EDUCATION.

BOURBON 1854.....INCORPORATED 1856

NEW ORLEANS Female Collegiate Institute,

CORNER OF ST. CHARLES AND BAY. BONNEF. FOR YOUNG LADIES.

Under the Supervision of Madame MD. LEOGHIN, No. 900 Camp Street, corner Bay. St. Charles.

THIS establishment, founded by Dr. and Mme. Mc. LEOGHIN, whose high reputation has never been equalled in this or any other city, is now in its seventeenth session in NEW ORLEANS, and will commence on the 1st of September.

Mme. Mc. LEOGHIN, assisted by her sister, Mme. Mc. LEOGHIN, will use her best endeavors to continue to merit the confidence reposed, for so many years, by her patrons.

Professors of the highest talent are employed in all the branches, both useful and ornamental. French, Spanish and Italian languages, Music, Drawing, Painting, Dancing, etc., will be taught exclusively by the Mesdames Leoghin, the native tongues of those ladies, and the accomplishment of which is now indispensable in a lady education, is taught with the utmost care, and is one of the Institution. Young ladies will therefore find the most favorable opportunity with these teachers of acquiring perfectly proficient in the Modern Languages.

The establishment, always so commodious and well located, has recently been entirely renovated, with the greatest regard to the comfort and health of the pupils. Mme. LEOGHIN respectfully invites parents and friends to call and visit her school, where prospectuses, containing full information which may be desired, can be had.

Orders of tuitions will be promptly attended to by the Principal. sept 1y

ACADEMY

Canal street, No. 128, between Dauphin and Burgundy streets.
