The brigade inspectors are required to be present at the inspection of the corps of their respective brigades; to be provided with complete returns of their brigades, to be furnished to the adjutant and inspector general. If any accident prevent the attendance of the latter officer, which the prevalence of the very high waters this season renders not improbable in some parishes, the brigade inspector will make the inspection and transmit the return thereof to head quarters.

5. The brigadier generals are at liberty to change the places fixed for assembling their regiments, provided it does not interfere with the other reviews established by this order.

6. The brigadier generals are required to complete the organization of the different corps of their brigades, and to report it when done to head quarters, that a time may be fixed for their inspection if possible before the meeting of the legislature.

7. Every officer who receives this order will promptly acknowledge the receipt of it by letter, addressed to the adjutant and inspector general at New Orleans; and every officer who receives it, is required to execute immediately all that relates to his corps, without waiting for the transmission of the order by his immediate superior, which some accident may interrupt.

By order of the commander in chief,

PERSIFOR F. SMITH,

jy7 Adjutant and Inspector general.

STATE OF LOUISIANA.—Parish Court, for the parish and city of New Orleans.—The State of Louisiana.—To all whom these presents shall come, greeting:—Whereas, Eugene Rocherean, of this city, having purchased at a sale made by Hewlett & Cenas, public auctioneers of this city, at the Arcade Exchange, in this city, the property hereinafter described, has applied to the clerk of this court, for a monition or advertisement, in conformity to an act of the legislature of the State of Louisiana, entitled "An act for the further assurance of titles to purchasers at judicial sales," approved the 10th day of March, 1834:

Now, therefore, know ye, and all persons interested herein, are hereby cited and admonished in the name of the State of Louisiana, and of the parish court, who can set up any right, title or claim in and to the property hereinafter described, in consequence of any informality in the order, decree or judgment of the court under which the sale was made, or any irregularity or illegality in the appraisements and advertisements, in time or manner of sale, or for any other defect whatsoever, to show cause, within thirty days from the day this monition is first inserted in the public papers, why the sale so made should not be confirmed and homologated.

The said property was sold by the auctioneers aforesaid on the 2 th day of March, A. D. 1840, by virtue of two several orders of this court—the one dated on the 15th day of January, 1840, and the other of the 13th day of February, A. D. 1840, in a suit entitled George W. Pritchard vs. his creditors, and the creditors of G. W. Pritchard & Co., No 11,266 of the docket of this court; at which sale the said Eugene Rocherean became the purchaser for the price of $16,200, payable in three promissory notes for $5,400 each, which he furnished, drawn to the order of, and endorsed by Wm T. Hepps dated on the 24th March, 1840, and payable respectively in one, two and three years after date, and said notes, if not paid at maturity, to bear interest at ten per cent until final payment.

Description of property as given in the Judicial conveyance, viz:

All and singular, a certain lot of ground, together with all the buildings and improvements thereon, the rights, privileges, customs, ways, servitudes and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining, situate and forming the southwest corner of Camp and Julia streets, in the municipality number two, of this city, measuring, more or less, twenty-six feet three inches front on Julia street, by one hundred and five feet, more or less, in depth and front on Camp street, and bounded in the rear by an alley, eleven feet seven inches in depth, which is intended for and appropriated to the common use of the owners of all the adjoining lots fronting on said Julia street.

Given under my hand, and the impress of the [L. S.] seal of this court

Clerk's office, New Orleans, July 25th, 1840.

STATE OF LOUISIANA—COMMERCIAL COURT.—The State of Louisiana, to all whom these presents shall come, greeting:

Whereas, the President, Directors and Company of the Commercial Bank of Cincinnati, in the State of Ohio, and the Commercial Bank of New Orleans, having purchased at a sale made by the sheriff of the parish of Orleans, the property hereinafter described, have applied to the clerk of this court, in whose office the deeds of sale were recorded on the 24th day of June, A. D. 1840, for a monition or advertisement, in conformity to an act of the legislature of the State of Louisiana, entitled "An act for the further assurance of titles to purchasers at judicial sales," approved the tenth day of March, 1834.

Now therefore, know ye, and all persons interested herein, are hereby cited and admonished in the name of the state of Louisiana, and of the Commercial Court of New Orleans, who can set up any right, title or claim in and to the property herein after described, in consequence of any informality in the order, decree or judgment of the court under which the sale was made or any irregularity or illegality in the appraisements and advertisements, in time or manner of sale, or for any other defect whatever, to show cause, within thirty days from the day this monition is first inserted in the public papers, why the sale so made should not be confirmed and homologated.

The said property was sold by the sheriff of the parish aforesaid on the 27th day of May, A. D. 1840, by virtue of a decree of this Court, rendered on the 17th day of May, A. D. 1839, (affirmed by the Supreme Court,) in a suit entitled Richard Ashhurst & Sons vs David Adams and Thomas Barrett, No. 496 of the docket of this Court, at which sale the President, Directors and Company of the Commercial Bank of Cincinnati ... five per cent. interest from date till paid.

Given under my hand, and the impress of the [L. S.] seal of said Court, at the city of New Orleans, the 23d June, 1840.

PATENT PERRYIAN FILTER INKSTAND.—The novel and useful invention insures an instant supply of clear filtered ink in the cup of the filter, which can be returned into the reservoir at pleasure, where it is secured from injury, and not affected by the atmosphere. The ink thus protected, never thickens or moulds, and remains good for any length of time in any climate. The process of filtration causes the coloring matter to be held in suspension; hence the trouble and inconvenience occasioned by unsuitable ink, generally found in ordinary inkstands, are completely obviated by the use of the filter inkstand. One of moderate size will contain sufficient ink for six or twelve months' writing. For sale at the New Orleans Stationers' Warehouse.
