AMERICAN THEATRE—POYDRAS STREET.

MUELLER & PLACE, Managers.

First night of the grand Military Equestrian drama of PUTNAM, THE IRON SON OF '76

This National Equestrian Spectacle, founded on one of the most interesting events of our revolution, has produced more thrilling excitement than any other Equestrian piece ever produced upon any stage in America. The intense and breathless interest that pervades the audience as the Iron-souled Old Hero dashes daringly down the frightful flight building pursuit—and escaping death from British bayonets—all give evidence of its merited popularity and entire success, it having run more than three months in the city of New York.

SATURDAY, November 30th, 1844,

Will be presented for the first time in the south, the grand Military Equestrian Spectacle of PUTNAM, THE IRON SON OF '76.

☞ For particulars see small bills.

ORLEANS HIGH SCHOOL.

(Lycée d'Orléans.)

ESPLANADE STREET.

THE HIGH SCHOOL, conducted by Professors EVERETT, MERVOYER, and WYNDHAM, receives Boarding Pupils, Half Boarders, and Day Scholars.

The course of instruction as set forth in the Statutes, embraces all the branches of a sound and finished education.

The Mathematical department and the department of Languages are conducted by Professors Sicat, Macmanus and Lucanus, and by the Directors of the School, Messrs. Mervoyer, Everett and Wyndham.

The accomplishments are taught by Mr Vaunier, Professor of Music, Mr Jacme, Teacher of Drawing; Mr. Devoti, Dancing Master. Mr Casmir Fencing Master.

The Proprietors have always in their employ several ushers whose duty it is to watch over the pupils in the play grounds, study rooms and dormitories.

The discipline observed in this Seminary is strict and firm, and no interference on the part of parents or guardians is suffered, unless solicited, in extraordinary cases, by the Directors themselves.

In the method of teaching, the Proprietors, satisfied that sound learning can only be acquired by systematic and long continued labor, repudiate all the new fangled theories which profess to impart the several branches of knowledge in much less time than has been heretofore devoted to them.

The printed Statutes of the High School may be had in English and in French at the principal book stores in this city. n5

NEW METHOD OF DYING AND SCOURING FURNITURE STUFFS.

MESSRS. MONDELAT & Co, Dyers, No 150 Chartres street, have the honor of informing the public that having enlarged their establishment, they are now prepared to dye and scour all kind of furniture stuff, viz: woolen damask, woolen and cotton do; damask or plain satins, do mask plain and satined cotton, printed and glazed linen with the same neatness as any other article.

We think it our duty to guard the public against the pompous advertisement of one of our confrère which appeared in the Courier, in which he says: "No more old clothes and steam dying." This is a humbug borrowed from some Paris dyer to impose upon the public. Neither means exist but the one we use, simplified by chemistry. We recommend those who wish to know the truth to visit his establishment, and they will find that he neither uses steam nor renovates old clothes new. He proposes a premium to whoever will imitate his workmanship last does not mention the sum. The custom we have secured in a few months, and the quantity of work done in our establishment, are proofs of the superiority of our workmanship over his steam dying. n16—3w

ECONOMY IS THE ROAD TO WEALTH

OLD CLOTHES MADE NEW.

LONDON DYEING & SCOURING ESTABLISHMENT.

JOHN J. JACKSON, lately from London, respectfully informs the citizens of New Orleans and its vicinity, that he has taken the store No. 98 Camp Street, next to Marmion's Temperance Intelligence and General Agency Office, a few doors below Poydras, for the purpose of Dyeing, Renovating, Repairing and Scouring upon an entirely new principle. All clothes made to appear as when new, without any injury to the cloth, and if not done to satisfaction, no charge will be made.

From the long and practical experience which I have had during my apprenticeship in London, and in working for the officers of the Horse Guards, and other officers of other regiments, I am enabled to dye SCARLET and other colors in a superior manner; also to extract grease spots and stains of all descriptions from military and other garments.

Gentlemen composing volunteer companies in this city, who have military clothes out of order, from the effects of grease spots, stains, &c. are respectfully invited to call and give him a trial.

Gold, silver and silk lace, epaulettes, &c. tarnished from use, can be restored to their original lustre and brightness.

LADIES' WEARING APPAREL, (including silk, satin and velvet dresses) dyed in the most approved fashion and in the latest style and finish.

Carriage cushions, hangings, pulpit covers, sofa and chair covers, window hangings, carpet and hearth rugs, cleaned, dressed, &c. and made to appear as when new.

Many gentlemen and ladies hesitate to have their garments, carpets, &c. renovated or dyed, in consequence of the numerous impostors that do not understand their business. The subscriber requires but one trial to prove the character of his workmanship.

From a strict attention to business I hope to meet a share of public patronage.

☞ All work entrusted to my care will be ready for delivery in forty eight hours after being left with the subscriber. JOHN J. JACKSON.

[illegible] the science of jurisprudence, is intended as preparatory to the Special course. It includes, besides an examination of the utility and philosophy of legal studies, an outline of the history of the Roman, Spanish, French and Common law, which is indispensable to enable the students to appreciate the elements of the jurisprudence of Louisiana, also the principles of modern international and of constitutional law, &c.

The Special Course, which is devoted to the study of the actual legislation of Louisiana, and which is intended to prepare the students for admission to the bar, embraces the study of the various authors prescribed by the rule of the Supreme Court of the 20th Nov 1840, prefixed to the 15th vol of Louisiana Reports.

Attached to the Law School is an extensive and well selected Law Library, comprising several thousand volumes.

The Hon Henry A Bullard, Judge of the Supreme Court, Christian Roselius, Esq, late Attorney General of the State, and J P Benjamin, Esq, will aid the undersigned in delivering lectures in the institution.

Terms—Fifty dollars for the General and one hundred dollars for the Special Course—each course is of six months duration. Subscribers to the Special Course are admitted free of charge to the General Course.

Applications to be made to the subscriber, who will promptly furnish any additional information that may be desired. GUSTAVUS SCHMIDT

SEMINARY FOR THE TWO SEXES,

IN RAMPART STREET,

(between St. Anne and Maine streets.

MR. GARREAU'S INSTITUTION, which has been in existence only since the 16th July, already possesses more than thirty pupils. Nothing has been neglected to ensure to the pupils an education at once solid and varied. The classes are directed by the following professors:

Mr Garreau, Director of the Superior Classes in French, History, Geography, &c.

Mr Beaudeau, Ex-professor of the Normal School of Paris, superintends mathematics and drawing.

Mr De Vanesses, for the intermediate French classes.

Mr Ghollbau, for the Elementary classes.

An English professor of established merit, gives lessons twice a day in that language.

The young ladies placed under the immediate superintendence of Mdme. Garreau, are separated entirely from the other sex. Every branch of instruction necessary for a young lady is imparted to them with the utmost care and zeal.

Instruction in Music is attended to by a teacher well known in New Orleans for many years. j3

WASHINGTON COLLEGE.

One mile below the Ursuline Convent.

CONDUCTED BY

J. CHANUT, A. M.,

FORMERLY Professor of History in the Royal College of Henry IV at Paris, Ex Vice-President and Professor at Jefferson College, (Louisiana.) At this Institution which has been in existence some months, all the branches of education are taught, embracing either a COURSE OF CLASSICAL STUDIES, or the acquisition of knowledge DESTINED SPECIALLY FOR COMMERCIAL PURSUITS. The lessons are personally superintended either by Mr. Chanut, his associate well known as a professor in this State, and a SPECIAL PROFESSOR of the English language (from the North, who is permanently attached to the establishment.

The various branches of instruction announced in the Prospectus which may be found at any of the Book-sellers, will be taught with equal assiduity, but English appears to the Principal of such importance to this country, that he will be particularly careful to give it proper preponderance in the system of instruction, and to render every pupil capable of writing and speaking it with facility, purity and elegance.

OUT DOOR LESSONS

MR. O. BELLANGER, yielding to the liberal feelings which have established public schools, now comprehends that for him, the period for keeping a Seminary of learning has passed.

He has consequently resumed, as formerly, the practice of giving private lessons in families.

Those who think proper to extend to him that confidence which he has been for fourteen years honoured in this city, are requested to apply at the Book Store of Mr Verhert, No. 149 Chartres street. o31 3m

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL

FOR YOUNG LADIES,

Founded in 1832 by Madame Lainis and conducted since 1840 by Madame Dresnaux.

(Rampart street, corner of Bienville.)

THE course of instruction pursued in this establishment is [illegible] solid and varied, extending from the elements of reading and grammar to the study of literature and the elements of the sciences indispensable to a polished education.

The pupils are distributed into seven classes, suited to their different ages and capacities.

The French and English languages are cultivated with equal attention, and a good opportunity is afforded for their use and familiar use in conversation by the intercourse of Creoles with Americans.

Vocal and instrumental music is taught by ladies, exclusively attached to the establishment, and their constant presence is a guarantee of unremitting attention, both to lessons and practice.

The performance of religious duties, by the boarders, is duly attended to, a priest, authorised by the Bishop, visits the establishment twice a week, to instruct Catholic pupils and prepare them for their first communion.

From the 1st November, 1844, this Institution will no longer receive young boys, and will be exclusively consecrated to young ladies.

Parents are informed that the house in Bienville street contiguous to the Church edifice, has been added to the institution for the better accommodation of boarders.

Examinations in music take place from November to [illegible] on the 1st Saturday of each month. At the end of May, general examination and distribution of prizes.
