METHOD OF LEARNING TO READ IN 30 LESSONS.—MR. VANNIER, surveyor, civil engineer on the Burgundy Canal, author of the unpublished abridged method to teach reading French in 30 lessons, proposes to put this admirable method into practice, either by private lessons, or in the public class which takes place every day, from 6 o'clock in the morning to 10 o'clock, at No 150 Chartres street, or at 48 Ann.

The proposed fee will apply the same abridged method of instruction, according to the intelligence of pupils, to writing, orthography, arithmetic, geometry, drawing, linear drawing, mensuration, book-keeping, accounts of all kinds.

d27

WRITING—Ladies and gentlemen are respectfully informed that Delheur's writing academy, corner of Canal street and Exchange Place, is in successful operation. It is conducted by Messrs. A & B Sprent, and the public may be assured that no pains will be spared the present season to maintain the reputation which this institution has enjoyed for thirteen seven years. The main object is, as hitherto, to impart a business hand, which can be acquired with ease and rapidity. For the convenience of such as are engaged during the day, there is a night class at 7 o'clock.

Classes are attended in all parts of the city.

The attention is particularly directed to the fact, that a very liberal deduction in charge is made to classes formed by schools.

Ladies are taught at the residences, or at the academy, as to them may seem desirable. Such as wish to acquire an easy and delicate epistolary hand, which is both a requisite and an accomplishment, are respectfully invited to call.
