Bank & Company's Notices.

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS Reward.—Lewes Steam Cotton Press Co. offer a reward of one thousand dollars for the apprehension and conviction of the wretch or wretches who set fire to the Cotton Yard on Saturday evening, 28th inst.

By order of the Board.

D. F. GUEN, Sec'y.

Office Lewes Steam Cotton Press Co. New Orleans, 30th April, 1838.

ALL PERSONS having stored Cotton in the press, are requested to present a list of the same to the subscriber, to enable him to adjust the loss occasioned by the fire of the 28th inst. as speedily as possible.

BATH RAIL ROAD COMPANY.

GREGARLY to the charter of the company, the BOOKS will be opened for subscription, every day from 9 o'clock to the morning, to 4 in the evening, at Mell Bonneau's store, corner of Natchez and Tchoupitoulas streets.

By the charter it will be seen that the capital is $120,000—of which $60,000 is taken by the present stockholders, who prior to payment of the rest the railroad will be already finished, the cars moved, and a steam boat on the ground to tow the cars from the city to the end of the road, $15 payable at the time of subscription and the remainder in three equal payments, at 60 days, 120 days and 180 days after the date of subscription.

The capital stock will be immediately expended in building the road and two boat houses.

The cars will be ready for the public early in the spring, and the public will have all advantages of a rail road, and two boat houses, and the Board will offer the public terms more than one fifth cheaper than the present rate of freight.
