INSTITUTIONS.

MASONIC COLLEGE,
Established by and under the patronage of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

THIS flourishing Institution, possessing full Collegiate powers, offers peculiar inducements to Southern parents and guardians. Its location is at one of the most beautiful points in Kentucky—La Grange, the County Seat of Oldham Co.—23 miles from Louisville, 18 from Shelbyville, 36 from Frankfort, and 8 from Westport, on the Ohio river. The community in which the students mingle, is highly moral, intelligent, and refined; the town containing about 300 inhabitants, free from vicious associations, or contaminating influence. The Course of Study is full, embracing Mathematics, ancient and modern languages, Natural and Moral Science. The Faculty consists of the President, who is also Professor of Mental and Moral science, a Professor of mathematics, one of Languages, and a Teacher of the Preparatory Department. The high reputation so deservedly enjoyed by the President, and the zeal and ability heretofore exhibited by the other members of the Faculty, who are graduates of the best Colleges in the land, afford a sure guaranty of their future success. The terms of tuition are extremely low, viz:

In the Preparatory Department, per year: $12.
In the College Proper per year: 20.
Boarding, washing, &c. per week, 1 50 to 1 75.

Scholarship may be had on the following terms—$50 for 5 years tuition—$100 for 10 years—$200 for a perpetual scholarship—in each case, the amount to be paid in advance. On this plan, the whole expense for tuition, boarding, lodgings, washing, fuel, and lights will not exceed $96 per annum per scholastic year of ten months.

For further particulars address

REV. J. R. FINLEY, A.M. President.
A. W. GAZLAY, Secretary.

ORLEANS HIGH SCHOOL.
(Lycee d'Orleans.)

THE Directors of the Institution, Messrs EVERETT, WYNDHAM and MERVOYER, having unavoidably acted up to their original plan, as laid down in the Statutes, have succeeded in giving the High School a rank among the best educational establishments in the South.

The seat of the Institution is in a part of the city ever noted for its salubrity. The buildings and premises are admirably adapted to the purposes of a large School.

The system of Education embraces the Grammar and the Literature of the Greek, Latin, French and Spanish Languages, Rhetoric, Poetry and Mythology, History, Geography, the use of the globes, Book keeping, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, Plane and Spherical Trigonometry, Surveying, Natural Philosophy, Moral Philosophy, &c.

The various branches of knowledge are taught by the Directors, Messrs EVERETT, WYNDHAM and MERVOYER, and by Assistant Instructors, selected for their eminent skill in the business of Teaching.

The Directors also employ two gentlemen, who, entire exercise of Department whenever the pupils are not in a recitation room under the eye of a Teacher.

The Institution receives Boarders, Half-Boarders, and Day Scholars. The price of Board, (washing included,) and Tuition in all or any of the branches, is twenty dollars per month. The price of Half-Board is $15 per month. The price paid by Day Scholars is six, nine, or twelve dollars, according to the knowledge previously acquired.

No interference whatsoever in the internal discipline of the School will be suffered.

The Circular, containing all information respecting the School, may be had in the English or in the French language at the principal Book stores in the City. m19

MANDEVILLE COLLEGE.

THE regular course of instruction in this Institution consists of the English, French, Spanish, Latin Language—and Literature. The different branches of the Mathematics, Natural and Moral Philosophy, Book-Keeping &c. The accomplishments taught are Music, Drawing, Fencing and Dancing.

The number of Professors is six, exclusive of the Tutors, and the Teachers of the accomplishments. These gentlemen are experienced in the business of teaching and possess the charge of their duties.

The Discipline of the College is strict and fair; it admits of no interference on the part of parents.

The Lake Pontchartrain, on the shores of which the College is located affords the students the great benefit of bathing, and a supply of fish for their table. The communication with the city is rendered easy by the steamers that touch regularly at the Mandeville wharf.

The price of Board and Tuition is $20 monthly. A few parlor boarders can be received at a monthly charge of $35.

The statute of the College may be had at the different Book sellers and by applying to R J Palfrey, Esq., at the City Bank, the Secretary of the College. may 18

FRANKLIN BRIDGE SCHOOL.
Corner of Royal and Hospital streets, New Orleans.

PARENTS and Guardians are respectfully informed, that the classes are now fully organized in the new building at the corner of Royal and Hospital streets. It is hoped, with some confidence, that the commodious and extensive arrangements for the better accommodation of the pupils, will meet with the approbation of the patrons of the Institution, and of others who may have youths under their charge.

The great object to be attained in school education is the acquiring of habits of untiring industry and indomitable perseverance, the course of exercises, through which a young mind passes in order to reach this goal, is judiciously directed, leaving him of necessity in possession of every other desired attainment.

The principle here laid down is the basis of the mode of instruction pursued in the Franklin High School.

The course of studies comprises the English, French, Spanish, Latin and Greek languages; Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, Surveying, Application of Algebra to Geometry and Differential and Integral calculus; Astronomy and Chronology; History and Geography; Book-keeping; Drawing and Painting; Vocal and Instrumental Music.

There are seven Professors attached to the School, who give daily lessons in their respective departments.

Parents and Guardians are respectfully informed that no interference whatever in the Regulations and internal discipline will be suffered.

The Institution receives boarders, half-boarders and day scholars. The board of pupils resides in the family of Mr. Ewing, and will be under the immediate care of himself and the ladies attached to the household.

Terms:

Boarding pupils pay	$250.00 per month.
Half boarders	15.00 "
Day scholars under 10 years of age	6.00 "
do over 10 and under 13	8.00 "
do over 13	10.00 "

Equal payment is required at the end of each month.

G. BOYER'S
CLASSICAL AND COMMERCIAL INSTITUTION
No. 148 Conti Street,
(between Chapitoul and Burgundy streets.)

THIS Institution, the oldest scholastic establishment in New Orleans, is well known and highly distinguished for the success which has accompanied it since its foundation; a considerable number of pupils who have quitted it number among the great scenes of life, having already acquired some distinction in the various avocations to which they have devoted themselves.

Boyer's Institution is conducted in one of the largest Mansions in the city, occupying a fine central position, being well ventilated and in other respects perfectly salubrious.

The range of studies which engage the attention of the pupils extends over all the branches of Learning which are necessary to a useful, polite and finished education; it is planned with a view to the more absolute superiority which are specially the province of a collegiate course. Discipline is necessary to govern the youthful mind; a proper application of the rules is indispensable to the relations with society, to a conspicuous feature of the establishment, being at the same time severe and considerate. Should the subject of the Pupil not regarding his social training well conducted and in other respects perfectly salubrious.

The English language, daily becoming more and more important, and of the greatest possible importance to all living in this community, in Boyer's Institution, attended to with more than ordinary care, the Professors engaged in the branch by superintendent of undoubtedly attainments and long experience in teaching.

REMOVAL.
DAY & BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES,
Conducted by Madame Granet.

MADAME GRANET has the honor to inform the Parents of her Pupils and the public that her Institution will be removed on the 15th of November next, from No 20 Bourbon street to No 96 Customhouse street, between Royal and Bourbon streets.

This new residence is better adapted for an institution for young ladies than the one she is leaving. The apartments are spacious and airy, and well suited for dormitories, class rooms, &c.

The yard for recreation is shaded and entirely enclosed from an exterior communication.

MADAME GRANET is second to no her arduous duties by her constant watchfulness, and the pupils receive the same paternal care, attention and vigilance as her own family.

The branches of instruction are the English and French Languages, Writing, Arithmetic, Geography, Mythology, Astronomy, Literature, Drawing, &c. and are taught by Messrs PETIJEAN, NORES and LORD.

Particular attentions paid to Music and Singing. The Harp and Pianoforte taught by MADAME ELISA GRANET, and singing by Mr. BROLARD.

Dancing by Mr. DEVOTI. m31—1y-law
