And, whereas, said Louis Favrot has applied to me for the cancelling of the above recited mortgage.

INSURANCE.

Southern Mutual Life Insurance Company of Louisiana.

Life Insurance Exclusively.

EXTRA GUARANTEE FUND $30,000.
ACCUMULATIVE CAPITAL $500,000.

PARENT OFFICE, NO. 48 CAMP ST.,
New Orleans.

THIS COMPANY is now ready to make Insurance on White Persons and Slaves, at their established rates of premium. This being the only company incorporated in the State confined exclusively to Life Insurance, with an extra Guarantee Fund, the Directors feel confident that it affords unusual and much greater inducements to those desirous of effecting an insurance on their lives than any other.
It is also upon the Mutual principle; each person assured becoming a member thereof and enjoying a portion of its profits, being entirely exempt from any liability beyond the amount of premium secured.
Insurance companies organized upon the mutual principle are generally successful, more especially those exclusively confined to Life, as they are based upon calculations warranted correct by long experience and close scrutiny; but the stability and success of this Company is placed beyond a contingency, by the advantageous arrangement she has made for an undoubted guarantee fund of 30,000 dollars, not to be used or lessened, as subscriptions to mutual insurance companies always are, by an insurance.
This extra guarantee fund of 30,000 dollars remains permanent until the Company has accumulated a similar amount to take its place.
California permits granted, and extensive travelling privileges allowed.

The square blocks shall be laid in regular courses, and shall perfectly well join one another from top to bottom: the joints shall be filled up with sharp sand, and the paving shall be well compressed with the roller. ST. LOUIS' INSTITUTION.
DIRECTED BY MADAME DERON.
BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.
(Years 1850—'51.)

No. 145 St. Louis st. between Dauphine & Burgundy.

THIS Institution, founded nearly twelve years ago, combines every material, moral, and intellectual advantage. Madame Deron, formerly a pupil and governess in the "Institut de la Legion d'Honneur," (Maison St. Denis,) has founded her Seminary, as much as possible, on the model of that great establishment, as well as on the plan of the first Northern Academies.
The situation of St. Louis' Institution is one of the most agreeable and salubrious in town. The whole locality, including dormitories, class and study rooms, and play grounds, being very spacious and airy, and overlooking several gardens, is in so healthy a position, that not a single pupil has experienced the least serious illness.
The plan of instruction both in French and English embraces all the literary and scientific branches of a finished education.
The study of English is the object of particular attention. Madame Deron is scrupulously careful that the creole Young Ladies should devote more time to the study of the English language and literature than to any other branch. Mr. Orton, a professor well known in New Orleans, continues his course of lessons every day. Two English governesses residing in the establishment, preside over the elementary classes, and contribute to the progress of the pupils by the constant use of that language in all the relations of ordinary life.
With respect to the study of French, besides the lessons of able professors and governesses, M. and Madame Deron themselves instruct in the different branches, and are thus enabled by their personal efforts to insure the solidity and rapidity of the progress of their pupils.
The department of Music, including the piano, harp and singing, is under the direction of Madame Lavilleboeuve, an excellent music mistress, who formerly gave lessons in St. Louis' Institution. [illegible]
[illegible]
Religious and moral instruction, which is the basis of every really good education, has received greater developments than in any other Boarding School in the city. Madame Deron herself superintends the religious exercises of the Catholic pupils, and M. l'Abbé Tholosane prepares them for their first communion, and for confirmation by giving religious instruction several times every week in the Chapel of St. Louis' Institution. o4

New Orleans Female Institute.

OR DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.
At No. 251 Camp street.
CONDUCTED BY MR. AND MRS. MACAULAY.

THIS Institution is under the personal supervision of Mrs. Macaulay, the advanced classes in the literary and scientific departments are taught by Mr. Macaulay, assisted by another gentleman. To give instruction in the French, Spanish, and Italian languages, in Drawing, Dancing, Vocal and Instrumental Music, the most accomplished professors are employed.
The school is arranged so as to make it both an English and a French school, and the aim of the principals is to conduct the pupils through a substantial and systematic course of studies, affording at the same time a progressive knowledge and a progressive discipline of the heart as well as the mind. For the instruction of pupils of every age and grade of intellectual culture, ample arrangements have been made. No efforts will be wanting to promote the improvement of the pupils, and young ladies entrusted to the family as boarders will share in the enjoyments, privileges and attentions of daughters.
The play-ground—an item essential to a school—is large, dry and secluded from public view, and references when required, will be made to parents who have had their daughters at the Institution for years.
A course of lectures on History and Biography will be delivered to the advanced classes by Dr. Macaulay, during winter; and to aid the pupils in understanding the lectures on scientific subjects, the school is furnished with the requisite apparatus.
For further information application may be made personally or by letter.
P. S. To enable DR. MACAULAY to give undivided attention to the duties of the Institute, he will retire from teaching at Madame DESRAYAUX'S.
