ST. LOUIS INSTITUTION,

DIRECTED BY

MADAME E. DERON,

No. 145 St. Louis street, between Dauphine and Burgundy streets—New Orleans.

SCHOLASTIC YEAR 1851-'52.

THIS institution which for the last twelve years, has followed a constant career of progress and prosperity, has resumed its usual course of studies since the 1st September.

Madame Deron, formerly a pupil and professor of the "Maison Royale de St. Denis," and a graduate of the University of France, has endeavored to profit by the experience which she has acquired in the United States, to place her institution in the first rank of educational establishments in America.

Madame Deron, exclusively devoted to her pupils, applies herself not only to the cultivation of the mind, but also to the formation of the heart. [illegible]

The locality of the institution well known and appreciated in New Orleans, as one of the most suitable and salubrious in the city, is perfectly well arranged; the class and study rooms and dormitories are spacious and airy, looking over several gardens, and there are besides a handsome yard and a terrace sheltered from the sun and intended for the recreation of the pupils.

The general instruction is given both in French and English; it embraces all the branches which constitute a finished education for young ladies. [illegible]

Madame Deron has reserved to herself the direction of the French classes. [illegible]

The Spanish language forms a part of the system of study. [illegible]

MUSIC.

The study of Music is the object of particular care. Madame Lavillebeuvre, an artist of the highest order is attached to the institution as Professor of the Piano and Harp. A course of Vocal Music by one of the best Professors of the city.

As a means of emulation the institution has adopted monthly musical examinations at which parents are invited to be present.

A Professor of Dancing is attached to the establishment.

Young Ladies' Academy.

MME. PARENT has removed her institution to Customhouse street, between Royal and Bourbon, No. 86, the house heretofore occupied by M'me. Granet, and is ready to receive boarders, half boarders, and day scholars. There is a very large yard, together with a garden for the young ladies to amuse themselves. The apartments are vast and well aired. There is every advantage and inducement offered to parents, as to the moral and intellectual cultivation of the minds of their daughters. The best Professors are employed. Every branch of a solid and refined education is taught in both languages, also, accomplishments such as Drawing, Painting, Embroidery, &c.

Professor Auchmuty, one of the principals of the Franklin High School, has charge of the higher English classes and Professor Gilbert of the Mathematical. Mr. Genibrel has been engaged as a Teacher of Vocal Music.

For terms, apply at the institution. Parents are permitted to visit the institution on Sunday.
