SIXTEENTH LEGISLATURE—[illegible] SESSION.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.

Monday, 4th March, 1844.

Members present—Messrs. Felix Garcia, President; Armant, Bernard, Carter, Davidson, Downs, Dupré, Lacoste, Livaudais, Marshall, Morse, Sparrow and Walker.

On motion of Mr Bernard, leave of absence was granted to Mr Ledoux, for a few days.

Office of the Bee.

To the President of the Senate:

Sir—

The State Printer begs leave to state, that on Friday last, the Reporter of the Senate sent to the office of the Bee the sitting of the Wednesday previous, with this endorsement:

"The whole of this Report to be published at one and the same time."

The presumed length of this Report, in each language, is above three columns of the Bee, as near as can be ascertained.

Being placed in this alternative, either to publish this report at once, in English and French, or not to publish it at all; and it being impossible with the pressure of Official Journals from both Houses, to give to the reports of either House six columns of the newspaper, we were placed in the necessity of not publishing this document at all. Very respectfully,

[Signed,] A. C. BULLITT,
State Printer.

By BULLITT, MAGNE & Co.

Monday morning, March 4th."

WASHINGTON COLLEGE.

(Three miles from the Public Square)

DIRECTED BY MR. J. CHANUT.

Graduate in Letters of the University of France, FORMERLY PROFESSOR OF HISTORY IN THE COLLEGE OF HENRY IV. AT PARIS,

EX-VICE PRESIDENT AND EX-PROFESSOR OF LITERATURE, GREEK, LATIN AND PHILOSOPHY, AT THE COLLEGE OF JEFFERSON (LA.)

MR. CHANUT has lately purchased, with the intention of establishing a College for Classical and Special studies, the handsome and spacious house, with a large garden, lately appertaining to the plantation of Pandely—Being situated only one mile below the Ursuline Convent, and entirely exempt from the yellow fever, it unites all the advantages of city and country. The various arrangements required for the completion of the establishment are finished, and it will be opened on the 15th instant.

The course of studies, destined for pupils who desire to complete a thorough system of instruction, will embrace the following branches:

Greek,	*History,
Latin,	*Geography,
*English,	*Mathematics,
*French,	Logic,
*Spanish,	Moral Philosophy,
Italian,	*Book Keeping,
*Rhetoric,	Natural Philosophy,
General Literature,	Chemistry.

The special course, intended for those who are destined to business and commercial pursuits, and who consequently will have fewer years to devote to their studies, will embrace only those branches which are marked with an asterisk [*].

Mr. Chanut has explained in his prospectus, which may be found at the several book-stores, his views of tuition, and the method which he deems most favorable to a rapid and solid progress. He believes that in addressing himself to the cherished interest and enlightened solicitude of families, there is no necessity for the parade of pompous promises. His residence has been fixed in Louisiana for five years. He is ardently desirous of establishing an institution that will be useful to the country, and thinks he may appeal with some confidence to an experience of twenty years in the business of tuition, as well as to the testimony of families and a long list of pupils, with whom he has been connected.

ODONTALGIC EXTRACT.

B. F. SMITH,

No 119 St. Charles street.

CONTINUES to relieve the most violent TOOTHACHE in a few moments, and at the same time entirely destroy the nerve in less than 24 hours POSITIVELY without pain. The public should be aware, however, that this remedy is not offered as a UNIVERSAL PANACEA, it being only successful when the pain proceeds from an exposure of the internal membrane or nerve.

For the truth of the above statement, the sceptical are referred to the following highly respectable gentlemen most of whom can speak from their own experience:

Rev. W. A. Scott,	Dr. W. H. Tisgarden
J. W. Stanton,	L. E. Generally,
C. P. Young,	G. W. Tobin,
E. Morton Quirk,	W. H. Wheaton,
H. Williams,	W. G. Latham,
E. S. Orsborne,	D. Flannery,
H. Page,	L. Morehead,
	W. Rigerson.

By first destroying the nerve with this remedy, the excruciating pain frequently caused by inserting pivot teeth upon the old method, is entirely avoided.

All other operations carefully performed. m3
