DANCING ACADEMY.

ST. LOUIS ST. AND CORNER BOURONE AND PERDIDO STS.

MR. CUSSEY respectfully announces to the Public and Gentlemen of New Orleans that he has now opened his spacious Saloon to the public and will act as DANCING MASTER at his Saloon, 135 St. Louis, and parts daily in PRIVATE SOIRIES and take the opportunity to offer his services.

Mr. C. teaches the Mazurka, Polka, and every other new and Fashionable Dance which is called for and he will be ready to the carriage and deportment of his pupils, especially to the young ladies and gentlemen of families, residing in the City. The Saloon, which is now fully fashionable and in the continual resort of Europe that not to possess it would be a disgrace to a resident of order, is the finest in the City. The Piano Forte will be at the leading Dance at the last Carnival Ball.

Mr. Cussey will pay particular attention to the unpromising or backward pupils, and in order to give them confidence, we propose to be juvenile Dancers for the parents or guardians of such, and at which the parents or guardians will be invited.

Private Lessons to Ladies or private families given at their own residence, or at either of his Saloons, at such hours during the day as may be most their convenience.

A class for Gentlemen will be opened every morning, except Saturday, after dark.

For further particulars and terms, apply at Mr. Cussey's residence, No. 73 Royal street (every day, between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock) and on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings, between the hours of 4 and 10 o'clock.

N. B. Mr. Cussey having dried up his Saloon over the Carrollton Railroad Depot, on the corner of Bacourse and Perdido streets, in an elegant manner for the purpose of giving Balls and Parties—will let it by the evening to parties, for their own use, on timely application made to him, at either of his establishments.
