Splendid Creole Stallion Rolland.

THE undersigned has the honor of informing amateurs and owners of mares, that the splendid stallion "ROLAND," (Imported English breed) will be all the season at his residence, at Allen, near the Jefferson Hospital. He is of a splendid color, one white stripe on the head, the right hind leg white the tail, and hair yellowish; he is fifteen hands high, and is an excellent breed, and is of good and gentle disposition in every situation.

PEDIGREE.—Roland was born on the 26th of April, 1857, was foaled by "Orlic," stallion of Mr Tourel, and the celebrated trotter "Fanny." The mother of the stallion "Orlic," by direction of coparcenary, was used as a mare for the broad cart, and attained three years old for $3.0. The proprietor is ready to show the stallion "Roland" his mother "Fanny," English mare and dire daughter, aged one hundred months, a splendid colt; also, besides this, the proprietor has a magnificent mare.

TERMS.—$10 for the season, feeding gratis for one month, payable in advance.

MADAME LA BLANCHE,

Clairvoyant,

MADAME LA BLANCHE has mastered all the sciences, and astonished many thousand visitors from the ranks of the most respectable citizens in this city, by revealing the past, present and future. Unlike those many who flaunt their Secric Powers before the world, Mme La Blanche invariably gives satisfaction to all who consult her, and all acknowledge the truthfulness of the revelations made to them. As a further assurance of her unquestionable superiority over all other Blanchettes, as evidence to the public, her diplomas as a graduated student in the several branches of Astrology, Obstetrics, and Nervous Diseases peculiar to Women and Children, and therefore her Clairvoyant powers, joined to her medical abilities form a safe guide for the afflicted. Remember! she gives satisfaction to all truly natural and true Clairvoyant, Spiritual Medium, and Female Physician known at the present time.

MADAME LA BLANCHE'S Parlors, No. 102 Bienville street, between Bourbon and Dauphin streets.

Consultations given in French and English. Term for Ladies and Gentlemen moderate, to suit the times.

M'me. Caprell.

THIS lady, who has for a period of years continued to astonish the public by her extraordinary revelations of the past, present and future, is daily consulted her clients, as well as by private appointment, on all things which affect our course through life. The distinct accuracy with which Madame Caprell locates all invisible diseases, prescribes the proper remedies for, and ultimately cures the same, have, as yet, never been equaled. All are invited to call on Madame Caprell, No. 127 Customhouse street.

BRAKING OF THE DEVIL'S BONES.—Do you belong to the third class? We don't mean the Satanic Workers, but that melancholy tribe who, with blue lips and chattering teeth, do penance every day, or every other day, or every third day, as the case may be, for the indulgence of FEVER AND AGUE. If that's your case, poor sufferer, know that HOSTETTER'S BITTERS will cure you, though quinine and all the nauseous drugs of the materia medica, that undermine the constitution and shorten life, have been tried in vain. This glorious tonic will infuse new life into your enfeebled frame, diffuse a healthful glow through your torpid system, and break up the chills with absolute certainty. Your liver will be stirred up by the wholesome cathartic, your appetite and strength return, your complexion recover its healthy tint, and you will become a healthy and happy specimen. As a tonic and alterative it is unrivalled, proceeding from miasma, and as a general invigorant and regulator of the digestive organs, HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS are of unparalleled efficacy.

Among the Agents for Hostetter's Bitters:
J. WRIGHT & CO., 31 Chartres street.
E. J. HART & CO., 77 and 79 Tchoupitoulas st.
