WRITING ACADEMY, 15 CAMP ST.

PENMANSHIP.

MESSRS. DOLBEAR have opened their Writing Academy, No. 15 Camp street, where a NEAT AND RAPID BUSINESS STYLE may be learned with ease and certainty.

As Messrs. D. are confident that every person may learn to write a good hand, they wish all those who are not, to call at the [illegible], with out extra charge, and see that writing is fit for any business purpose. They believe, if their system were universally adopted, it would prevent so much loss of time and money to the unsuccessful attempt to learn by the tedious plan pursued in most schools and colleges. A few moments' reflection will convince any common person that it is absurd, to be four or five years in learning to make, with facility, twenty six letters.

The following opinion of the Principal of the Natchez Institute, was given after witnessing its success on above three hundred pupils. Men of intelligence in different parts of the United States, who have examined it, uniformly express the same opinion. It then becomes a question with parents and others interested in the cause of education, whether it should not be substituted for a plan by which so few succeed after years of application.

The fault is not in the teachers, but in the system taught, or rather the want of a system. Most teachers are satisfied that the common method of teaching Penmanship is so unsuccessful as to be almost a useless waste of time, and that no one can be a successful teacher of everything at once.

Penmanship, like Arithmetic, should be taught according to fixed principles, and then the success must be as certain as the adherence to those principles.

Messrs. D. request persons to call and examine their system for themselves.

To the Messrs. Dolbear—GENTLEMEN: I deem it my duty to express my opinion of your system of Penmanship, from what I observed during your recent course of instruction in this Institute. I have watched closely, both your method of imparting instruction, and the advancement of the pupils. I am gratified to find, that by your system, hundred may be taught at a time. It is the only system, which I have seen, successfully adapted to public school institution. It has only to be understood by Teachers, Superintendents, and Trustees in general, to be appreciated and adopted. Very respectfully,

J. PEARL, A. M., Principal of N. Institute.
Natchez, Dec. 22, 1845.

NASVILLE, September 20, 1843.

Having been invited by the Messrs. Dolbear, Teachers of Penmanship in this city, we have carefully examined their system, and the specimen of improvement made by their pupils, and feel entirely prepared to say that the system is scientific and much superior to any other we have seen: that the improvement of their pupils is very rapid and we therefore take pleasure in recommending them to the favorable attention of the public.

From Gen. Andrew Jackson.—Being requested by Messrs Dolbear to state the standing in society of the gentleman, signers to the within, I do so with pleasure, being acquainted with most of them, and as far as I am acquainted with them they are highly respectable, and gentlemen of education and of high standing in society. Given at the Hermitage, this 23rd day of October, 1843.

ANDREW JACKSON.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 29, 1843.

Messrs. Dolbear—Having had a fair opportunity of examining your system of Penmanship, and having seen the wonderful and rapid improvement of your pupils in my school, I consider it but just to say, that I believe it to be not only the best system, but the only one deserving the name; for by strict attention to the rules given any person may, in a very short time, acquire a free, rapid, and elegant hand. I should be pleased to see it universally adopted. Most respectfully, your obedient servant,

ALFRED HUME.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 26, 1843.

Sir—Considering a good hand writing to be not only an accomplishment, but a means of success to every man engaged in business, I greatly applaud your meritorious exertions to improve the chirography of the age. A gentleman or lady either, who writes badly, never writes willingly, and consequently often fail to write when they should; and when they do write, it is done at the last moment, with haste and impatience, and consequently with fruits of all kinds, often committing and injuring both the writer and the cause which he advocates. Wishing you every success in your laudable undertakings.

I remain yours, respectfully,
THOS. H. BENTON.

COLUMBIA, Tenn., Nov. 20, 1843.

From the Rt. Rev. Bishop Otey.—Mr. J. W. DOLBEAR—Dear Sir: I have been much interested and pleased in examining your system of Penmanship, and as far as I am capable of forming an intelligent judgment upon the subject, I give it my hearty approval. Your method of teaching seems to me to be both skilful and faithful, and the improvement of pupils is surprising and rapid beyond any thing I have ever witnessed. I shall feel happy if this testimony to your merits shall lead others to avail themselves of your instruction in one of the most beautiful and useful of arts, and am very respectfully, yours, etc.

JA. H. OTEY.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2, 1832.

From His Excellency Gov. Roman—I have examined with attention the system of writing taught by Mr Dolbear, and it is with pleasure that I certify to its superiority over any method with which I am acquainted. Mr Dolbear having given private lessons in my family, I consider it but justice to add, that I believe him as much worthy of public patronage on account of the correctness and mildness of his character, as on account of the rapid improvement of those who received his lessons.

A. B. ROMAN.

VICKSBURG, August 31, 1841.

Letter from the Rev. J. A. Lawrence to Mr. Dolbear.—Dear Sir—You desire me to express my opinion of the merits of your system of penmanship, as taught by yourself. Having for some years been familiarly acquainted with that system, and seen its immediate and continued results, I am free to state, that for speedy improvement of the pupils, for certainty in the formation of a rapid, free, clear and beautiful business hand, and for the continued and permanent benefit of the pupil, I know of no instruction in that useful art which is comparable to yours. So far as I have observed, those who have learned to write upon your system, generally retain and often improve the hand acquired under your instruction. Wishing you abundant success in your useful labors, I remain, with respect, yours,

A. B. LAWRENCE,
f13—eví Principal of Vicksburg Female Institute.

SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA.
FOR THE REMOVAL AND PERMANENT CURE OF ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD OR HABIT OF THE SYSTEM.

This valuable Medicine is now used and universally approved by the most distinguished of the Medical Profession throughout our country, and, by its intrinsic medicinal value, the public generally (but the afflicted particularly) have been made acquainted with its usefulness, in the removal and cure of diseases having their origin in an impure state of the blood. The Sarsaparilla is combined with other ingredients, all of which are held in the highest estimation by the most distinguished physicians.

As a mild aperient, antiseptic and tonic, it contains the three most useful properties of medicine. It purges, purifies and restores. Scrofula, Cancer, Leprosy, all Ulcers and Scrofulous Sores, all Diseases of the Skin, and all internal disorders not organic, but springing from a diseased circulation, give way before its hygeian influence.

The following interesting case is presented, and the reader invited to its careful perusal. Comment on such evidence is unnecessary.

MADISONVILLE, Ky., February 22, 1845.

Messrs. A. B. & D. SANDS,—Having used your Sarsaparilla in my family, and witnessed its beneficial effects on one my children, I feel it to be a duty I owe the community to make the case public. About two years ago my little son was attacked with Scrofula or King's Evil, which broke in eight or nine places round the neck or jaw, and which finally affected his eyes, rendering him entirely blind. During the first year from the time he was taken, he was attended by several physicians, but continued to get worse until I despaired of his ever getting well. Having seen your Sarsaparilla advertised with certificates of its cures, I concluded I would give it a trial, and accordingly sent to Cincinnati and procured a few bottles, and now, after having used in all nine bottles, I have the gratification of saying he is well. The sores are all entirely healed, and his sight nearly as good as ever it was, and I have no hesitation in saying that he was entirely cured by the use of your Sarsaparilla.

Yours, truly, E. BASSETT.

NEW YORK, April 22, 1845.

Messrs. A. B. & D. SANDS. Gentlemen,—I was troubled with a severe ulcer on my ancle, which extended half way up to the knee, discharging very offensive matter, itching, burning, and depriving me of my rest at night, and very painful.

I was recommended to use your Sarsaparilla by Mr. James McConnell, who had been cured by it, and after using five bottles I was completely cured.

I have delayed sending you this certificate for one year since the cure was effected, in order to ascertain with certainty whether it was a permanent cure, and it now gives me the greatest pleasure to add that I have neither seen nor felt the slightest reappearance of it, and that I am entirely well.

Yours, very truly, SARAH M'INTYRE,
240 Delancy street, New York.

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 24, 1845.

Messrs. SANDS.—I deem it an act of justice to myself and the community at large, to relate the following facts which occurred in our neighborhood in the latter part of July last. June C——, a young girl aged fourteen years was afflicted with an immense sore on the middle of her back, which defied all the treatment of medical skill. At last some person mentioned to use your Sarsaparilla, and I immediately procured two bottles of Messrs. Mosely & Tucker, your Agents in this city, which I gave to her. I called to see her the next day, and she told me had taken two doses and felt very much relieved. I laughed immoderately at this, but she said it was really so, and, gentlemen, in a word, in two weeks from the time she commenced using it, there was neither sign nor appearance of where the sore had been.

Yours, respectfully,
J. G. HOUSEMAN, 93 Dauphin st

T. K. ARNOLD'S GREEK AND LATIN BOOKS, for Schools and Colleges—Revised and carefully corrected by the Rev. S A Spencer, A M—This series of Classical Works has attained a circulation almost unparalleled, being introduced into nearly all the great Public Schools and leading Educational Institutions in England. They are also very highly recommended by some of the Classical Scholars for the introduction into the Classical Schools of the United States.

1. A First and Second Latin Book and Practical Grammar, one neat volume, 12mo.—The chief object of this work (which is founded on the principles of imitation and frequent repetition) is to enable the pupil to do exercises from the first day of his beginning his accidence.

The First Book can be had separately for Junior Classes in Schools.

2. A Practical Introduction to Latin Prose Composition, one volume, 12mo.—This work is also founded on the principles of imitation and frequent repetition. It is at once a Syntax, a Vocabulary, and an Exercise Book; and considerable attention has been paid to the subject of Synonyms.

The subscriber is agent for Arnold's Valuable Greek and Latin Series.

Important Notice—French Blankets.

THE undersigned has the honor to inform the Planters and Merchants of Louisiana and neighboring states, that in consequence of the death of Mr Jean Mager, he has chosen as his sole agents and representatives at New Orleans, and for all the Southern States, Messrs Hte. de Goer and Riffard, who are and will be in future, the ONLY SUCCESSORS of Mr Mager. This depot which is definitively established in this house, will be constantly supplied with FRESH GOODS of the first quality, and he trusts that by their cheapness, durability, and the care taken in their fabrication, to justify and extend the patronage with which he has so long been honored in the United States.

Having learned that some merchants and manufacturers have imitated his mark, and are selling inferior blankets under his name; he embraces this opportunity to inform the public, that HIS ONLY DEPOT is at Hpte. de Goer & Riffard, No 21 Magazine street, and that he will pursue before the Courts of Justice all persons who counterfeit his goods or who sell such counterfeits.

The undersigned once more thanks the public for the confidence heretofore reposed in him, and will endeavor to continue meriting it.
