NEW ORLEANS, JACKSON, AND

Great Northern Railroad.

1859.—TRANSPORTATION DEPARTMENT.—1860

FREIGHT will be received at the Company's Depot, foot of Calliope street, up to 3:30 P. M. daily, Sundays excepted.

All freights intended for transportation must be distinctly marked with the name or initials of consignee and place of destination, and be in good order, and be accompanied by a receipt signed to established stations on the Line of the road or Connections.

Blank railroad receipts for freight may be obtained at the Depot, or of Messrs. Carson & Armstrong, Camp street. Those who wish to use them.

The Company holds itself responsible for the value of all cotton shipped by the road—which may be lost by fire—from the time it is received at a shed or depot, until twelve hours notice to consignees of its arrival at the Depot in this city.

This Company and all the Railroad Companies constituting the "Great Southwestern" line between New Orleans and New York, have made arrangements with the Adams Express Company to run a regular daily through Express between the two cities. The Express has taken possession of the Depot at Jackson, and expects to run on account, is discontinued, and all express matter will be carried by the Adams Express. Information may be obtained on this subject from J. J. McKeever, Esq., 99 Camp street.

Agents of the Railroad Company are not permitted to receive or receipt for bank notes, specie, jewelry, or other express matter. They will be received by the Adams Express, 99 Camp street.

NEW ORLEANS

Female Collegiate Institute,

AND

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL

FOR YOUNG LADIES.

Under the Supervision of Madame ED LOCQUET,

No. 202 Camp Street,

BETWEEN JULIA AND ST. JOSEPH STREETS.

THIS establishment, founded by Dr. and Mrs. McCauley, whose high reputation has never been questioned, will commence its sixteenth session on the 15th of September.

Mme. ED. LOCQUET, assisted by her sister, Mme. FRANCOIS LOCQUET, as principal of the Female Department, will use her best endeavors to continue to merit the confidence reposed in her so many years, by her predecessors.

Professors of the highest talent are employed in all the branches, and, in music and in the Modern Languages, and the study of the Italian, will be taught exclusively by the Mesdames Locquet, who have spent the greater part of music has been so well appreciated by the numerous families who have favored them with their confidence.

The French language, the native tongue of the Locquets, and the acquirement of which is now indispensable to a good education, is taught as the mother tongue, and is spoken in the Institution. Young ladies will therefore have the opportunity of perfecting themselves in this language.

This establishment is commodious and well ventilated, and has recently been entirely renovated, with the utmost regard to the comfort and health of its inmates.

Mme. LOCQUET respectfully invites parents and families to call and visit her school, where prospectuses, with all the information which may be desired, will be obtained.

Letters of inquiry will be promptly attended to by the Principal.

Jefferson Academy,

53.....BOURBON STREET, N. O.....53

Conducted by

C. J. ROUDÉ.

THIS establishment, founded in 1836, having held a high position in public opinion as one of the leading institutions in the South of the United States.

The plan comprehends a general and extensive system of education. Pupils are admitted at any seven years of age, and continue till the age of twenty, if their parents so like. They are distributed into classes, according to their capacities and acquirements.

The premises, perhaps, the best to be found in the city, with ample space for exercise and recreation, and every convenience for an institution of this kind.

The Professors are gentlemen of talent, chosen with care. Good order reigns in the establishment, and strict attention is paid to the moral conduct and improvement of the pupils.

Madame Parent's Institution,

Corner Royal and Hospital Sts.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

THIS establishment has been removed to corner Royal and Hospital streets, for the building is vast, well ventilated and well distributed for class rooms, studies and dormitories, and possesses all the requisites to claim the numerous families who have so largely patronized her institution, and would assure them that the undersigned will continue the same attention as heretofore. The long-known reputation of her establishment is the guarantee for the future. The course of study embraces the same system, in both English and French, as that employed in the first class institutions in the North. The Italian, Latin, Spanish, Music, Drawing, Painting, Dancing, Sewing, &c., is taught by the most eminent Professors, in the Drawing and Painting, Dancing by Professors.

Madame Parent will remove her institution across the Lake during the summer months, but will keep the school open for those who may prefer it. Family, there will be nothing wanting to complete a literary as well as a refined education; she is sanguine in the hope of young persons that pure morality which is the fundamental base of the institution, combining that very elegant manner of conversing for which persons, her pupils, are formation address Madame Parent, at the Institution, where prospectuses can be obtained. oct4

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL

FOR YOUNG LADIES.

Under the direction of

MRS. CHARPAUX

at the corner of BAYOU and CLAIBORNE streets.

THIS seminary, whose existence dates some twelve years back, has met with a success that proves, beyond all cavil, the capacity of those who have charge of it.

Determined to merit the confidence of parents, Mrs. Charpaux will spare no pains to render the education equal to the best institutions of the kind in New Orleans, and in order to do this, she has employed the ablest teachers.

Madame Charpaux has purchased a large and airy edifice on one of the finest elevated pieces of ground in the city, and the better to consult the health of her pupils, she has set gardens and flowers in abundance in the yard, and to school and sleeping rooms, through which there will be a constant circulation of air from many windows.

Great attention will be paid to the improvement of pupils in the French language. For this purpose, Madame Charpaux has secured the services of a native teacher of the department of instruction.

The English and French languages, Geography, Arithmetic, and in fact all the branches of a solid education, will be taught in the Seminary.

Music forms a most desirable branch of the education of young ladies. Mr. Charpaux, from the best musical school in Paris, and ex-chief of the Orleans Theatre, will be the teacher of music in this school.

Madame Charpaux, in order to complete the education of her scholars, has opened a room in which will be taught all the useful and ornamental branches of needlework.
