Day and Boarding School for Young Ladies.

Founded in 1839, by Madame Leiris, and conducted since 1840, by MADAME DESRAYAUX; Burgundy street, between Customhouse and Bienville streets, New Orleans.

MME. and MRS. DESRAYAUX, formerly in Rampart street, having removed their institution upwards of a year ago, to more extensive accommodations, assure parents and guardians of youth, that their new building in Burgundy st. has fully met their expectations, and supplies one great and almost indispensable requisite—viz: ample accommodations, adapted to the object they had in view. It is scarcely necessary to state, that the building which they erected, is supplied with all the modern improvements for the comfort and convenience of domestic life, and for educational purposes. The apartments are spacious, airy, well lighted, and properly furnished. The large and well shaded garden in the rear of the building, purchased for the accommodation of the pupils, is found to be attended with many advantages, as regards health, exercise and amusement. In short, every arrangement has been made, at no small expense, to increase the facilities of education; to guard the health of the pupils, and to promote their comfort and happiness.

The Institution provides thorough and substantial instruction in every stage and department of education. It possesses great facilities for the acquirement of the French language, and for the cultivation of Music; and it is sufficient to say, that no efforts will be wanting to sustain the reputation which the School has already acquired in these departments.

DR. MACAULAY, who has taught in the Institution for upwards of five years, and who divides his time equally between it and Mrs. Macaulay's, takes the entire charge of the department of English Literature, including Natural and Moral Philosophy; and teaches not only the outlines, but enough of Mathematics, Chemistry, Geology and Astronomy, as to enable young ladies to understand all the ordinary phenomena which are constantly presenting themselves to their observation.

For further information, the proprietors of the Institution respectfully refer parents to their prospectus, published in pamphlet form, to be found at the book stores and at the Institution. 26t—1y

ST. BOYER INSTITUTION,

No. 148 Conti street, between Dauphine and Burgundy.

MR. G. BOYER, founder of this establishment, the oldest in New Orleans, seizes this opportunity to make a new appeal to the confidence of parents.

The institution is conducted in a large mansion occupying a fine central position, being well ventilated, and in other respects perfectly salubrious.

The range of studies which engage the attention of the pupils, extends over all the branches of learning, which it is necessary to a useful, polite and finished education; from primary instruction, to the more abstruse subjects which are specially the province of a collegiate course.

The elementary studies are attended to with more than ordinary care, considering the decisive influence which they exercise over the other branches of instruction.

Discipline, which must not be separated from studious study, not from a good education, is conducted with solicitude, and is calculated according to the age and character of the students, and in general, to give them an accurate idea of duty and good behavior.

The English, French, Spanish, Greek and Latin languages; Mathematics, History, Geography, Elements of Natural Philosophy, and Philosophical Science.

MEDICAL.

DR. C. FOUTRAIN'S HAMBURGH DROPS.

WONDER OF THE WORLD! OF THE 19TH CENTURY! THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY MEDICINE!

THE extract from our 16 quart bottle is the most effectual, speedy, safe, and warranted cure for the following complaints, viz: Impotency, Seminal Weakness, Gleet, Stricture, Gravel, Nervous Debility, Nervous Headache, and Nervous Complaints.

The great beauty and superiority of this Sarsaparilla over all other medicines is, whilst it eradicates disease, it invigorates the body. It is one of the very best ever known; it not only purifies the whole system—it strengthens the person, but it dresses new, pure and rich blood; a property possessed by no other medicine. And in this lies the great secret of its wonderful success. It has performed within the past five years more than 100,000 cures; whereas cases of diseases at least 12,000 of these cures were considered incurable; or it has saved the lives of more than 5000 children during the two past seasons.

TEN THOUSAND CASES OF GENERAL DEBILITY AND WANT OF NERVOUS ENERGY.

Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla invigorates the whole system permanently. To those who have lost their muscular energy by the effects of medicine or indiscretion consequent upon youth, it restores the indulgence of the passions, and brought on a general physical prostration of the nervous system, hastening, when unaided by strengthening remedies, premature decay and decline, hastening toward that fatal disease, Consumption can be entirely restored by this precious remedy. This Sarsaparilla is far superior to any

as it renews and invigorates the system, gives activity to the limbs, and strength to the muscular system
