PARISIAN DYEING ESTABLISHMENT,
94 Conde, between St. Philip and Ursuline streets.

MR. HERICY has the honor to inform the public in general and dealers in fancy goods in particular, that he has bought the Dyeing Establishment of Mr. Bonnet.—The large space and the numerous improvements which have been added, together with a steam engine of a new model for dressing goods, and specially for silks which are dressed with such promptitude and perfection, hitherto entirely unknown. By these means silks are not perforated by pin holes, which cause them often to be torn, and which deprives them of the brilliancy of new stuffs. The prompt system of which Mr. Hericy is the sole possessor, insures him an incontestable success, and permits him to offer immense advantages in the reduction of prices and the finish of the work. Persons who will honor him with their confidence will be satisfied and will appreciate the advantage of this new mode of dressing.

He dyes and cleans in general all sorts of goods for ladies and gentlemen wear, carpets, ball and theatre dresses, church ornaments, straw hats and Russia hats, billiard balls and cloths, bleaches Panamas, cleans and dyes Cashmere shawls, of bright colors—always retaining the pattern in their original colors—dyes in black for mourning in twenty hours. Guarantees his colors fast and produces light colors from black stuffs.

Creole Table Mustard.
PREPARED BY LARROQUE.

THIS Mustard is such to taste and odor of the most pleasant kind, and has over all other preparations of the sort an indisputable superiority. In the first place, it is in no way heating, while it excites the appetite. This preparation does not contain any ingredient capable of neutralizing the sweet parts of the mustard seed, (Sinapis Nigra) which most of the manufacturers are ignorant of, and do not scruple to add to their preparations very strong acids and the use of which the mustard is so far as to make use of mustard of which the most essential parts have been extracted and make up for the deficiency with other ingredients. The same is a sort of wholesale powder, an artificial tartaric acid and carbonate of ammoniac and strongly spiced substances. The same is injurious to health by the long continued use of it, in the throat and stomach, while that of the genuine article is almost always attended with benefit.

(Lycée d'Orléans.)
ESPLANADE STREET.

THIS institution, opened in April 1845, and conducted by Professors EVERETT, WYNDHAM and MENVOYER, occupies spacious and well ventilated buildings in a part of the city which the purity of the air and the nearly total absence of sickness render highly eligible as the seat of an educational establishment.

Boarding pupils pay twenty dollars per month. This fee includes washing and tuition in all the branches.

Half Boarders pay fifteen dollars per month, and Day Scholars six, nine or twelve dollars per month according to their proficiency.

The system of education embraces the grammar and literature of the English, French, Spanish, Latin and Greek languages, History, Rhetoric, Poetry, Mythology, Geography, the use of the Globes, Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, plane and spherical Trigonometry, Surveying, Natural Philosophy, Moral Philosophy, etc., etc.

The branches of learning set forth above are taught by Professors Wyndham, Everett and Menvoyer, and by assistant instructors, selected for their long experience and eminent skill in the business of teaching.

Such pupils as desire it, may, at their own expense, receive instruction within the walls of the institution in Drawing, Music, Dancing and Fencing. The school is attended for these purposes by the most distinguished masters in the city.

All necessary books and stationery are furnished by the parents, or by the institution at the expense of the parents.

For the stricter observance of the minor rules of discipline, the proprietors of the school are assisted by two Ushers, whose special duty it is to enforce correctness of deportment in the sleeping rooms, study rooms and play grounds.

No interference whatsoever on the part of parents or guardians in the regulations of the institution is tolerated.

The Statutes, containing the rules of discipline, course of studies, terms, &c. may be had in English or in French, at the School or at the principal Book stores in the city.

The English language, daily becoming more and more evident, as of the greatest possible importance to all living in this community, is, in Boyer's Institution, attended to with more than ordinary care, the Professors engaged in this branch, being gentlemen of undoubted attainments and long accustomed to Tuition.
