College of New Orleans,

No. 58 Esplanade street.

TO most of the patrons of the College of New Orleans it is known that impaired health necessitated my departure from New Orleans in February last, for a colder climate. As it is impossible for me to administer the affairs of the College without being on the ground, I have transferred all my rights, title and interest in the same to Professor HENRY CLINE, who is favorably known to its patrons. I regret that during the serious and protracted illness of Professor Cline, in March last, many students left the institution, but this has not impaired my confidence in his management of its affairs, and I can give no better proof of my high opinion of his capacity, than by making him my successor. I can only ask for him the same confidence which was extended to me during the twelve years that I was connected with the institution.

ERASTUS EVERETT.

Brooklyn, L.I., July 31st, 1855.

Extract from the Minutes of the Board of Visitors of the College of New Orleans.

Resolved, That this Board do approve the transfer made by Erastus Everett, of his office and interest in the College of New Orleans to Henry Cline, Esq.; and that from and after this date, to wit: the 9th day of August, 1855, the said Henry Cline is recognized, proclaimed and approved by this Board as President of the College of New Orleans, and ex-officio President of this Board.

C. M. EMERSON, Secretary.

The Institution is organized with six Professors. The course of studies includes all the branches of a complete American education, comprising ancient and modern Languages, Mathematics, Natural Science, Belles-Lettres, &c., &c. The English language is the medium of instruction and conversation.

Students are admitted at all stages of advancement, and at the end of the academic year degrees are conferred upon such as have completed the course of study adopted by the President and Board of Visitors.

☞ For further particulars, parents are invited to call at the College, where the President will take pleasure in giving all the desirable information.

The session of 1855-'56 will begin on MONDAY, the 3d of September. au31

ST. LOUIS INSTITUTE FOR YOUNG LADIES

Boarding and Day School, under the direction of Madam Deron, Dauphin street, No. 313, and Hospital street No. 135.

THE Directress of this Establishment, being fully sensible of the importance of the English language, has introduced new modifications in the mode of teaching.

The number of English Professors has been increased. Besides two distinguished Professors who are charged with the instruction of the three higher classes, five American ladies, who attend to the elementary classes and the general superintendence, speak English only. The pupils are therefore compelled, in their general intercourse, to express themselves in English alone. With a view to this result, Madam Deron has established strict regulations which she will personally see enforced, for she wishes families to be convinced of the fact that an early and constant practice of the principal language of the country, is required at the Institute.

Moral and religious education and good manners, which can be acquired only by example, are looked upon as highly important by Madam Deron, and she will use her best exertions to create patience and mild discipline on the one side, and patience and affection on the other, among the pupils and the teachers.

The musical classes, still under the management of Mrs. Lavillebeuvre, are constantly and carefully attended to.

The annual examination begins in October.

Summer Residence.

From the month of June, a branch of the St. Louis Institute is opened at Mandeville, a delightful village free from epidemic diseases. Madam Deron's object in opening it, is to afford to unacclimated young ladies or those wishing to spend a few months in the country, the facility of continuing the same studies as in the city. Both Establishments are opened during the entire summer.

A carriage is attached to the establishment, which conveys young ladies residing above Canal street, to and from the Institute. sep4

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

Under the Direction of MADAM CHARPAUX,

At the corner of Bayou and Claiborne streets

THIS SEMINARY, whose existence dates some six years back, has met with success that proves beyond all cavil, the capacity of those who have charge of it.

Determined to merit the confidence of parents, Madam Charpaux will spare no pains to make her Seminary equal to the best institutions of the kind in New Orleans, and in order to do this, she has employed the ablest teachers.

Madam Charpaux has purchased a large and airy edifice on one of the highest pieces of ground in the city, and the better to consult the health of her pupils, she has had spacious and elevated apartments built on purpose for school and sleeping rooms, through which there will be a constant circulation of air from many windows.

Great attention will be paid to the improvement of Scholars in the English language. For this purpose, American ladies of acknowledged capacity, as teachers, will constantly reside in the Seminary.

The English, French and Spanish languages, geography, arithmetic, and in short, all the branches of a polite education, will be taught in this Seminary.

As religion should be the foundation of all sound education, it will be carefully attended to by Madam Charpaux, who will conduct to church and catechism every day, all her young ladies who may have their first communion to make.

Music having become a most desirable branch of the education of young ladies, Mr. Charpaux, one of the best musical scholars in New Orleans and ex-artist of the Orleans Theatre, will devote all his time to teaching music. All the Scholars, besides their regular lessons, will practice daily under the eyes of the Professor. The study of the piano will not preclude the performance, when Mr. Charpaux will put the pupils through the exercises of the regular keys and notes, and this will be attended with no extra charge.

In order to kindle emulation among the Pupils, and improve their singing, on the morning of the last Saturday in every month, there will be a musical examination and a distribution of rewards.

Madam Charpaux, in order to complete the education of her Scholars, has engaged a teacher who will teach all the useful and ornamental branches of needle-work.

During the summer, the classes will open at 7 o'clock and close at 5. Recess at 8 and close at 6 o'clock, P. M. In winter, they will open at 8½, and close at 5. Re-open at 4, and close at 5½ o'clock, P. M.

Madam Charpaux respectfully invites young ladies' parents to give her a call. oct-1y

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL, UNDER THE DIRECTION OF MADAME PARENT,

Corner of Rampart and Du Maine streets.

THIS institution occupies one of the best locations in the city with respect to health and many other important advantages. The building is magnificent, the apartments are vast and well ventilated, and are particularly well adapted for the institution.

There are four fine dormitories with dressing cabinets; also spacious galleries all through the house; a splendid terrace commanding a most beautiful view of the city, as far as the Lake.

The best advantages are offered to parents, as to the moral and intellectual cultivation of the minds of their daughters.

Madame Parent is always present with her pupils; she teaches during the hours of class, and superintends the different divisions. There is an ample number of the best professors employed, besides ladies residing in the institution.

Every branch of a solid and refined education is taught in both languages; all accomplishments, such as Drawing, Painting, Dancing and Embroidery, &c. The Musical department (including vocal and instrumental) is conducted by four of the most competent and acknowledged talents in the city.

It would be superfluous to say anything respecting the special attention that is paid to the English, it being Madam Parent's native language. The best guarantee that she can give to the public is that the French young ladies who have been educated by her speak it as fluently as their mother tongue.

For terms, apply at the Institution where prospectuses can be obtained.

YOUNG LADIES residing at a distance in the different Districts, will be conveyed gratis to and from the institution. oc6
