NEW-ORLEANS BEE.

OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE STATE, GENERAL COUNCIL, OF THE FIRST AND THIRD MUNICIPALITY, PRINTED BY JEROME BAYON, No. 110, CHARTRES.

No. 205. NEW ORLEANS, TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 22, 1838. VOL. XI.

TERMS OF THE BEE.

Twelve Dollars for the Daily paper, per annum, payable quarterly in advance. Ten Dollars for the weekly paper, payable one half in advance, the other on the receipt of the first paper. No subscription will be discontinued until arrearages are paid. In case of discontinuance, one week's notice must be invariably given, previous to the expiration of subscription.

Advertisements at the rate of one dollar per square, for the first insertion, and twenty-five cents for each subsequent one, unless otherwise stipulated. Advertisements inserted in the Daily Bee, at the rate of ten dollars per square, for each insertion.

Advertisements ordered to be published at intervals, for a long time, at the rate of one dollar per square, for each insertion.

Advertisements—Merchants and Traders, having a large or small quantity of goods, wishing to dispose of them, can do so by advertising in the Bee, and other similar publications. Planters, wishing to purchase Sugar, Molasses, Corn, Bacon, Flour, Negroes, Stock, Plantations, Building Materials, &c. &c. will be charged only one dollar per square, for the first insertion, and twenty-five cents for each subsequent insertion.

Advertisements of any personal nature, or relating to the sale of slaves, shall be charged double rates.

Subscriptions for one year, will be made at the following rates, viz: Mail Subscribers, Ten Dollars, Mail Subscribers out of the country, 10 per cent on the amount of their subscriptions.

Subscribers will be at liberty to discontinue at any time, on payment of the amount of their subscriptions, and the expiration of the time for which they may have subscribed.

Letters on business, to be addressed to the Editors, or publishers, or to the Office, will be attended to, free of postage.

Communications, or any other matter, intended for the Editors, must be addressed to the Editors, or publishers, or to the Office, to ensure attention.

Subscribers, who may change their residence, will please to give us a notice of the same, that we may be able to supply them with their papers, without any interruption