THE COPARTNERSHIP existing under the firm and style of DE POUILLY, BROTHER & Co, for the purpose of making a plaster-mill, was DISSOLVED, by mutual consent, on the 28th of December, 1839. All claims against the establishment, from this date, must be presented to J. De Pouilly, jun., manager of the mill. Messrs. De Pouilly & Brother beg to remind contractors that they have always on hand fresh calcined plaster, at unusually low prices, and of a superior quality. They have likewise, that having constructed a planing machine, they are prepared to fill orders in cypress, yellow pine and other woods. Their machine being able to plane boards from half to three inches in thickness, and from three to ten inches in breadth, they hope they will continue to receive the patronage of contractors, and will fill orders with punctuality in every respect.
Apply for plaster or flooring at Mr. De Pouilly's, corner Conti street, or to De Pouilly, jun., at the mill, corner of Urquhart and Marigny streets, Pontchartrain railroad.

A SPLENDID INVESTMENT FOR A CAPITALIST—A valuable plantation is now offered for sale in the parish of St Marys, in the Attakapas, known by the name of the Petit Perdue Place, and about 9 miles distance from New Iberia, on the Bayou Teche, containing about 3810 acres of land, one thousand acres of which is now enclosed under fence; 500 of which is in a high state of cultivation and well adapted for the cultivation of cotton or sugar. The cane, the past season, made on it yielded upwards of two hogsheads to the acre, and there is now a fair supply of seed cane, put up for the next crop, on it. There is one thousand acres of superior pasture on it, well calculated for raising stock, and in addition there is at least 1000 acres of wood land, which consists of ash, oak and cypress, which is invaluable in this section of country. On the plantation there is now about 500 head of cattle, 40 pair of oxen, 20 fine horses, with a stock of hogs and sheep. A new sugar house and gin house and farming utensils, with a good family residence, overseer's house and negro cabins—with 20 negroes—and in point of health it is not surpassed in the southern country. This plantation will be sold with or without the negroes, a great bargain to a good and solvent purchaser; and any planter removing to this state will find it well worth his attention to purchase it, as there never has been a greater bargain offered in many years. Should a crop be planted, and a suitable purchaser offer, he shall have the advantage of same.

PROCLAMATION.

To the citizens of the state of Louisiana and every other state and territory throughout this great and glorious republic—Greeting:
New Orleans, No. 96 Customhouse st.
WHEREAS—Almighty God has not withdrawn from us the protection and beneficence extended to our forefathers, but has shewn his remembrance of us by the introduction of many and invaluable blessings in the arts and sciences, and whereas it is the bounden duty of every true philanthropist and master spirit of the age to promulgate and make known to the benighted denizens of this nether world, the ordinances, for the increase of our happiness, our comfort and our health, which after being recorded with the pen of lightning, are diffused and scattered by the dispenser of all good over this habitable planet and vale of tears; now, therefore, actuated by feelings of ardent gratitude to the Great "I AM," and deeply imbued with a good will and love to all mankind, we do, from the great dispensatory of health, No. 96 Customhouse street, proclaim the Concentrated Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and Sarsaparilla Pills, as one of the most valuable and efficacious remedial blessings, for the scrofula, incipient cancers, mercurial diseases, ulcerated throats, sciatica, fistula, scurvy, erysipelas, cutaneous diseases, dyspepsia, and in fine for almost all the diseases that flesh is heir to, with which poor humanity has been blessed for many years past. Far should it be from our desire to confine such a rich and glorious blessing to any one section of this wide extended globe, but the rather, filled to overflowing with that universal and boundless philanthropy, which is one of the most beautiful emanations from the Deity, and deeply impressed with the sublimity of Our Saviour's sermon on the mount, when he sayeth, "Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them that despitefully use you and persecute you;" therefore, in most perfect accordance with such feelings and principles, we most cordially invite all, of every age, sex, color or clime, from pole to pole, and from the remotest extremities of the Pacific to the Indus, the supporters of all doctrines, all creeds, sacred and profane, politicians of every shade and hue, second sectionists or those dyed in the wool, [illegible] ites, Harrisonites, [illegible] itonites, caucusites and anti-caucusites [illegible] ites and anti-Dale Openites, sub-treasur[illegible] [illegible] ites, Grahamites, Slam, Bang & Co [illegible] Halifax, whigs and tories, democrats [illegible] physiognomists, phrenologists, Fanny [illegible] magnetised Somnambulists, native Americans, anti-natives, and last though not least, the Daguerreotypists, we invite them one and all, without distinction of character, creed or profession, to come forward to No. 96 Customhouse street, and partake of the famed Concentrated Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla and Sarsaparilla Pills; but the more especially, do we call upon the high spirited and brave citizens of our young and thriving sister republic of Texas, blessed with a most delightful climate, and living under laws and institutions the admiration of the civilized world, we do most heartily recommend the Concentrated Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, to their full and generous approbation. Before concluding allow us again to quote from the sermon on the Mount, "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit: but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them." And now in conclusion, we would say, that, "the stars may fade away, the sun grow dim with age, and nature sink in years, but the Concentrated Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla and Sarsaparilla Pills, will flourish in immortal youth, unhurt, amid the war of elements, the wreck of matter and the crush of worlds.

CONCENTRATED COMPOUND SYRUP OF SARSAPARILLA AND PILLS.
Sold genuine at No. 96 Customhouse street, New Orleans, and at no other place.
☞ The following favorable notice of the highly concentrated Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla is taken from the New York Courier and Enquirer of the 9th ult.
SARSAPARILLA—Although decidedly averse to puffing any of the various quack medicines of the day, yet we are induced to notice a medicine of different character, at the instance of a friend who has used it with decided success in his family. We allude to the compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, which is extensively manufactured by a new chemical process in the city of New Orleans, [illegible] highly recommended by many able [illegible] who state that they use it in their practice, and with decided success, in chronic diseases and other affections arising from an impure state of the blood. This is a convincing proof of its efficiency, as the medical faculty, it is well known, are decidedly opposed to the quack remedies.
From the New-York Star of July 25.
We would call attention to the advertisement in our columns to-day of the Concentrated Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, from the New-Orleans and Southern Laboratory. We understand by the best medical authority, there is no preparation of the day which enjoys so enviable a reputation as a remedial agent as this. At the south its success has been unbounded, and wherever introduced we believe it has given the most perfect satisfaction.
We have been shown this day a lithograph by Stout & Lee, of the most remarkable cure of an obstinate cutaneous eruption, where the whole body was covered with large, fulsome ulcers, and even the crown of the head; the hair eaten away, and by the use of six bottles of Sarsaparilla the patient was entirely restored to health. j3

IMPORTANT MEDICINE.—THE CONCENTRATED COMPOUND SYRUP OF SARSAPARILLA, for the cure of

Obstinate Eruptions of the skin,	Pains in the Bones,
Pimples or Pustules on the Face,	Rheumatism,
Boils which arise from an impure habit of body,	Tetter, Scrofula or King's Evil,
Scaly Eruptions,	White Swellings, Syphilitic Symptoms.

And all disorders arising from an impure state of the blood, produced either by a long residence in a hot and unhealthy climate, the injudicious use of mercury, &c.
This very convenient and active syrup is with confidence offered to the medical faculty and the public, as possessing in an eminent degree all the virtues of Sarsaparilla in its most concentrated form—being prepared by a new and improved process which extracts all the active matter of the root. It will be found much superior in efficacy to the Syrups, Compound Fluid Extracts, and other preparations of Sarsaparilla, all of which being prepared by the formula of the London and Dublin colleges, are necessarily weak and inert, the virtues of the Sarsaparilla being injured and destroyed by long and continued boiling. (See Bach and Wood's New Dispensatory.)
To the good quality of the root, and the peculiar method of preparation, is attributed the success that has uniformly attended the exhibition of this medicine, and those who have heretofore been disappointed in the use of Sarsaparilla, will find the Concentrated Syrup not only an effectual remedy for the complaints above mentioned, but singularly efficacious in Inflammatory Rheumatism, Ulcers of the Throat and Leg, Eruptions in Children, Erysipelas, Piles, Diseases of the Liver, Scorbutic Complaints, &c. &c. and at the same time the safest medicine that can be resorted to, giving strength and increase of health to the whole system.
For the cure of Scrofula, or King's Evil, Incipient Cancers, Syphilitic and Mercurial Diseases—particularly ulcers and painful affections of the bones—Ulcerated Throat and Nostrils, Ulcers of every description, Rheumatism, Sciatica, or Hipgout, Fever Sores and internal Abscesses, Fistula, Scald Head, Scurvy, Boils, Chronic Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Cutaneous Diseases, Chronic Catarrh, and Headache from particular causes, Pain in the Stomach and Dyspepsia proceeding from vitiation, affection of the Liver, Chronic inflammation of the Kidneys and Skin. It is singularly efficacious in renovating those constitutions which have been broken down by injudicious treatment or juvenile irregularities. In general terms it is recommended in all diseases which arise from impurities of the blood, or vitiation of humors of whatever name or kind.
From the attention which the proprietor has paid to the preparation of Sarsaparilla, in various forms, he flatters himself that he has succeeded in bringing a compound to perfection, and by using a different and a more efficacious mode of preparation than that of any other manufacturer, can safely say that he has produced an article, combined with medical properties of Sarsaparilla, in a more concentrated and efficient form than any other production of the kind. He recommends the article confidently to the physician as the best preparation of Sarsaparilla which has ever been made, combining all the medical properties which belong to the different articles of which it is composed, in a concentrated form, that cannot be deteriorated by time nor changed by the temperature of the atmosphere. The superiority which is claimed for this medicine over all other preparations of the kind rests upon the following facts, on which it is prepared. We do believe and we speak from experience, that the greater portion of the virtues of Sarsaparilla are dissipated, or pass off in the form of vapor, when subject to decoction; or in other words, that too much heat is unfavorable to a concentration of its active principles. We have been led to this conclusion from the many repeated failures which have followed its administration when prepared according to the formula of the books, and to its almost uniform success when given prepared according to the present mode. This preference cannot arise from or be accounted for on the ground that the materials have been better in some instances than in others, because we have repeatedly tried the experiment with the same article, and the result has always been without an exception as above stated. The preparation is, therefore, with great confidence, recommended to physicians as a valuable addition to the materia medica, possessing in an eminent degree the tonic, alterative and diaphoretic properties of the vegetables from which it is obtained.
The time, trouble and expense which this article costs may be urged, and perhaps with some success, against its general use. But in reply we would add but one word, that such objection should not weigh when the life or health of an individual is concerned.
The virtues of Sarsaparilla as a purifier and strengthener of the human system, especially of the blood, have been long established and are now universally known; the best medical authority has in their favor, and the testimony of the profession on this point is almost if not quite unanimous.
☞ It can only be obtained genuine at No. 96 Customhouse street, New Orleans. j8

A PLANTATION MAP of the STATE of LOUISIANA, by JOHN LA TOURRETTE, Southern Map-maker.—Proposals for publishing a correct Map of the State of Louisiana, exhibiting the [illegible] and also the cotton plantations, colored in various colors, with the name of the owner, or some fancy name, if preferred, printed on all that are large enough; and those which are too small to admit the name, will be numbered, [illegible] the name and a corresponding number will be placed in the margin of the map. There will be from 8,000 to 10,000 plantations [illegible]
The Map of Louisiana is projected on a scale of six miles to an inch, and laid off on the plan adopted by the general government in surveying public lands, thereby exhibiting each section and fractional section of land, also the Spanish grants, settlement rights, &c. The water-courses will be correctly laid down. The parish boundaries and roads will be marked with as much accuracy as practicable. The land districts are to be laid off on the Map, and each town and post office will be marked on its right quarter section, with the name annexed. The public improvements, canals, railroads, curiosities, &c. will be attended to, as well as all other matters which may have a tendency to make our Map more desirable. There will be a handsome and useful parlor ornament, illustrative of the resources and growing importance of the state; and in accuracy of compilation and elegance of execution inferior to no map of any state heretofore published. j14
