STATE AND CITY PRINTER.

THE UNION—IT MUST BE PRESERVED.

SATURDAY, MORNING, FEB. 28, 1835.

We have received a communication from a correspondent B. B. V. on the American Theatre. But the remarks are so facetious, and the writer so ignorant, that we think it would have improved two or three lines out of his two.

No doubt the American theatre has lately demanded animadversion, if it deserved notice for the public have had a most severe dose of Hill, Hackett and Finn—Hackett, Finn and Hill; but ex hodio nihil fit.

However the managers have not been greatly benefited by such engagements; for playgoers have very properly determined to return the neglect of the managers—by seeking amusement where it can be found.

On Thursday 26th inst, a dinner was given to A. B. ROMAN, Esqr. late governor of the state—attended by a large number of his friends: and he ought to have acquired many.

The extracts which we make from the address of judge Watts, in proposing the health of the ex governor, and those of Mr Roman, in returning thanks, deserve to be impressed on the feelings and memory of all our citizens.

"Governor Roman carried out the principle on which he was elected—he was Governor for the people of Louisiana not for a party—and it would be well for our State, if in casting our votes, we were guided more by the fitness of the candidate than by the complexion of his political sentiments. Surely this ought to be the case in the management of our domestic affairs, be our opinions on questions of general policy what they may. The first wish of our hearts, the fairest aspirations of our minds should be for the prosperity of our State.

"Our country against the world—Louisiana before all other States of the Union. We who are identified with her interests have reason to be proud of our Louisiana. With a small population, Louisiana, by her position, by her productions, by the nature of her civil institutions, and the intelligence, industry and enterprise of her citizens, ranks second only to one State in the Union—our city is the metropolis of the boundless West.

"Let us unite to avail us of the influence and importance which is tendered to us. Let us imitate the example set by our distinguished guest, and be loyal to ourselves. Whether of English or French descent, we are Louisianians—this is our lineage—we are members of one family, united by the bond of fraternity, at common feeling and common interest.'

From the remarks of Mr Roman, we may extract the following; with no coincidence with those of judge Watts, yet more specific in their opinions:

'Let us be true Louisianians, and our schools and colleges will soon furnish the means of educating our children without making strangers of them. Let us be true Louisianians and our internal improvements will soon offer the easiest remuneration to the fruits of our agriculture and our industry. Let us be true Louisianians, and we will soon see the city of New Orleans rendered healthy, by the draining of the marshes, overtake New York in wealth as well as in population, and become, what it must sooner or later be, the commercial emporium of North America.'

A toast being given relative to governor Wayne, he replied, and concluded with the following—

'The dread responsibilities of Executive situation—Thrice happy the man who, at their close, like my predecessor, hears in the spontaneous acclamations of his countrymen, "Thou hast done well, thou faithful servant.'

TWELFTH LEGISLATURE—First Session.

FRIDAY, Feb 27th.

Mr LABRANCHE presented a report from the joint committee appointed to examine the affairs and condition of the City Bank of New Orleans. It contained chiefly a statistical detail of facts without any remarks, except one acknowledging the courtesy and readiness shown by the president and cashier in exhibiting their books to the committee. The report states that the capital of the company is 2 millions; and that its branches have been furnished with the specific capital of $480,000. The notes on hand amount to $465,215, the specie to $219,670; the deposits with interest to $612,327 without interest to $178,616; the bills discounted to $1,960,017, and the loans amount to $2,285,117. The directors own 591 shares of the stock, and are indebted (by themselves or the firms to which they belong) to the bank $100,356—besides $7,000 on loans on stock. There is a sum of $26,936 under protest, which the bank expects to recover.

On motion of Mr MOORE, the bills to change the seat of justice from Van Buren to Springfield in the parish of Livingston—and that to enlarge the powers of the police jury, and decrease the numbers of road commissioners, in said parish, were considered and passed.

On motion of Mr REID, the act to amend the charter of the Clinton and Port Hudson rail-road company, so as to give them the privilege of either commencing or ending their road at Baton Rouge, was considered and passed.

Mr BOSSIER presented a bill to amend the laws relating to the militia—so that there will no longer be two classes or exemptions, according to age.

The act incorporating the Medical Society of New-Orleans, was read a first time. This society is distinct from what is called the medical college of Louisiana; and has more popular provisions attached to its charter.

The act to create an additional election precinct in the parish of Point Coupee, was read a first time.

The resolution requesting an appropriation from congress, on account of the improvements made in the public lands by the navigation on the Mississippi and Atchafalaya rivers, was read a first time.

The act to amend the 2304th article of the code of practice, so as to make the English text correspond with the French, was read a first time.—The article states that he who causes another to commit a crime, or assists another in committing it, is liable jointly with him who is the principal; this is to be changed to "liable in solido."

The act to incorporate the New Orleans Life Insurance and Trust Company, was ordered to a second reading—and 13 out of 14 sections were adopted with trifling or no alterations. The 5th section was postponed for future consideration.

The capital of the company is to be only 5 millions; and its only bonus is to be the establishment and construction of a dry dock, somewhere in the vicinity of the city—not in the swamp.

The senate proceeded to executive business; and adjourned till Monday.

The length of public documents emanating from the general government and the several states, has become a topic of as great notoriety as nuisance; but their style and spirit of elaboration are not so notorious. Yet there are many of a "werry peculiar" cast. Some of them might be specified; but we can now notice only an admirable report presented two days since in the house of representatives here.

The report states simply that the committee minutely examined "the present law enacted by a previous legislature for the organization and discipline of the militia;" and that they have detected "the defects and deficiences of that code" —where a past law is present; organization is without discipline; defects are without deficiencies; and a law is a code of laws. In answering the objections to a militia system, the committee ask—"Is it because we do not really need an effective and efficient [effective] militia, which is truly [really] the bone and sinew [this is new] of our country; which too protects and assists the civil [quite polite] authorities in the enforcement of the laws of the land [and sea]; enables the authorities [again] of the government speedily—[now for the hurricane of war!]—to hush to silence [hah! hah!] any insurrectionary movement at home; to repel invasion from abroad [or invasion from home]?"

We could notice numerous bathetic and tautological beauties in the report but "enough is as good as a feast."

The Natchez Courier proposes two questions to be answered in this paper; but we must good-humoredly inform that journal that it would be too much trouble—and useless if not troublesome—to give the answers. That the democratic party has succeeded in electing a senator to congress is sufficient; and they may laugh who win!

We regret however that the Courier should feel itself obliged to comment on the "coarseness" of any remarks in the Bee; and assure that and all other journals, that so long as the writer of this paragraph shall act as editor of this paper, none shall have to complain of improper or coarse language in any discussion. Disputes among editors should seldom occur; but when they do, they should be done solely for the advantage of the public—not that readers may laugh at squabbling writers.

Is Hackett's new play called the Three Dutch Governors of New York, from Irving's Knickerbocker, worthy public notice? One would think not—as he has not produced it here altho' he has had two engagements. He is now going thro the same petty round of characters. Four plays are the only ones which may be said to be those in which he exclusively performs.

COTTON CANVAS.—The National Intelligencer contains an interesting communication, from the Hon. H. L. Pinckney, on this subject, equally important to the planter and manufacturer of cotton. The communication gives an account of a course of experiments, instituted on board of the Erie and Peacock, and the Natchez at sea, under the direction of Commodore Elliot, to test the relative strength of Cotton and Hemp Canvass; which resulted in manifesting a decided superiority of the former.

PAUL JONES was the only American officer who was ever permitted to receive a fee from a foreign Prince. A resolution passed Congress in 1781, allowing him to receive the cross of military merit, and the title of Chevalier from the court of Versailles.

The editor of the Louisville Journal has adopted an excellent method of stopping the personal controversies which so often creep into the journals of the south and west. He has determined, upon charging two dollars a square for every publication of the kind.

The select committee of the Virginia Legislature, appointed on the subject of increasing the Banking capital of that State, have reported in favor of the establishment of a new Bank at Richmond, with a capital of $2,750,000, with several branches in different parts of the state.

A writer in the Charleston Mercury estimates the cotton crop of the United States at 1,050,000 bales, the value of which cannot fall short of $45,000,000.

"You must be very hungry" said a man to a friend who was eating an enormous breakfast,—"Sir" said the other pausing for one moment, "I hav'nt eat nothing since yesterday, and to-morrow 'll be the third day."

During the past year $7,388,423 were coined at the Mint of the United State, in gold, silver and copper. Of this amount $3,954,270 were in gold, $3,415,002 in silver and $10,151 in copper. The total number of pieces coined was 11,653,643.

Few are acquainted with the great increase which has taken place since 1824, in the amount of native gold, produced by the discovery and working of various mines in Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee and Alabama. During the last ten years the quantity of gold produced by the mines in those States has increased from five thousand to eight hundred and ninety-eight thousand to eight thousand dollars. The first attempts at mining were, of course, only partially successful; but since their discovery the vein of the mines has become better known, many experienced persons have engaged in the business, and there is no to be no reason why their products should not continue to increase in a ratio equal to that of past years as discoveries are daily taking place of new and valuable veins.

COMMERCIAL.

FOREIGN MARKET.

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 10.

Upon the announcement of the stock at the close of the year, the demand for Cotton became more general, and prices rather advanced, but during the whole of the present week buyers have appeared little disposed to purchase, and the market closes without any spirit.

The Sales offered by public auction this day went off without any change in prices from the last public sales, but rather lower than the business transacted by private contract. The sales since the first instant, including 1500 American, taken on speculation, amount to 16,700 bags, and the import to 3624 bags.

From the 31st inst. to last evening (both inclusive) 16,760 bales of cotton have been sold, viz: 6400 Uplands at 6 3-4 to 10 3-4; 4650 Orleans 8 1-2 to 11 1-2; 21 at 12; 1200 Alabama 8 1-2 to 10; 150 Sea Island 19 1-2 to 20; 20 Stained do 10 1-2 to 12; 2200 Brazil 11 1-2 to 14; 2300 Egyptian 16 1-2 to 17 1-2; 330 Surats 6 5-8 to 7 1-2; 500 West Indies 7 3-4 to 10 3-4. By public sale yesterday 4615 offered, 930 Surat 7 3-4 to 6 7-8; total 16,760.

(By Authority.)

NEW ORLEANS, 12th May, 1834.

On the invitation of Mr Dolbear, a teacher of Penmanship in our city, upon the Carstairian system; we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages range from 8 to 50 years, written through an entire course of instruction; and after having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction that we can testify to the RAPID if not UNPARALLELED progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a current opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an instructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be exceedingly useful to this and other communities.

CAUTION.

ON the 25th or 26th of February, 1834, I made my note in favor of John Hogan & Co, payable at ten months for Four Thousand Dollars. This note was endorsed by the payees, and was deposited by me, in the Bank of the Consolidated Association of the Planters of Louisiana.

No trace of it is now to be found in the Bank, nor has it been heard of, either by the maker, or endorsers, although passed due. This note never having been negotiated, I now caution the public, should it ever make its appearance, against acquiring any interest in it, as I shall not feel myself either legally or morally bound to pay it.
