Whitehall, No. 44 St. Louis street, NEW OYSTER ROOM, COFFEE HOUSE, &c.—The undersigned will open, on Saturday, 1st December, in St. Louis st., opposite the Exchange, an establishment, the want of which has long been felt in the First Municipality. A Saloon has been fitted up comprehending almost the concentrated luxuries of a coffee room and oyster house. In our arrangements for the gratification of the taste of the public we have spared no expense, nor stopped no measure which will tend to give to our establishment a marked superiority over all others of the same kind in New Orleans. A man of long experience and skill has been engaged to purchase the best oysters that can be had, and the liquors will always be of the finest quality.

The strictest decorum will be maintained at all times throughout all parts of the establishment, and we shall strive to render it a place of agreeable resort during the winter months.

A magnificent Billiard room is fitted up for those who delight in that elegant exercise.

The Saloon will be richly decorated and splendidly lighted. Artists of the first merit are employed to give to it an appearance of beautiful simplicity which cannot fail to please the eye of taste.

The waiters will be polite and prompt.

A first rate Cook is employed, nowhere excelled for skillful his profession.

Masters, feel free to solicit the public patronage of this new and useful enterprise, and we shall continue to deserve it by a place of agreeable resort during the winter months.
