COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE BEE,
FRIDAY EVENING, January 23, 1858.

We still have a fair amount of business to report in our general market, though our great staple, Cotton, has moved rather slowly, owing to the advanced prices demanded by holders. Sugar and Molasses have been active, but at lower prices during a portion of the week. Tobacco has seen quite spirited Western Produce of nearly all kinds have been quoted higher; Flour, Corn, Pork and Lard have advanced. Freights have been dull, with a decaying tendency for foreign ports. In Exchange a moderate business has been done at improved rates.

On Monday morning we published the Africa's advices, embracing Liverpool dates to the 9th inst. They reported sales of 44,000 bales Cotton for the four business days previous to the steamer's departure, with a lighter advance in prices for all qualities. Fair Orleans was quoted at 6¾d, and Middling Orleans at 6¼d. In the steam report we stated at 400,000 bales, including 100,000 American.

COTTON.—Arrived since the 15th instant, 45,204 bales. Cleared in the same time 29,806 bales for Liverpool, 18 7 for Glasgow, 13,141 for Havre, 1907 for Bremen, 1656 for Ghent, 184 for Barcelona, 4 6 for Santander, 550 for Malaga, 1534 for Vera Cruz, 15 9 for Hatton, 664 for New York, and 50 for Brazos; together, 44,202 bales, making a reduction in stock of 1102 bales, and leaving on hand, including all on shipboard and in the presses and public stores not cleared, a stock of 334,423 bales.

The market opened on Saturday with a fair demand, but with advanced pretensions on the part of factors the business amounting to some 4000 bales, nearly all of which was sold before the American advices were made known in the street. On Monday all bidder rates were insisted on, and barely 600 bales were sold, mostly at an advance of ⅛d, and on Tuesday the sales footed up 3000 bales, the market really relaxing to meet the views of holders. The latter, however, be only some concessions on Wednesday, and displayed of the 5000 bales at easier prices, inside figures prevailing in most of the transactions, and yesterday 5000 bales were sold at rates showing a decline of ⅛c on the grades below middling, the market wearing a heavy appearance generally. To-day some 7500 bales changed hands, making a total for the week of 26,000 bales, showing prices ranging about as follows:

LIVERPOOL CLASSIFICATION.—FURNISH AND WEDNESDAY.
