long be cherished by the inmates of the Institution. The Orphans' prayer will be frequently offered for the temporal and eternal welfare of their kind benefactors.

To those who ever respond so willingly to all that concerns the Orphan, to the generous citizens of New Orleans, Sister Regis and her Orphans feel truly grateful. Their most opportune benevolence will greatly relieve the embarrassed state of the establishment; and she fondly hopes that Heaven's choicest blessings may be accorded to the kind-hearted people who have given this further proof, that they do, earnestly, "Remember the Orphan."

ST. XAVIER COLLEGE

CINCINNATI, OHIO.

THIS Institution, incorporated by the State of Ohio under the name and style of ST. XAVIER COLLEGE, enjoys all the privileges usually granted to Universities. Its location renders it easily accessible from every part of the Union, and every pains has been taken to make it attractive to such as aspire to a finished education.

Belonging to the establishment is an extensive and well selected Library, already numbering upwards of six thousand volumes, and a Museum containing many specimens in Conchology and Mineralogy, besides a suitable provision of chemical and philosophical apparatus.

The college buildings are spacious, airy and commodious; diet wholesome and abundant, the discipline firm, but affectionate and conciliatory.

Corporal exercise, as well as mental, meets with due attention; to which end there is erected on the premises, a Gymnasium, to which, in hours of recreation, the students have continual access.

In the college are employed from fifteen to twenty teachers, all particularly devoted to the instruction of those under their care. The Professors, and a large majority of the students, are of the Roman Catholic Religion, yet pupils of all denominations are admitted, with the condition and understanding, however, of exterior conformity to all the exercises of public devotion.

Plan of Instruction.

The course of instruction comprises two departments, the one Classical, the other Mercantile, which, however, are so conducted as to admit of the pupil's following either, or both.

The Mercantile Department consists of a thorough course of English, including Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Geography, Use of the Globes, History, Political Grammar and Book-keeping.

The Classical Department, besides the branches just specified, comprehends the Greek and Latin Languages, Poetry, Rhetoric, Chemistry, Physics, Mathematics, Mental and Moral Philosophy. The French, Spanish and German Languages are at the option of the student, and are taught without additional charge.

In the class of Philosophy, the language employed is exclusively Latin; in the French, German and Spanish classes, instruction is carried on in their respective tongues; on all other occasions, the ordinary language of communication is English.

Regulations Peculiar to Boarders.

They are at all times under the superintendence of one or more prefects. Once a month they are permitted to visit their parents, guardians or relations, residing in the city or vicinity. Unless in particular emergencies, no other absence during session is allowed. At the end of each quarter, bulletins of health, conduct and progress in studies, are transmitted to the parents and guardians.

TERMS FOR BOARDERS.

For Board and Tuition in every branch	$130 00
" Washing and mending	15 00
" Physician's fees	5 00
" Stationery	5 00
" Beds and bedding, if furnished by Institution	8 00—$163 00

In addition to the above, there is a charge of $20 00 for those who spend vacation at the College. Half boarders, viz., such as breakfast and dine at the college, are charged $100 00 the session. Matriculation or entrance fee, both for boarders and half boarders, $10 00.

Music, Drawing and Dancing, are at the prices of their respective masters. Medicines and school books furnished at store prices.

The Rev. Mr. F. J. Bauhuis, one of the professors of the University, is now in this city, and will leave for Cincinnati in the beginning of June next.

A Card.

HAVING been engaged in business with one THEODORE SOUZA, under the firm and name of Souza & Simpson, and believing myself to be unfairly dealt with by said Souza, I called upon him for a dissolution of the partnership and full settlement of his account. On the 4th March last, a dissolution was passed by act before Jacob Soria, notary public of this city, at which time said Souza pretended to transfer to me all the notes and bills of Souza & Simpson, and still remained in my debt seven hundred and eighty dollars and forty-seven cents. Since then, I have discovered that the said Souza has been endeavoring to purchase goods with a note for one hundred dollars, purporting to be endorsed by Souza & Simpson, which is false, as no such note was ever authorized by me, and the said Souza pledged himself, before Jacob Soria and Dr. John Wright, to me that he had no notes in his hands or his possession, of Souza & Simpson at the time of said dissolution, and I take this method of cautioning the public against having any thing to do with him in relation to such notes; and I particularly caution all persons against trading for, or discounting any paper signed Souza & Simpson, as it is not genuine, and I will in no way be responsible for the same, and will hold any person presenting such, responsible according to law.
