THE INDIAN'S PANACEA, for the cure of scrofula, King's evil; incipient cancers, syphilitic and mercurial diseases; particularly ulcers and painful affections of the bones, ulcerated throat and hoarsness, ulcers of every description; rheumatism; sciatica or hip gout; fever sores or internal abscesses; strictures; scald head; scurvy; biles; chronic sore eyes; erysipelas; cutaneous diseases; chronic catarrh and headache; fever, pain in the back, pain in the stomach and dyspepsia, proceeding from vitiated affections of the liver; chronic inflammation of the kidneys and general debility, caused by a torpid action of the vessels of the skin. It is singularly efficacious in renovating shattered constitutions which have been broken down by injudicious treatment or juvenile irregularities. In general terms, it is recommended in all those diseases which arise from impurities of the blood or vitiation of the humors of whatever form or kind.
The proprietor of this valuable medicine acquired his knowledge of its ingredients from a long residence among the aborigines of this country, and it is selected as one of the most approved and successful medicines which they use. It is offered to the public by the proprietor with the conscientious belief that he is placing within their reach a remedy capable of relieving many of their sufficient and long suffering under various chronic and obstinate complaints to which it is applicable. To such it will prove the means, and in many cases the only means of relieving their sufferings, and restoring them once more to health and happiness. This is not offered as a common remedy that may perchance be equally good with many others now in use, but one which is capable of curing, and has cured, many cases in which all the usual remedies fail. This it has done repeatedly, and this is the reputation it has obtained wherever it has been introduced.
This medicine has been found highly useful in many ambiguous diseases not here specified, and it has been used with wonderful success as a spring and fall purifier by those who are subject to various complaints, and a tonic constitution requires invigorating. Whenever a blood drink is necessary, this panacea, taken in usual doses, will answer all its purposes if much less time, at less expense, and in a far more agreeable manner than any concocted drink.
The following certificate, out of hundreds similar which might be produced, are given to show the effect of the Indian's Panacea, in the cases therein mentioned, and also to exhibit in the most satisfactory manner the superiority over other similar preparations.
Case of Ulcerated Throat.—Philadelphia, Charleston, Jan. 20, 1837.—This may certify that I have been afflicted with ulcerated throat for several years, during which time I employed several eminent physicians, both in Philadelphia and Charleston, and also took several bottles of Swaim's Panacea, but all without permanent benefit. During the last winter I was taken with an ulcerated throat, which soon became so severe as to prevent my taking sufficient food to sustain life. I remained in this situation several days, emaciated and speechless, when a friend recommended a substitution—when, as a last resort, I had recourse to the Indian's Panacea, and found from it almost immediate relief, from which I recovered rapidly. I have no doubt but it saved my life. I shall ever remain ever since.

DR. LEDDY'S MEDICATED EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA—It is positively the strongest preparation of sarsaparilla in existence; one bottle of it (which costs but one dollar) being equal to one gallon of the syrup, as it is usually prepared in the shops, and equal to two bottles of any other extract. Dr. Leddy begs leave to state, that he himself prepare it, and can consequently vouch for its strength. Numerous physicians throughout the United States give it in the preference over all other preparations of sarsaparilla, both from the fact of its superior strength from its uniformly efficacy when employed; and from the circumstance of its being prepared by a regularly educated medical physician, attested by Drs. Physic, Chapman, Jackson, &c. Just received a supply, for sale by
