CITY INTELLIGENCE.

Alexander W Chambers was arrested yesterday by the Police of the Second Municipality, on a charge preferred by Mr Felton, for attempting to obtain a watch under false pretences.

James Murphy was arrested yesterday in the Second Municipality, charged by Thomas Ryan with stealing a horse from his stable in Poydras street.

Thomas Matthews, arrested as a dangerous and suspicious character, was yesterday sentenced by acting Recorder Baldwin to thirty days imprisonment in the Workhouse.

Felix, a slave of Mr Oger, was arrested yesterday by the First Municipality Police, charged with stabbing a slave of Edward Fouché.

Ann Caledonia was yesterday held to bail for further examination by Recorder Genois, charged with obtaining a watch under false pretences.

FIRE.—Yesterday morning, a out one o'clock, an unoccupied one story frame house, situated on the Shell Road, about a quarter of a mile this side of the Carrollton Avenue, and recently occupied as a cabaret, was discovered to be on fire, and before assistance could be rendered burned to the ground. The fire was doubtless the work of an incendiary.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire last evening was occasioned by the burning of two or three small, one story frame tenements, in Religious street, a short distance below the Water Works.

THAT BET.

Nobody having taken the offer of $1000 to $500 on HENRY CLAY's election, we are now authorised to offer $1000 to $700 on the same result. Many locofocos feels disposed to accept these odds, he can be accommodated at the shortest possible notice.

[CORRESPONDENCE OF THE BEE.]

HARRISBURG, 4th Sept, 1844.

I have been moving about in the Key Stone State, to a considerable extent recently, making notes by the way side as to matters and things, political and otherwise, and have thought that the result of some of my observations, might be acceptable to you at this moment of general excitement. The political struggle in this State already shows an excitement, unprecedented on any former occasion, and it it continues to increase, it will amount to absolute frenzy, by the time the battle actually takes place. The locofoco party are fully aware that it is their death struggle and a desperate struggle they mean it shall be. The death of Muhlenberg their nominee for Governor, is considered favorable to their cause, as it gives them a fair pretext to unite them and rival divisions which his nomination had created. A majority of the nominating convention it was understood, were in favor of his rival Mr Shunk, but by intrigue and a long pull, with friends broadly and openly asserted, by bribery and corruption, Muhlenberg obtained the nomination by a majority of one, to the great disappointment of the whole party, who declared that under the circumstances of the case they could not and would not support the ticket, and a serious defalcation from the party would have been the result on THURSDAY next, 19th inst, at the Whig Head Quarters of the First Municipality, in Toulouse street, between Chartres and Royal streets, in order to organize a CLAY CLUB (auxiliary to the New Orleans City Club) to be styled Clay Club of Second Ward, First Municipality.

[For names, see French side.]

NEW ORLEANS JUNIOR CLAY CLUB.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted at the meeting of Friday last, a meeting of this Club will be held at the CLAY CLUB ROOM on WEDNESDAY evening next, at half past 7 o'clock.

The meeting will be addressed by several members of the Club. H. W. WAGNER, G. W. SHAW. } Secretaries.

FOURTH WARD CLAY CLUB OF THE SECOND MUNICIPALITY.

The rotes of the Ward, are hereby informed that, attached to their Club Room, a Reading Room has been established, where will be found all the leading Whig papers of the day, together with valuable and interesting whig documents.

A reader has been engaged to take charge of the Room and keep it open from 7 o'clock, A. M. till 9 o'clock, P. M. and from 4 to 9 P. M. daily. L A LEVY, Jr, Secretary.

MOVEMENTS OF THE PEOPLE.

The whig gatherings about these days defy computation. We never open a paper without seeing at least two or three recorded. We can only briefly notice some of the larger demonstrations.

There was a whig mass meeting at New Haven, Connecticut—a real 1844 demonstration. The number estimated to be present was 10,000. General Dennis Kimberley presided, and made a brief and energetic speech. He was followed by Hon. J. M. Berrien, of Georgia; Joseph L. White, of New York; Gen. Combs of Kentucky, Mr. Van Wagenen and other speakers.—Two meetings were organized. Gen. Combs from a wagon, gave one of his inimitable Kentucky harangues; the people would hardly let him off.

Oneida county, (New York,) held her Grand Mass Convention on the 3d inst at Utica. There were 20,000 persons assembled—the adjacent counties contributing their thousands to swell the multitude. Three stands were erected in order that the people might hear the speakers. Among the orators were Messrs. Collier, Dorr, Dr Bacon, Herson, Ketchum, &c. &c.

Chautauque county held her Whig Mass Meeting at Mayville, (New York,) on the 20th ult. A least 10,000 persons were present. General Dudley Marvin presided, and addresses were made by Hon. Millard Fillmore, George W. Patterson, Mr Greene, and others. The warmest enthusiasm was manifested, and Chautauque means to go close up to 3,000 for Clay this fall. In 1840 she gave 2,640 majority.

The whig host of Essex, Massachusetts, assembled at Lynn on the 4th, to the number of 10,000. Leverett Saltonstall presided. Senator Choate and Francis Granger made eloquent and effective speeches. Col. Christy likewise spoke.

UNCONQUERED VERMONT!

The "star that never sets" shines more brilliantly in the political firmament than ever. The state election in Vermont, which came off last week, gives the whigs course in a whig triumph; but they year the victory is more signal and complete than usual. We have returns from two thirds of eastern Vermont, and from a good portion of western. They are all whig. Last year, John Mattocks, a very popular whig, lacked 1304 votes of a majority over the locofoco and abolition candidates; now Slade, whig, is chosen by several thousands majority. Here are the condensed returns:

The abolition vote, it is seen, is largely increased—that interesting faction usually endeavoring, in whig states, to present a choice, if not to secure the success of the locofocos.

For Congress, Messrs. FOOTE, MARSH and COLLAMER, whig members, are re-elected by increased majorities. In the locofoco district, represented last year by DILLINGHAM, it is more than probable there is no choice.

The Legislature is whig by an immense majority.—The locos have thus far failed to elect a single senator. The House will contain an overwhelming majority of whigs. One United States Senator has to be chosen by the Legislature elect.

THE GREAT LANCASTER MEETING.

The Grand Mass Convention of the Whigs of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, took place on the 5th instant, and a magnificent gathering it was. The numbers estimated to be present were not less than TWENTY THOUSAND, and the proceedings were characterized by the most heartfelt enthusiasm. Upon arriving at the place selected for the ceremonies of the day, the meeting was organized by the appointment of Wm. Heister, Esq., as President of the Convention. The first speaker was the Hon. John M. Clayton, of Delaware, who made a masterly defence of the Tariff, and gave an explanation of the circumstances attending the passage of the Compromise. While Mr Clayton was addressing the vast multitude, four other places were prepared, from which the people were harangued by Hon. Garrett Davis, of Kentucky, Hon. Jas. Irvin, of Pennsylvania, and other gentlemen. Hon. Alex. Barrow, of Louisiana, followed Mr Clayton at the principal stand, in an eloquent review of the locofoco party and its leader.

At night the people assembled in the Courthouse by thousands, and were addressed by Reverdy Johnson, Esq., and other distinguished speakers.

It will be recollected, says the Washington Standard, that Lancaster county gave the largest majority of any county in the Union (4,800) for Harrison, and it may reasonably be inquired what is the going to do now?—The Inquisitorial Lancaster said on "five thousand majority carry for Clay and Blair!" Let the good will do her duty! and then the spirit I see extend, she may be believing.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT.

The following is an extract from a letter addressed to the editors by one of the most sagacious and shrewd politicians in the third district. It is of charming import:

"PLAQUEMINE, IBERVILLE, Sept. 14, 1844.

"Iberville is getting thoroughly in motion, and her whigs intend to take that prize banner offered by the beautiful and patriotic whig ladies of East and West Baton Rouge, to that parish which shows the largest delegation at the grand whig mass convention on the 7th of next month. The Iberville delegation will be greater in proportion to her vote and the distance than that of every other parish in the state. Who says no? Will the noble whigs of the parish and city of New-Orleans?—Iberville particularly challenges you: and if you expect to conquer us, and win and wear the prize of beauty, you will have to bring up the field of one hot all of your cohorts. No single battalion—no such a squad as you mustered in 1840—no partial division of your forces can overcome the massy whig columns that Iberville will array against you for victory, and the meed of honor, on that day, which I anticipate, will be a glorious one for the whigs of Louisiana. The majority for Clay and Frelinghuysen in this parish, will be much greater than that cast for General Harrison in 1840. Nor will the third congressional district—change your calculation to the contrary, give 500 majority for Polk and Dallas. Set it down that the locofoco majority in this district will not exceed 275, and we will one in November who is right!

INTERESTING LETTER.

The Hon. John M. Clayton, of Delaware, in the course of a speech delivered by him a few days since, in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, took occasion to read the following letter:

BLUE ROCKS, August 22, 1844.

My dear sir—Your supposition is right as to the approximate extent of my correspondence. It is utterly impossible to answer all the letters which I receive. I am afraid that I cannot reply to many that deserve it.—Mr. Madison once remarked to me that Mr Jefferson's correspondents were killing him; but they were furnished by a population of about ten millions. Mine are supplied by a population of near twenty millions. I can feel and sympathize in the anxiety of many of my correspondents with whom I have conferred in times of yore, and their coincidence in opinion with us. I feel bound upon Your invitation to say that the lamented Dupont came from Delaware and conferred with me, on more occasions than one, on the subject of your nomination and the delightful prospects of success that it gave us. Clay, there are hundreds who will vote for him who would not vote for Jackson hung the.—You lived in a state of excitement and it was your misfortune to be the chosen victim on a false issue so. Clay, on the contrary, is the chosen victim on a true issue. Clay, you
