OFFICIAL SALES.

By Joseph Walker, Governor of the State of Louisiana.

Louisiana Gazette.

Baton Rouge, 19th, 1852.

WHEREAS, by an act of the General Assembly of this State, approved March 14, 1852, which enacts as follows:

"An act to take the sense of the people on the expediency of calling a Convention to change the Constitution, and to provide for the election of Delegates, and the holding the Convention," it is enacted, that on the 12th day of April next following, a poll shall be opened at each of the election precincts in this state, now established by law, for the purpose of receiving the votes of the qualified voters of the State, for or against the calling of a Convention to change the Constitution:

Now, therefore, I have thought proper to issue this fly proclamation, ordering the election to be held on the aforesaid 12th day of April, 1852. The Sheriffs and Commissioners will take care that the election be held at the places designated by law, and that the proceedings be conducted and the returns thereof made in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and laws in such cases made and provided.

Every qualified voter, voting for or against a Convention, shall have written or printed on his ballot, the word "Convention," if he be in favor of such Convention, and the words "No Convention," if he be opposed to such a Convention.

Given under my hand and the seal of the State, at this 26th day of February, 1852, and of the Independence of the United States the seventy-sixth.

JOSEPH WALKER.

By the Governor:

CHARLES GAYARRE, Secretary of State.
