STOLEN 11 50 DOLLARS REWARD.

On the night of the 1st or 21 October a thief introduced himself into the house of the subscriber, No 227 Rampart street and stole the following articles:

A Gold square Snuffbox for men, a little raised in the centre, and richly wrought.

A Stuff boot for women, of the same metal, somewhat smaller, square and flat, likewise elegantly wrought.

A safety chain of a gilt metal.

A Pocket book, nearly new of Morocco, dark color, with a small steel spring, containing several municipality notes, and on the memorandum book attached to it, many notes among others the names of various indigent sick persons, which as member of the Committee of Benevolence, the subscriber had taken, and which can be of no use to any other than himself.

These are the only articles the disappearance of which has hitherto been perceived. Any person capable of giving information on the subject, is requested to do so, and he will be well rewarded.

The above reward will be given and no questions asked as to the articles are restored. If the individual is not willing to be known, let him make a package of the articles in question, and address me through the Post Office. I pledge my honor that I will remit in the same manner the promised reward to whoever will do so.

Goldsmiths and Jewellers are requested not to purchase any of the articles mentioned, and to seize them if they are offered for sale. C. GUIGARD, No 227 Rampart st. or No 27 Hospital st.

MORUS MULTICAULIS MULBERY TREES FOR SALE

The subscriber offers for sale at Freewold New Jersey, fifty thousand Morus Multicaulis Mulberry trees—the growth of the present season, which trees are warranted the genuine Multicaulis. The price will be moderate and will vary according to size.

The very large leaves produced by this tree and the superior quality of the silk made by worms fed on them, prove their vast superiority over every other species yet tried by silk growers. The fall is the season at which the best time to procure the trees, those who wish a supply, therefore, will do well to send their orders immediately. The trees will be carefully pulled and will be transported with perfect safety to any part of the country, and when one thousand or more are delivered, they will be delivered at N. York free of freight—from whence they will be shipped without delay as directed.

Individuals or companies desiring to procure a large number of trees, either for forming a nursery, or for engaging in the silk business, will be dealt with on the most liberal terms.
