Amusements.

EXHIBITION OF THE ART OF FANCY GLASS BLOWING & SPINNING.

EXHIBITION room, corner of Conti street. Entrance 22 Chartres street. Mr. Firm respectfully informs the public that he will exhibit for a short time, his curious and interesting ART; and can assure those who are disposed to encourage the fine arts, that the exhibition will be found worthy of their attention. The process of modelling figures of animals, &c. from glass, in a state of fusion, is so wonderfully curious, as to fill the beholder with astonishment, and must be witnessed, in order to decide on its merits, as no description can afford an adequate idea of the pleasure it affords. The various productions of the artist, which are rare and exquisite in their construction, are for sale, and well adapted as presents for relatives or a fair hand. Admission 50 cents—children half price. Season tickets, (not transferable,) $1. Open from 10 A M till 5 P M and from 3 to 9 at night. m12

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL, for young ladies, conducted by Madame Granet, in Mr. Landreau's new house, Royal street, corner of St. Philip street. Terms—Boarders, for ten months, $300, day boarders, do. $100, day scholars, do. $100, washing, do. (optional) $20 harp, per quarter, $30, piano, do. $21, singing, do. $21, dancing, do. $21. The course of studies comprises a simultaneous teaching of the French and English languages and literature, writing, drawing, arithmetic, geography, chronology, history, and the different sorts of needle work, lace making, tapestry and fancy works. Beds are found by the establishment, for which the pupils have to pay $5. Each pupil is to bring 2 pair of sheets, 1 woollen blanket, 1 white quilt, 12 towels, a silver spoon, fork and goblet, a dessert knife, and a sufficient suit of clothes and linen. School books and writing books are paid for separately. Payments to be made every three months, and in advance, either in cash or in negotiable bills. No deduction for absence. The children are treated with that mildness, so becoming towards the female portion of society, and as Madame Granet carefully avoids striking their young minds with real or imaginary terrors, so she has made a rule never to inflict the least bodily punishment. The increasing success of the establishment and the remarkable progress which the pupils have already made, render it useless to enter into further particulars. a 18
