PROCLAMATION

BY ALEXANDER MOUTON,

EXECUTIVE OFFICE.

WHEREAS, the State Convention lately assembled in the city of New Orleans, for the purpose of readopting, amending or changing the Constitution of the State, has ordained that the Governor shall cause his proclamation, directing the several officers of the State, as formed by law to hold elections for members of the General Assembly, to be issued and held a general election throughout the State at the places designated by law, upon the first Monday of November, for the purpose of taking the sense of the good people of this State in respect to the adoption or rejection of this Constitution, and it shall be duty of said officers to receive the votes of all persons entitled to vote under the old Constitution and under this Constitution. Each voter shall express his opinion by depositing in the ballot box, a ticket whereon shall be written "The Constitution adopted" or, "the Constitution rejected," or some such words as will distinctly convey the intention of the voter. At the conclusion of the said election, which shall be conducted in every respect as the General State Election is now conducted, the Parish Judges and Commissioners shall proceed to open the votes, shall carefully examine and count each ballot so deposited, and shall forthwith make due return thereof to the Secretary of State, in conformity to the provisions of existing laws upon the subject of elections.

Now therefore, I have thought proper to issue this my proclamation, notifying the qualified electors throughout the State of the premises aforesaid, and commanding all the Parish Judges, Commissioners and other officers therein concerned to notify the people to assemble and vote for the new or rejection of the Constitution, upon the third Monday of November next, being the 3rd day of said month, and cause the same to be conducted and due return thereof to be made in the manner and within the time prescribed by law, and be observed.

Given under my hand and seal of the state, at the Executive Office, this 1st day of May, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and of the independence of the United States of America, the sixty-ninth.

By the Governor:
ROBERT CARTER NICHOLAS, Secretary of State.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, JULY 9th, 1845.

PROCLAMATION BY ALEXANDER MOUTON,

Governor of the State of Louisiana.

WHEREAS, a vacancy has occurred in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States by the death of the Honorable John B Dawson, of the Third Congressional District of this State, and the Executive Committee of said district has requested that an election be held in the said District, for a member of the Congress of the United States, to fill said vacancy, and serve for the term for which the late member was elected.

Now, therefore, I have thought proper to issue this, my proclamation, notifying the said qualified voters in said District of said election, and commanding all Parish Judges, Sheriffs, and other officers therein concerned, to notify and give notice that a Special Election will be held on the first Monday of September next, and to cause the same to be conducted, and due returns thereof to be made in the manner and within the time specified by law.

Given under my hand and the seal of the State of New Orleans, this 9th day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty five, and of the independence of the United States the seventieth.

A MOUTON.

By the Governor:
ROBERT CARTER NICHOLAS,
Secretary of State.
