CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest medical authorities both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. [illegible]

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine which exerts such prompt, happy and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing fifty pills, price 50 cts. per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

MISCELLANEOUS.

LAWS OF HEALTH.

LORD BYRON has expressed, in a few words, the instinctive and unusual desire of mankind. He says: "Man's first desire is health; he then wishes for long life." The habits and customs of society, and but too many occupations and pursuits are unfortunately opposed to health, which requires as its conditions, regular habits of exercise, both of the mind and the body, regular hours of rest and repose, fresh air, wholesome food and pure water. Of course these great blessings can only be enjoyed by a small portion of the human family, and of that portion too many neglect to turn their golden opportunity to account. In the absence of such opportunities, it becomes necessary to strengthen the system by the use of such hygeian preparations as harmonize with its condition and its requirements.

This fact the inhabitants of unhealthy regions of our country have long since discovered. The only question has been, "What shall we use?" To what source shall we look for the means of escaping sickness and extending to its natural limit the measure of life?

It is certified by hundreds of witnesses of the highest standing and respectability in the United States, South and Central America, Mexico, the Empire of Brazil, islands of the Pacific, and other countries, where HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are sold, that they are invaluable as a safeguard against the epidemics and endemics of every climate—a specific for weakness and general debility—a swift and certain cure for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and every species of indigestion—an unfailing remedy for Intermittent Fever, Fever and Ague, and all kinds of periodical disorders—a means of immediate relief in Flux, Colics and Choleric maladies—a cure for Costiveness, a mild and safe invigorant and corroborant for delicate females—a good, anti-bilious alterative and tonic preparation for ordinary family purposes—a powerful recuperant after the frame has been reduced and exhausted by sickness—an excellent appetizer as well as a strengthener of the digestive forces—a depurative of the blood and other fluids, and a general household remedy, desirable alike as a corrective and mild cathartic, and an agreeable and wholesome stimulant.

DYSPEPSIA,

OR CHRONIC INDIGESTION, is the most painful and the most difficult to cure. It originates in a loss of tone in the stomach, or rather in the fibrous muscular lining of the stomach, which becomes irritable and feeble, and ceases to secrete in sufficient quantity the gastric juices, which should dissolve the food. Dyspepsia is usually accompanied with more or less inflammation of the membrane which coats the interior of the stomach, and always with a diseased irritability of the whole digestive operations.

Constipation or Costiveness is not unfrequently a concomitant of Dyspepsia, although it sometimes exists independently of any serious derangement of the digestive functions. It is generally accompanied by headache, or a feeling of fullness in the head and a partial obscuration of the memory, and of the mental perceptions generally. As indigestion proceeds from a want of tone in the stomach, so Costiveness, in many cases, proceeds from a lack of sensitiveness in the mucous membrane which lines the intestines. The moderate cathartic action of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is just what is required under such circumstances; and it is believed that any case of casual or habitual Constipation may be readily and radically cured by a bottle or two of the Bitters; or if taken occasionally by persons of costive habit, they will prevent the recurrence of this annoying complaint.

LIVER COMPLAINTS

and bilious diseases proceed either from want of activity in the liver, by which the flow of bile is reduced below the quantity required by nature to qualify the blood, or from inflammation, causing an overflow of the bilious secretion into the stomach and bowels, or from a sympathetic derangement of the liver, consequent upon some disorder of the stomach.

In ordinary Liver Complaint the sufferer has an intermitting appetite, sometimes eating voraciously, and again loathing the sight of food, is drowsy, languid, disinclined to business, melancholy, and experiences a sensation of weariness and lassitude, accompanied by nausea, pain in the side, and the right shoulder. The irritation excited by suppressed bile also frequently causes a hard, dry cough, known as the Liver Cough, together with nausea and vomiting. Space will not permit us to go into all the symptoms of Liver Complaint. Our object here is to point out the true preventive and remedy. Let persons who are of bilious habits, or who reside where bilious complaints are common, try the Bitters, and they will find that Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, which, acting through the stomach upon the liver, will surely preserve that important organ in vigorous health.

have been divided into two classes, malarious and contagious; but there can be little doubt that all epidemic fevers originate in and are propagated by malaria or bad air. It has been denied that Typhus and Scarlet fevers are miasmatic diseases, but this is a mere assumption, not supported by proof. All the epidemic fevers unquestionably proceed from miasma, or some poison evaporated by the sun from rotten vegetable matter and foul water. It is a well known fact that whenever the sun is at a ... AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

A COMPOUND REMEDY, designed to be the most effectual Alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:

Scrofula and Scrofulous Complaints, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Blotches, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Syphilis and Syphilitic Affections, Mercurial Disease, Dropsy, Neuralgia or Tic Douloureux, Debility, Dyspepsia and Indigestion, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity of the Blood.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered and overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Richard's Pectoral Syrup.

THE above celebrated Syrup, well known in the city and in the country for the cure of Whooping Cough and the Spitting of Blood, is also the best remedy for Inflammation of the Throat and Chest, such as Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, &c. It has been proved, in numerous cases, that by the use of a few spoonfuls when the first symptoms are manifested, the progress of the above mentioned evils is stayed, and a complete cure is brought about in from twelve to twenty-four hours.

The annoying and often fatal consequences of neglected colds ought to be a warning to every one and an inducement to buy RICHARD'S PECTORAL SYRUP, the sale of which has been considerably increasing for years, since experience has so clearly demonstrated its superiority over all other remedies of the kind. The moderate price of the same (25 cents) enables every one to procure it.
