Memoranda.

The steamer Pawnee left St Louis on the 28d instant—passed steamer Boston, upward, at Island Point—reports no fleet worth noting, from Saint St Louis to Cairo, and below.

The steamboat William Penn reports on August 28th, 4 miles below South of Carrydot Light-house, passed a ship aground with masts and yards gone, and hauled per masts cut—ship, very foreship cut, the bore yard the only yard across. The ship passed the rebuilt snag-boat wreck, sunrise, which was partly uncovered—the hull and boat been lost entirely. Sound wreckers left her as the William Penn passed and still left men on board.

LE MERCURE DE FRANCE.

UNIVERSAL REVIEW OF LITERATURE, SCIENCE, ARTS, &c.

Twenty-fifth Year of Publication.

THE MERCURE DE FRANCE, which commenced with the year 1825, is the only Literary Journal which has survived the Revolution, and continued its publication without interruption. It is the only work which contains the most interesting productions of the most celebrated writers of the Restoration, and which has preserved the character of the Mercure of the Eighteenth Century, of which it is the only Lineal Representative. It is the only work which contains the Lectures of the Professors of the Collège de France, and the Reports of the Academies, and the Sittings of the Chambers, and the Debates of the Tribunals, and the Sittings of the Chambers, and the Debates of the Tribunals, and the Sittings of the Chambers, and the Debates of the Tribunals
