FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

HENRY CLAY.

NEW-ORLEANS:
SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 22, 1843.

CLAY CLUB.

A meeting of the members of the Clay Club will be held at their rooms in Exchange Place, on Monday evening, 24th inst., at eight o'clock. A general attendance is requested, as business of importance will be laid before them.

By order of the President,
C. C. WILLIAMS, JULES BENIT, } Secretaries.

THE MILLER CASE.—The testimony in this was closed yesterday evening before the Hon. Judge Collins of the City Court.

The case was submitted to the Court for decision without argument on either side. Judge Collins remarked that his mind was made up on the subject, but that he preferred giving a written decision in the matter, and would notify both parties as soon as it would be prepared.

We of course refrain from comments until the decision is made known.

CRIMINAL COURT.—Michael Sevier, found guilty of assault and battery.

Manuel Moreau and Lorensky, alias Joseph Van Cresson, f. m. c., guilty of assault and battery.

Andrew Mills, found guilty of stealing two pair of cottonade pantaloons.

RECORDER'S COURT.—First Municipality—Michael Marsh for assaulting Henry Peire, with intent to kill, and carrying a concealed dirk, contrary to the statutes made and provided—bound over in the sum of $500 to keep the peace.

André Martin, a slave of Mr. Parker, for stealing clothing from Madame Brocard—remanded for further examination.

ARREST OF A MURDERER.—An Italian named Pau Antonio was arrested at the Charity Hospital yesterday morning by Capt. Youenes of the First Municipality Police, charged with having murdered a man named Giovani Cuneo in the city of Mobile on the 22d of June last. He was brought before Recorder Bertus, and committed to prison to await the requisition of the Governor of Alabama. A reward of $200 for his apprehension has been offered by the Mayor of Mobile.

FOR PENSACOLA.—The fine steamer Creole, Capt. Hiern will leave for Pensacola on Monday, and return on Thursday. Those who wish to inhale the sea breeze, and enjoy the delights of bathing and feasting on fine pompinos, should avail themselves of this agreeable chance.

The Boston Evening Bulletin will hereafter advocate the claims of DANIEL WEBSTER to the Presidency.

The trial of R. P. DAWDEN at Washington City for the embezzlement of Treasury notes, was postponed by the Criminal Court until the first Monday in August.

At the Asylum for the Blind at Columbus, Ohio, on the evening of the 7th inst., one of the pupils, named George Brown, about 15 years of age, attempted to walk across the roof, but mistaking his way, fell to the pavement and was instantly killed.

Travelling is becoming cheaper and cheaper.—The proprietors of the London and Liverpool packet ships at New York have reduced the outward bound passage to seventy-five dollars. This will enable them to enter more thoroughly into competition with the steamers.

ST. DOMINGO.—The brig Maria, Capt. Stetson, arrived at Philadelphia on the 12th, from Port au Prince, having left there on the 1st instant. The Island was in a state of tranquillity, and the public affairs harmoniously conducted by the provisionary Government. No election of President had yet taken place. The market was well supplied with American provisions, and of flour there were about 3000 bbls on hand.

In looking over the list of passengers on board of the steam ship COLUMBIA, at the time she was wrecked, we find the following citizens of New Orleans, viz.:—J. Gaines, D. Huncelehagin, Lewis Huth, John Phillips, W. Muir, F. M. Ward and W. Vogel. J. Boullier and B. Armengol, citizens of Louisiana, were also on board.

The editor of the Richmond Enquirer has recently received a part of a lock of hair cut from General JACKSON'S head. In common courtesy, Mr. RITCHIE ought to send the General in return a lock of his own hair, wrapped up in one of the Enquirer's of 1828, in which the editor predicted that General JACKSON'S election to the Presidency would be a curse to the country. The Baltimore Patriot remarks that such a present would no doubt be highly prized at the Hermitage.

THE LEARNED BLACKSMITH.—In the settlement of a case at Bangor, relative to an estate in St. Thomas, a document was produced as evidence, which was written in Danish, and contained 40 foolscap pages, but there were none who could translate it. It was sent to Mr. Burritt, of Worcester, known as the learned blacksmith, who returned a translation of it, which is spoken of very highly by the editor of the Whig. In a letter, Mr. B. remarks that the translation cost him twelve days hard labor, for which he presumed the sum of $18 would not be an unreasonable compensation, as that would be "about what any other blacksmith would charge, provided he could do it with hammer and tongs."

MARINE DISASTER.—A slip from the Norfolk Herald office, dated the 10th instant, says—"The U. S. frigate Macedonian, Capt. MAYO, bound for the Coast of Africa, got under way at the anchorage about six o'clock this afternoon, to drop down to Hampton Roads, but had not proceeded more than half a mile, when a sudden flurry of wind and rain from W. N. W. took her all aback, and without allowing time to clew up or take in her topsails, drove her astern till she came foul of the Pennsylvania, producing a concussion which was distinctly heard on shore—a distance of nearly half a mile. We have not heard the extent of the damage, but from some fragments of spars which drifted past Town Point, it is supposed that the Macedonian is minus her gaff and spanker-boom. The squall lasted for nearly half an hour with great violence, during which the U. S. steamer Union and schooner Flirt dragged up abreast of Town Point."

THE COLUMBIA.—We are gratified to perceive by the Northern papers, that there is a good chance of saving this fine steamship. The Boston Bulletin, says:

Captain Judkins of the mail steamer Hibernia, states that he has every hope that the steamer Columbia will yet be saved. He founds this opinion upon her known strength and position, and from her having had steam up the day after she struck the ledge—from which fact Captain Judkins thinks she could not have injured herself so much as to incapacitate her from being got off. The last letter received in this city, dated July 4, two o'clock, forty eight hours after the steamer grounded, does not give any evidence that the steamer was in a leaky condition; moreover, the tides were at dead neaps, and each succeeding tide would cause a rise of several feet, until the full moon to morrow.—Boston Bull.

FROM VALPARAISO.—The ship Chili at Boston from Valparaiso brings later dates from that city. The Boston Post publishes a letter from which we extract the following:

VALPARAISO, April 21, 1843.

The large comet that was seen here caused great excitement among the inhabitants, many of whom, on feeling the shock of an earthquake, when the comet was visible, retired back into the country and remained there two days. March 13th its tail measured a circle of 48°; April 4th it was just visible to the naked eye, and was then in Orion.

The following vessels of war are now in port: U. S. Yorktown, to sail in a few days; H. B. M. ship Dublin, steam frigate Salamander, a French frigate, and a sloop-of-war. The U. S. squadron, Com. Jones, is expected here daily. The U. S. schooner Shark is at Coquimbo.

Business here is very dull at present. There are many English vessels on the coast doing nothing, consequently freights are very low.—We have been visited with a most destructive fire, which consumed property to the amount of two millions of dollars.

You are probably aware of an unsuccessful correspondence between our former Charge of Affairs to the government of Chili, in regard to property belonging to merchants of the United States. Our present and very efficient minister to that government, John S. Pendleton, Esq., has obtained indemnity to the amount of $200,000, which is to be paid in instalments of $30,000 each. The first is already on its way to the United States. Thomas H. Perkins, Esq., of Boston, is the largest holder.

Despatches from the Department of State have been received at the U. S. Consulate, at Valparaiso, for Mr. Dorr, who was long since appointed to succeed the present incumbent. This last gentleman, Joseph Hobson, Esq., is much esteemed by all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance, and by none more sincerely than by the writer. His removal will be deeply regretted by the commercial marine.

HENDERSON PARDONED.—We understand that a pardon was on Wednesday received by the Marshal of the District of Columbia, from the President, in favor of John B. Henderson, who was convicted about two years ago of counterfeiting Treasury Notes and sentenced to ten years imprisonment in the Penitentiary.—Henderson has not been confined quite five years; and during that period, as we learn from the late and present Wardens of the Penitentiary, his conduct has been very correct and becoming his unfortunate situation.—Nat. Intel.

New Works.—We have received from the publishers Appleton & Co., through Messrs. Norman, Steele & Co., a copy of the New Purchase, or Seven and a half Years in the Far West, by Robert Caulten. From a hasty glance at the contents, it is an interesting portrait of life in the west, accompanied with a multitude of adventures, and will sufficiently repay a perusal.

We are likewise indebted to Messrs. Norman, Steele & Co. for the June number of Sargent's New Monthly Magazine. This periodical is as usual splendidly embellished, and the literary contents are rich and entirely original.

From the same source, we have received "A voice from the Vintage," by Mrs. Ellis, being an essay on temperance, a subject which the authoress treats of in a masterly style.

We have also a cheap edition of Windsor Castle, by Ainsworth, and Sir John Froissart's Chronicles of England, France and Spain.

We find the following communication in the New York Courier and Enquirer, addressed to the Hon. Robert C. Nicholas, which was elicited by the recent letter of Mr. Calhoun, in relation to the sugar interest of Louisiana:

NEW YORK, July 10th, 1843.

To Robert C. Nichols, Esq.

SIR—Having noticed a recent letter of the Hon. J. C. Calhoun, addressed to you, on the subject of protection to the sugar interest in Louisiana, will you allow me to propound some questions to you? You have long been a resident of Louisiana, and are presumed to be not only identified with her interests, but well acquainted with the best means of promoting and securing them.

Do you not believe that protection—on the scale intimated in Mr. Calhoun's letter—would be fatal to the sugar interest in Louisiana?

Do you not believe, a reduction of the present duty would be greatly prejudicial to that interest?

Do you not believe, that if the duty is reduced one-half, more than half the sugar planters would be driven out of the culture of that staple?

Do you not believe there are upwards of 200,000 laborers now employed in the cultivation of sugar in Louisiana?

What other culture would these laborers be employed at, save cotton, if forced out of the culture of sugar?

Would not the employment of 100,000 additional laborers in the culture of cotton, increase the product of that staple at least 600,000 bales?

Are not then the interests of the growers of sugar and cotton, mutually dependent on each other?

Would not the increase in the produce of cotton, to the extent of 600,000 bales, be ruinous to the interests of the cotton growers?

Is there not soil enough in Louisiana—well adapted to the culture of cotton—sufficient to give employment to 100,000 additional laborers? And do you not believe, the cotton growers of South Carolina are quite as much interested in preventing the rapid extension of the culture, as those of Louisiana, or elsewhere?

Did you not think the cotton growers are less injured by the Tariff than any other class of citizens? If otherwise—can you point out wherein they are injured, and to what extent? And finally, do you not believe that any reduction in the present duty on sugar would prostrate the sugar interest and blight the cotton most materially?

Can you doubt, that the present production of cotton is excessive? or that whatever will tend to increase that product, would greatly injure those engaged in it? and do you not believe a reduction in the sugar duty would most certainly lead to this result?

Do you not believe the protection given to the cotton manufacturers of the United States has laid to the foundation for a vastly extended increase in the consumption of the raw material? and that this county is destined, at some distant period, to export more goods manufactured from cotton, than nearly all the world combined?

THE NORTH EAST BOUNDARY-LINE.—The Bangor Whig and Courier contains a letter from Houlton, from which we copy the following intelligence concerning the survey of the new boundary line on our North Eastern frontier:

HOULTON, (Me.) June 24, 1843.

For the last month this has been quite a busy place, it having been the "point d'appui" for the various parties of explorers, surveyors, engineers and commissioners who have had business upon the frontier.

Colonel Estecourt and his party, consisting of miners, sappers, soldiers, engineers and common laborers amounting in all to about twenty-five men, have had their head quarters at Woodstock, while Mr. Smith, the American commissioner, has had about the same force at this place. A large quantity of supplies and baggage have been sent up the Grand Falls upon the St. John which is calculated for the main depot, and within a few days, several of the engineers have gone there.

Colonel Estecourt and twelve men and Mr. Lally and five men on the part of the American commission, have started from the Monument to perambulate and re-open the Eastern Boundary Line until it strikes the St. John. Another party is following them to clear and cut out the road thirty feet wide, and it is intended, as I understand to erect a monument of some work of brick and stone at the starting point at the source of the St. Croix, another near Park's hill, and several more at various points upon the line.

The American Commissioner is still here. I am told that the British Commissioner was asked how soon it was expected the line would be finished up the St. John's, he replied in about six weeks. In answer to the same question the American Commissioner said, that if the provisions held out they might go to the St. John's in the course of a year. I understand that the British Commissioner proposed to start with his party from the St. John's and work south, and the American party should begin at the monument, and work north, until the parties met. This plan was not acceded to on the part of the American Commissioner, who thought it best to proceed all together, and so do up the work strong.

There has been a considerable emigration for the last six months, into this place, from the Province. The low price of lands, the erection of mills and the opening of new roads, present strong inducements to settlers upon the American side of the line, and nearly fifty families have recently removed from the St. John's river into the county of Aroostook. I am told that the country north of this place is filling up fast. Families and young men are moving in not only from the Provinces but from the different parts of Maine. Since the settlement of the boundary line, there seems to be a greater degree of security upon the frontier, and as new roads are opened an increasing emigration is anticipated.

The tobacco crop in Virginia, is described as being in a very unpromising condition. The Richmond Whig of the 12th says:

Two planters from Prince Edward, inform us, that in that county, Buckingham, Cumberland and Charlotte, it is not possible that half a crop of tobacco can be made this year. In the first place, the plants were very scarce—not enough to plant a full crop. The fly committed great ravages upon them. When the plants were set out a drought ensued, and nearly half of them withered and died. Many planters are even now sending far and near for plants—and in the faint hope of procuring them, and making lugs, by favor of a late fall.

Our informers apprehend that it will be the smallest crop ever raised in the above-named counties.

On Saturday last, the opinion of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts was given in the case of Pierre Choteau, Jr. vs. Daniel Webster. The action was brought to recover the amount of two notes for five thousand dollars each, endorsed by Mr. Webster, and payable October 1st, 1837. The defendant resisted payment on the ground that he had not been duly notified of the non-payment by the signer of the notes; he contended that he should have been notified at the usual place of business in Boston, whereas it was proved that notice was sent to him by mail, at Washington, where he then was. The Court were satisfied that the notice was actually received by the defendant, and also that it was sufficient notice to charge the defendant; the decision was accordingly given against Mr. Webster.—New York Sun 13th inst.

MURDERS ON THE AFRICAN COAST.—We learn from the Salem Register, that the mate of the schooner Edward Burley, Mr. Henry G. Glading, of Salem, and John Freeman, the cook, were murdered by the natives at a place called Blue Barbara, on the African coast, on the 24th of March last. Information subsequently received by the captain of the Edward Burley, led him to believe that the savages had formed a plan to murder all the crew, and take possession of the schooner. On the 2d of May, Capt. Burke fell in with the U. S. brig Porpoise, and communicated the circumstance to her commander, who promised to look into the matter. The place where this affair happened is near where the Mary Carver, of Plymouth, was cut off and her crew massacred, two or three years since. The natives are said to be a fierce, cannibal-like race, and well-fitted for treachery of this kind.—N. Y. Sun 13th inst.

TORNADO.—By the annexed extract of a letter from Berthier, it will be seen that the late storm has caused much loss in that village and its neighborhood. Berthier is a beautiful village on the road from Montreal to Quebec—about 45 miles from the former.—Boston Atlas.

BERTHIER, Friday, July 7, 1843.

"On Sunday last we had a dreadful storm of wind, accompanied by a deluge of rain and awful lightning and thunder. The wind was the most terrific I ever felt or heard, I may almost say saw, so thick was the atmosphere. Hugo barns were crushed, trees turned up, and roofs upturned in every direction. I certainly thought that our house, which has an unusually lofty roof, was mainly to have yielded to the tremendous pressure.—Nevertheless, although the very floors trembled under us, we escaped. Had it continued for fifteen minutes more, the damage would have been incalculable. As it is, several hundred barns and other buildings of slight construction, between Lanoraie and Yamachiche, have been destroyed, as well as very many cattle. In the back concessions much inconvenience is caused by the vast number of trees strown about the roads."

ANOTHER PATRIOT GONE!—Charles Dake, Esq., one of the first settlers, and oldest and best citizens in Greenfield, died on the 1st inst., at the advanced age of 81 years.—Saratoga Sentinel.

A NEW THEATRE IN BOSTON.—The Boston papers announce that arrangements have been made to build a new theatre in Tremont street; and that the work is to be commenced immediately.

Sir Robert Peel stated in a late debate on the Canada Corn Bill, that the cost of suppressing the late Canada rebellion was not less than three millions five hundred thousand pounds.

A wealthy and eccentric Frenchman, named Schikler, recently died in Paris, leaving, among other strange bequests, 500,000 francs (near $100,000) to Fanny Elssler.

A CARD.—The fine passenger steamer CASPIAN, Capt R S Freeland, having been detained by the weather, will positively leave this evening, Saturday, 22d July, at 8 o'clock. Passengers will please be on board at that hour. jy 22 J R SHAW & Co, Agents.

The packet-ship UNION, Capt. J. G. Russell, from New York, is discharging cargo opposite the vegetable market. Consignees are particularly requested to attend to the receipt of their goods on the levee. jy21 FOSDICK & BRO., 66 Camp st

NEW-ORLEANS, FRIDAY NIGHT, JULY 21, 1843.

Since our last no change has occurred in the market which requires any special notice; and business is so wretchedly dull, that we can scarcely find materials for making up a report.

The weather has been very rainy since our last, and a continuance would be prejudicial to the growing crops. The river is falling, and is now 3 feet 6 inches below high water mark. The city continues healthy.

We noticed in our review of Tuesday last that a very small business had been done in Cotton during the three days preceding. On Wednesday there was a pretty active inquiry, and about 930 bales were disposed of at former prices. Yesterday and to-day about 350 bales changed hands, making the total business of the past three days 1,280 bales, and that of the week, 2,200 bales. Our previous quotations are retained:—

SUGAR.—The Sugar market since our last has been very quiet, the sales having barely reached 80 hhds., but prices continue steady, and we quote inferior to choice 5 @ 6¾c.

Havana Sugars are selling, in small lots, at 6 @ 6½c for brown, and 10 @ 10½c. for white.

MOLASSES.—The demand is good, but there is little on sale. Prices have slightly advanced, and we quote 21 @ 24c for oak and cypress brls.

FLOUR.—With the exception of about 1,200 brls. taken for the Havana market, at $4 60, there have been no transactions of importance. Our quotations remain the same.—say for Ohio, $4 37½ @ $4 60. St. Louis, $4 50 @ $4 62½. Small lots of sour flour are bought up at $4 00 ¥ brl.

WESTERN PRODUCE.—Since our last the transactions in Provisions have been very limited, as must naturally be the case with the present reduced stocks and light receipts. In prices there is scarcely any chance to notice. We quote Pork, Mess, $10 50 @ $11 00 ¥ brl.; Prime, $9 50; M O, $9 50 @ $9 75 ¥ brl. No Bulk Pork in market. Beef is dull, and sales confined to retail lots; Mess, $7 75 @ $8 00 ¥ brl.; half brls, $4 50; Prime, $5 75 @ $6 00 ¥ brl. We only hear of a retail business doing in Lard, and confined to the best qualities; strictly prime, in kegs, is worth 7c, and we quote according to quality, from 4 @ 7c. Bacon has not been much inquired for since our last, and prices remain the same as then quoted,—say for Sides, 4c. @ 4¼c., Shoulders, 2¾c. @ 2¾c; Hams, 4 @ 4½c; canvassed ditto, 6 @ 7 cents ¥ lb.

WHISKEY.—Owing to advices from above announcing a rise in the Ohio, the market has fallen back, and we now quote rectified at 23c, and dull.

BAGGING AND BALE ROPE.—The market has not varied since our last; there is a fair demand for Kentucky Bagging, 12½ @ 13c, cash; and 14 @ 15c, on time.—India Bagging, 16 @ 17c, cash.—Rope, 4½ @ 6¼c, according to terms.

SALT.—There is none for sale afloat. Prices from store are maintained; we quote coarse, $1 62½ ¥ sack; fine, $1 75.

COFFEE.—The demand is moderate, and prices are very firm, owing to the small stock and receipts. We quote Rio Coffee, 6¾ @ 8¾c.—Havana prime green, 6 @ 6¾c. ¥ lb.

CANDLES.—There is no change in prices; we quote New-Bedford, 26c—Nantucket, 30c. ¥ lb.

EXCHANGE.—Both supply and demand have been limited since our last, but the rates remain the same as then quoted. We quote Sterling, 9 ¥ cent. premium.—Francs, 5 25 @ 5 27½—New-York, 60 ds., par @ ½ ¥ cent. discount.—Sight Checks are in request, at 1 @ 1½ ¥ cent. premium.
