ACADEMIES.

POONAH PAINTING.

NO Art is so calculated to improve the taste as that of Drawing. No study, therefore, is more beneficial to youth, none more gratifying in the declining period of life.

Many, however, are discouraged in their first attempt, and relinquish the Art as impracticable; but after taking a few lessons in the Poonah style, their ready success will give them an inclination to pontry nature. The effort may be difficult at first but the difficulty will speedily vanish, while the advantages will be solid, and the gratification excessive.

The Paints and Method of applying them are entirely new. In point of softness the painting much resembles a fine engraving in brilliancy and blending of colours, it surpasses all conception of the former style, but the greatest supremacy it possess over the ordinary method is, that a knowledge of it may be acquired in a very short time, even by those who possess no taste in drawing, and no knowledge of the use of the pencil.

Mr. DE LOS RIOS,

Teacher of the new Style of indian japanning, &c in 24 lessons, respectfully request those ladies who are desirous of receiving lessons at their own residence, and who are unable to call at M. de Los Rios rooms, to send their address to his dwelling corner of Dumain and Royal St under the book store of M. Gaut. There will be six classes, each conducted by a different method, which will be arranged thus:

1st Class, drawing, painting, and golden on paper.
2d " ib ib ib on velvet, silk or cotton.
3d " ib ib ib on China or earthenware.
4th " ib ib ib preparing, golden, painting brasses, and varnishing on boxes.
5th " Preparing, golden, and forming fruits and flowers with colored brasses, &c.
6th " Golden, to silver over, borders, letters, &c, on glass.

M. de Los Rios willingly guaranty to those promissed proficiency; so certain he is, from the manner in which he gives lessons, that a pupil must acquire a knowledge sufficient to allow them to depend upon their own exertions, after having taken the lessons; and, unless such be the result, they will not, and cannot, expect any remuneration whatever.

The room in which M. De Los Rios exhibit his specimens, is open to the public from 10 until 5, admittance may be gained by visitors obtained their names, entrance in Dumaine Street. sept 15

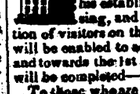
PASS CHRISTIAN HOTEL.



THE Subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that his establishment is rapidly progressing, and will be ready for the reception of visitors on the 1st June next, at which period he will be enabled to accommodate from 30 to 40 boarders—and towards the 1st of July next, when his main building will be completed—from one hundred to two hundred.

To those who are acquainted with the beautiful location of this establishment, it would be superfluous to say any thing in its favor; but for the information of the public in general, the subscriber conceives it necessary to make known its manifold advantages.

Pass Christian is situated about 50 miles from New Orleans, on Lake Borgne, nearly opposite the Bay of St. Louis, immediately on the sea shore—the land is 12 to 15 feet above the level of high water mark, which, added to the pure atmosphere, renders it one of the most healthy places in the world; and in fact, from its peculiar situation, it is impossible that an epidemic disease should ever exist there.

The fish is abundant, and of every description—game plentiful—and within a quarter of a mile from the house is an extensive oyster bank, of which it is the subscriber's intention at all times, to have an unlimited supply. The very best provisions, wine and liquors, will be amply provided, and the subscriber will neglect nothing which may add to the comfort and recreation of those who may favor him with their patronage.

To further these views, bath houses have been erected and sail boats, pirogues, moses, a seine, cast netts, &c. have been provided. A piano forte will also be provided for the use of ladies.

Families can have commodious apartments in seperate buildings.

Terms will be moderate.

The mail boats on their way to and from Mobile stop daily at the pass to wood; besides which, there are three other boats which will run all the summer, so that there will be a daily and never-failing communication with the city. The time of crossing does not exceed six or seven hours.

The Mail boats leave the rail road every day at 2 o'clock and will land passengers on the spot where an extensive wharf is now building. GEORGE LEVY. [Aug 12

M. P. MARIGNY, for the commodity of his affairs gives notice to the public that he has settled with Madame C D Marigny, the matrimonial debt he owed her, and that separated of bed and board with the said Mme C D Marigny, she has no further claims on him; and that there are now existing on his property no other mortgage than one of eight thousand three hundred dollars and twenty cents in favor of the said Mme C D Marigny, payable in 1, 2, 3 and 4 years.
