INSTITUTIONS.

NEW ORLEANS FEMALE INSTITUTE, OR, DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL, FOR YOUNG LADIES, 252 CAMP STREET.

Conducted by Mrs. Macaulay.

THIS Institution is under the personal supervision of Mrs. MACAULAY, and the classes advanced in literature, science, and philosophy are under the care of Dr. Macaulay. The most accomplished teachers are employed in giving instructions in the French, Spanish, and Italian languages, also in Drawing and Dancing. The piano, harp, and guitar, as well as vocal music, are taught by professors of the highest grade of qualifications.

There are now eight instructors in the institution, and it is the aim of the Principals to make it, in all respects, such as parents may desire for their daughters. Every care is taken not only to instill pure morals, and promote habits of correct, lady-like deportment in the pupils, but to make them intelligent as well as accomplished, and, consequently, fit them for society and future usefulness.

Young ladies from the country, living in the family as boarders, share in the enjoyments, privileges and attentions of daughters, and are uniformly treated, not so much as members of a boarding school, as daughters of an affectionate family.

To the establishment is attached a large and well selected library; and to create a thirst for the acquisition of general knowledge as to the improvements and changes that are continually taking place in the literary, scientific and political worlds, leading Periodicals of a truly valuable character, and standard books of reference, are at the command of the young ladies well advanced in school education, for the important purposes of teaching them to acquire useful knowledge for themselves, by means of research and examination.

Monthly reports issued, as to progress and conduct.

A class for the study of the Latin language, will be formed on the first of November, and one on the use of the Globes.

References are made to parents who have had their daughters at the institution for years; and further particulars and circulars can be obtained by applying, personally, or by letters either to Dr. or Mrs. Macaulay. s23

THE Principal of this new establishment is in hopes of founding an institution which may offer to the youth of Louisiana the same resources and advantages as the Colleges of the North and of Europe. In order to achieve this object, he will associate with himself the most distinguished Professors of New Orleans.

The Principal will spare no pains, and will endeavor constantly to develop in his pupils the moral attributes, as well as to cultivate the faculties of the mind. He considers that it is as important to bring up children well as to instruct them well, and he is convinced that all education, in order to be fruitful and solid, may rest on a basis of morality and religion.

The course of study in the College of Louisiana will comprise Instruction in the Dead and Living Languages, (Greek, Latin, English, French and Spanish,) History, Geography, Philosophy, Rhetoric, the Mathematical and Natural Sciences, Political Economy, Chemistry, Belles Lettres, &c.

English Professors have already been engaged by the Principal. Mr. Orton, well known in New Orleans will take charge of the higher classes; another, whose native language likewise is English, will remain constantly with the pupils, in order to accustom them to speak correctly the language of their country. G BOYER'S INSTITUTION.

No. 148, CONTI ST., between Dauphine & Burgundy.

MR. G. BOYER, founder of this establishment, the oldest in New Orleans, avails himself of this opportunity to make a new appeal to the confidence of parents. The institution is conducted in a large mansion, occupying a fine central position, being well ventilated, and in other respects perfectly salubrious. The range of studies which engage the attention of the pupils, embraces over all the branches of learning, which are necessary to a useful, polite and finished education, from primary instruction, to the more abstruse subjects which are especially the province of a collegiate course. The elementary studies are attended to with more than ordinary care, considering the decisive influence which they exercise over the other branches of instruction.—Discipline, which must not be separated from a solicitous study, nor from a good education, is conducted with mildness. It is calculated according to the age and character of the students, and intended to give them an accurate idea of duty and good behavior.

ST. LOUIS' INSTITUTION.

DIRECTED BY MADAME DERON.

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL, FOR YOUNG LADIES.

(Years 1850—'51.)

No. 145 St. Louis st. between Dauphin & Burgundy.

THIS Institution, founded nearly twelve years ago, combines every material, moral, and intellectual advantage. Madame Deron, formerly a pupil and governess in the "Institut de la Legion d'Honneur," (Maison St. Denis,) has founded her Seminary, as much as possible, on the model of that great establishment, as well as on the plan of the first Northern Academies.

The situation of St. Louis' Institution is one of the most agreeable and salubrious in town. The whole locality, including dormitories, class and study rooms, and play grounds, being very spacious and airy, and overlooking several gardens, is in so healthy a position, that, not a single pupil has experienced the least serious illness.

The plan of instruction both in French and English embraces all the literary and scientific branches of a finished education.

The study of English is the object of particular attention. Madame Deron is scrupulously careful that the creole Young Ladies should devote more time to the study of the English language and literature than to any other branch. Mr. Orton, a professor well known in New Orleans, continues his course of lessons every day. Two English governesses residing in the establishment, preside over the elementary classes, and contribute to the progress of the pupils by the continual use of that language in all the relations of ordinary life.

With respect to the study of French, besides the lessons of able professors and governesses, M. and Madame Deron themselves instruct in the different branches, and are thus enabled by their personal efforts to insure the solidity and rapidity of the progress of their pupils.

The department of Music, including the piano harp and singing, is under the direction of Madame Lavillebeuvre, an excellent music mistress, who formerly gave lessons in St. Louis' Institution, and who is now especially attached to the establishment. This young and talented lady, so justly classed at the head of the artistic celebrities of Louisiana, secures to the study of Music in Madame Deron's Academy a marked superiority. No mistress can better join example to precept, and this is often the secret of the scholar's advancement. A musical examination taking place every month is intended to prove the rapid and brilliant progress of Madame Lavillebeuvre's pupils.

Religious and moral instruction, which is the basis of every really good education, has received greater developments than in any other Boarding School in the city. Madame Deron herself superintends the religious exercises of the Catholic pupils, and M. l'Abbe Tholomier prepares them for their first communion, and for confirmation by giving religious instruction several times every week in the Chapel of St. Louis' Institution. o4

GOURAUD'S ITALIAN MEDICATED SOAP.

LANGUAGE is powerless to set forth one tithe of its wonderful properties, but the high meed of public approbation has so decidedly and unchangeably stamped the superiority of this remarkable Soap, that to doubt its efficacy in the eradication of tan, freckles, sunburn, sallowness, pimples, ringworm, obstinate old sores, salt rheum, worms in the skin, and other cutaneous disfigurements, is to imply a doubt of the existence of truth itself. It is, besides, the very best shaving Compound ever used.

Equally famous is Gouraud's Poudre Subtile, for eradicating superfluous hair from any part of the body.

Gouraud's Hair Restorative, or Circassian Gloss, is a beautiful preparation for the hair, preventing its falling out, increasing its growth, and making wiry, harsh hair, soft, silky and glossy. Trial bottles, 25 cents each.

Gouraud's Liquid Hair Dye will instantly change red or gray hair to a beautiful brown or black.

Gouraud's Liquid Rouge is a superb article for giving a rosy stain to pale lips and cheeks, defying detection by rubbing.

Gouraud's Lily White is an unrivaled production for rough, flushed, sluggish complexions.

Dr. Felix Gouraud's preparations can only be had genuine at his sole agent,

ST. LOUIS INSTITUTION,

DIRECTED BY

MADAME E. DERON,

No. 145 St. Louis street, between Dauphine and Burgundy streets—New Orleans.

SCHOLASTIC YEAR 1851–'52.

THIS Institution which for the last twelve years has followed a constant career of progress and prosperity, has resumed its usual course of studies since the 1st September.

Madame Deron, formerly a pupil and professor of the "Maison Royale de St Denis," and a graduate of the University of France, has endeavored to profit by the experience which she has acquired in the United States, to place her institution in the first rank of educational establishments in America.

Madame Deron, exclusively devoted to her pupils, applies herself not only to the cultivation of the mind, but also to the formation of the heart. She strongly desires that the young Ladies confided to her care may be remarked for all those valuable qualities which constitute a really good education, such as the spirit of order and decorum, amiability of temper and solidity of judgment, mildness of manners and a sympathising disposition, and finally easy grace and reserved elegance of manners. In order to obtain these results, Madame Deron has always employed as auxiliaries both firmness and mildness, the constant use of emulation, and especially rewards for application and regularity in study. She is seconded by her sister-in-law, Mademoiselle J. Deron, who, like herself, has always followed the career of instruction; these two Ladies watch with the greatest zeal over the daily progress of the pupils.

The locality of the institution well known and appreciated in New Orleans, as one of the most suitable and salubrious in the city, is perfectly well arranged; the class and study rooms and dormitories are spacious and airy, looking over several gardens, and there are besides a handsome yard and a terrace sheltered from the sun and intended for the recreation of the pupils.

The general instruction is given both in French and English; it embraces all the branches which constitute a finished education for young ladies. The English language is the object of especial care, the creole pupils are required in their communications with each other and with their professors to speak the English language exclusively.

Mr. Orton, who has been attached to the Academy from its foundation, devotes a great part of his time to impart to the pupils of the higher classes a thorough knowledge of the English language and literature, the other classes are instructed by well qualified American governesses.

Madame Deron has reserved to herself the direction of the French classes. She has besides secured the assistance of an excellent Professor of the higher sciences, Monsieur H. [illegible], who divides with Monsieur H. D[illegible] Madame Deron, the care of the French [illegible].

The Spanish language [illegible] a part of the system of study.

With respect to religious instructions M. l'Abbe Tholomeer, whose zeal is so justly appreciated, continues to prepare the pupils for their first communion in the chapel of the institution.

MUSIC:

The study of Music is the object of particular care. Madame Lavillebeuvre, an artist of the highest order is attached to the institution as Professor of the Piano and Harp. A course of Vocal Music by one of the best Professors of the city.

As a means of emulation the institution has adopted monthly musical examinations at which parents are invited to be present.

A Professor of Dancing is attached to the establishment. s30
