NEW-ORLEANS:

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 3, 1844.

MEETING OF CITIZENS.

The WHIGS of New Orleans and CITIZENS GENERALLY who are opposed to the gross outrage on the Elective Franchise committed by some of the Inspectors of the Election on Monday last, are requested to meet this evening at the St. Louis Ball Room, at half past seven o'clock, to take such measures relative thereto, as may be necessary and advisable.

MEETING OF CITIZENS.

We invoke attention to the call for a public meeting to be held this evening at the St. Louis Ball Room, to take into consideration the outrages perpetrated on Monday last at the polls. We trust every friend to the purity of the ballot box will be present.

THE GOOD OLD CAUSE.

We have never witnessed, to our recollection, a finer spirit than was exhibited by the whig party on Monday last. They displayed an enthusiasm and activity that would have achieved a victory equal to that of 1840, but for the stubborn perseverance in some of the election judges in a system of wrong and oppression unparalleled in the annals of party tyranny.

The whigs lost more than 100 of the majority in the First Ward, First Municipality, and in the various wards of the Second Municipality at least 300 more.—As it was, the average whig majority in the city is about one hundred! This for a city that has been despaired of by our friends, both in and out of the State, would be pronounced a victory, but taken in connection with the circumstances of the election, it is a glorious victory indeed. New Orleans is the whig city she was in 1839, and in November next will make a formidable effort to gain for the State the whig banner of the Union.

THE ELECTION IN NEW ORLEANS.

We have a number of protests upon our table, signed by our most respectable citizens, against the wanton and outrageous disfranchisement they had to submit to, on Monday last. They are the memento of a high handed and arbitrary proceeding as very petty tyranny perpetrated for the amusement of mankind. Old citizens, natives and others, were denied the right to exercise a franchise, which the very judges have sworn them away from the polls knew they had a right to. Merely because the vote of one of the holders of a fraudulent Elliott certificate, was refused, justis so, by a whig judge. One whig voter was disfranchised in anticipation of the rejection of an Elliott vote, and the rejection of one of these fraudulent and illegal certificates, is represented, the whole of that district was thrown.

A repetition of such wanton violations of the rights of legal voters, will not and ought not to be tolerated. There are times when patience ceases to be a virtue, when forbearance under aggravated and repeated wrong amounts to a surrender of our dearest rights. The law abiding spirit of our people should not be an impunity to tyranny. In our vocation, it is for us to counsel peace and patience, but we would be sinning against our sense of right, our sense of the Christian with which been fide American citizens should support their franchises, were we to advise submission to such outrages as were enacted on Monday last. There must be an end to such things.

The orderly and law abiding portion of people have been threatened with every pun[illegible] legislation before and resolutions, couched in high sounding terms, have been promulgated at localoco meetings, menacing those who should assert the rights of foreigners, scarce a month old in this country, to vote on Judge Elliott's fraudulent certificates, with the trace and outrage. These have been considered rather the ebullitions of party excitement than evidence of a purpose to outrage the law. Very recently however, more than was attributed to them. Though our citizens have not yet been set upon with clubs and bludgeons, they have been maltreated in a particular equally as objectionable—they have been defrauded of rights that were guaranteed by the Constitution and law, for which many of them and their forefathers fought on the battle field of liberty. Are they to endure such wrong always? Will they submit to such treatment forever? Is there to be no stop put to outrage? no end to usurpation and tyranny? There is something more important to us better things of the spirit of the Republic.

It is no easy a matter for any foreigner claiming to be a citizen under a certificate of Judge Elliott, to obtain a good, valid and indisputable one, that the perseverance of these men in disturbing elections and throwing the community into a dangerous ferment, is without excuse. Judge Carrigan, the successor of Elliott, has caused to be advertised in the newspapers of the city, that any persons who received certificates from Judge Elliott, entitled to be naturalized, could, by making proper and legal proof of the fact, obtain a regular and lawful certificate, for no paltry and inconsiderable fee, that those who will persist hereafter in obstructing the franchise and producing disorder, might well be regarded as enemies to the peace of society—and such men cannot be respected, to the disfranchisement of a city like this.

It is in no threatening mood that we advise the Elliott certificate holders to go straight way to Judge Carrigan and prove their right to citizenship and become naturalized according to the intentions of law; for as certainly as a repetition of Monday's scenes shall be attempted, there will be an outbreak that baffles prophecy in foretelling its end. If there be any of those who have received Elliott certificates, entitled to be naturalized and love the country of their adoption, they will not hazard the safety of society by persisting in disturbing the polls. No one, we would imagine, who estems the character of American citizens, will be content to rest his claim to that privilege upon a certificate that is tainted with suspicion, much less upon one that a large majority of his fellow citizens regard it as a disgrace to hold. Several of the locofoco judges, at the last election, openly avowed their purpose to reject such certificates. The objection to them is not confined to the whig party, nor rests it solely upon party grounds. Be advised in season, we would again repeat to them, become citizens in due form of law, those of you who are entitled to be such, and those who will not or can not, ought to forbear a course of conduct that will involve them and others in the most appalling peril. There can be no farther dallance with this matter. The time has come when it must be met and decided as becomes the character of the city and the rights of the citizens.

CONGRESS—SECOND DISTRICT.

The majority for Barnor G. Thibodaux, in the Second Municipality is, as far as we can ascertain, 161 votes. We may probably in time for to-morrow's paper, obtain the vote of Algiers, and incomplete returns from Jefferson.

PENNSYLVANIA.—In the old Key Stone State the whig fires burn brightly and cheerily. It is almost impossible to keep pace with the record of whig gatherings and enthusiastic outpourings of the people, that are constantly taking place in Pennsylvania. Even old Berks—the Gibraltar of locofocoism, which has been wont to give 4000 majority to the party, shows symptoms of political regeneration. Immense meetings of whigs unparalled, both for number and enthusiasm, have recently been held in that county. In the town of Reading, where the whig never had more than 600 voters, at a meeting convened there a few days ago, more than a thousand were present. In Adams county, a mass meeting was called on the 21st ult., at Gettysburg, which was attended by thousands of determined whigs. The meeting was addressed by the Hon. Andrew Stewart, Hon. W. B. Reed, Townsend Haines, Baker, the Backeye blacksmith and others. In the First Congressional district of Southwark, another gathering took place on the 22d ult., at which the Hon. E. Joy Morris and Charles Gibson spoke with eloquence and ability. In short the manifestations of the whig party are pouring in from all over the State, and the ranks of Democracy have long since ceased to double the number of the whigs, [illegible] as to the number of Democratic majority. The whigs will roll along for Clay and Frelinghuysen.

Marriage Chat Mississippi is to be New York, and may be preferred to Fulton's Dress Maker of Philadelphia.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

STEAMER DUKE OF ORLEANS—The report by a passenger at Donaldsonville, to the effect of the steamer Brilliant, as reported in the Courier of last evening, of the burning of the steamer Duke of Orleans is incorrect. We learn from Capt. Pease, of the Huitsan, that the Duke of Orleans was laid up at Cincinnati.

☞ The brig Tuscar, Capt. Lovell, from Boston, with a cargo of ice, whilst coming up the river in tow of the steamer Claiborne struck a snag a short distance below the English Turn, and sunk to her upper deck. The vessel will probably be saved; the cargo a total loss.

PLEASURE EXCURSION—The steamer Patrick Henry, Capt. Dorsey, will leave the lake end of the New Canal this afternoon, upon the arrival of the 5 o'clock passenger barges, touching at the Railroad for passengers the 6 o'clock train of cars, for all the watering places on the lake shore, returning by daylight on Friday morning. A delightful opportunity for spending the 4th, out of the dust and turmoil of the city.

☞ In our paper of Monday we stated that an individual had lost his life by falling out of a second story window of a coffeehouse at the corner of Camp and Poydras streets. We should have stated from the Gerrick's Head Coffeehouse, opposite the American Theatre.

CRIMINAL COURT.—William Johnston, found guilty of assault and battery, was yesterday sentenced to 48 hours imprisonment.

Barnard Martin, indicted for buying and receiving stolen goods, was arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

Augustin Mignot and Nicholas Leroy, charged with assault and battery, were arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

☞ Alexander Warrick, charged with assaulting and beating Dunkan Henoo, f. m. c., was examined yesterday before Recorder Baldwin and sent before the Criminal Court for trial.

☞ Recorder Baldwin yesterday committed William Curtain and Charles Wilson to the Workhouse for 30 days under the vagrant law.

☞ J. W. Chandler, Charles Hawkins and Joseph R. Howell were yesterday sentenced by Recorder Genius to 30 days confinement at the Workhouse, as dangerous and suspicious characters.

☞ The Court of Errors and Appeals in criminal matters, convened on Monday last, in the State House.

☞ We neglected to state that the trotting match between Buckeye and Thaper for $1,000 aside, a single dash of two miles in buggy waggons, came off on Saturday evening last over the Metairie Course, and was won handily by Buckeye in 6:06, defeating his antagonist 24 lengths. Thaper, it will be recollected, was to be allowed the advantage of 250 yards at the outcome of the race.

THE FLOATING BATHS at Algiers, moored near the First Municipality Ferry Landing, are now in the full tide of successful experiment. The bathing house is 140 feet in length, 40 feet in width, and commodious lattice work attached on either side to the halls of sea weed, on the decks of which are the dressing rooms for the bathers, fitted up with all the appurtenances necessary for their use and comfort. The depth of water in the basin is graduated from two to fourteen feet and flows through the bath at the rate of four knots an hour. On the upper deck of the bathing house, which is a spacious deck 120 feet in length and 30 in width, between which and over the lattice work, an awning, so as to protect the bathers from being seen. The price of a bath is only 15 cents, who would debar himself of so necessary a luxury, when it can be procured at so moderate a price.

☞ Captain Jones's company, the "Washington Guards" left here yesterday evening, in the steamer St. Landry, to spend the Fourth of July, at Natchez.—The company was in excellent order, and whilst embarking a complementary salute was fired by the Native American company of Artillery.

☞ We are indebted to the officers of the steamboat Bultanna for late Louisville papers.

☞ We are indebted to the Clerk of the steamer Bees Wing for late Natchitoches papers.

The river was falling at Shreveport.

☞ The Lafourche Gazette states that Bayou Lafourche is very high. The Levees in one case, and several crevasses have already taken place. We noticed, says the editor, a large one the other day about 10 miles above Thibodaux, on the other side. The water was pouring in at tremendous rate, and the fields adjacent to the crevasse. If it cannot be stopped, the damage to the crops in the neighborhood will be immense.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

A Convention of the Whigs of the State of New Hampshire, called in pursuance of a vote of the Whig members of the Legislature, was held at the Old Venable Church, in Concord, on Wednesday, the 19th instant. Richard Gordon presided. Every section of the state was well represented, and many stirring speeches full of the spirit of 1840 were delivered.

Gen. Anthony Colby was renominated as the Whig candidate for Governor to be supported in March next, and Ichabod Goodman, Geo. W. Nesmith, Thos. M. Edwards, and Jos. Sawyer were selected as candidates for Congress.

The Electors of President are, Jos. Low, Jos Healy, John Rogers, Benj. M. Farley, Robert Parsons, and Samuel Garfield.

Gen. Waddy Thompson, late minister plenipotentiary at Mexico, made a stirring speech at Albany a few days ago, in which he took occasion to pass a handsome encomium on Mr. Clay, and to declare that though he differed with the whigs on the Tariff question, entertained a sentiment of personal respect for the President, yet in the pending contest he was throughout for Mr. Clay.

Two Thousand Gallant Whigs in Wheeling assembled a few days ago, and were addressed with vigor and effect by Messrs. Crittenden and Mountbatten.—The locofocos the same evening held a spiritless gathering at which from 100 to 150 persons were present.

A SIGN IN NORTH-WEST VIRGINIA.

"The Richmond Whig of the 28th ult., says:—Mr Shine, the Senator from the Harrison District, and for many years leading Democrat in that region, has in an address to the public, avowed his opposition to Polk and Dallas, and his determination to vote for Clay. Mr Van Buren was his first choice, but that gentleman having been cheated out of his nomination by intrigue and management, and by Delegates disobeying the instructions of their constituents, Mr Shinn takes the second best—Henry Clay.

We note this as a sign of the tendency of popular feeling in the north-east part of the State—a region deeply interested in a stable system of protection to domestic industry. We shall not be surprised to see the great body of the people of that region follow the lead of Mr Shinn."

GEORGIA.—The Whig electoral ticket for this State is as follows:—For the State at large Joseph H. Lumpkin and Joel Crawford. Fifth District Wm. P. McCon, nell. 2d Thacker B. Howard. 3d. C. B. Stiles. 4th R. A. T. Reilley. 5th David Irvin. 6th Charles Dougherty. 7th Wm. C. Dawson. 8th C. J. Jenkins.

THE WITNESS of Louisville had a meeting on the 22d ult., that surpassed the gatherings of 1840. Louisville was the banner city in that memorable year, and she is determined once more to win her trophies.

☞ The Albany Argus is surprised at the readiness with which the Whigs have dropped all allusions to Mr Van Buren. It is just as all surprising that the Whigs should show some little facility at dropping Mr Van Buren after seeing the very remarkable facilities with which the Locofocos themselves dropped him.—Pennsylvania.

☞ When Colonel Johnson heard of the nomination of Frelinghuysen, he threw up his hands and exclaimed, "Hooey on me! I would rather run against any other man in the United States!" His Locofoco friends at Baltimore heard his prayer, and had mercy on him.—Ib.

STARTLING DISCOVERY.—No little excitement has been created in the Stock Board, and among the whole circle interested in the Stock business, by the discovery of a telegraphic communication between Philadelphia and New York. The New York correspondent of the North American, several months ago, put the public on its guard against this mode of immediate despatch practised by some parties in both cities. The fact, then doubted, is proved now beyond any question. We need not say that a combination of this sort is entirely at variance with the safe transaction of business by parties not in the secret.—Philad. Gazette.

MAMMOTH CAVE.—Twenty-six large avenues and a third river, larger than those previously known, have recently been discovered in the mammoth cave. A sulphur spring of an excellent quality of water has also been found some miles within the cave. Beats of admirable construction have been built expressly for the views, so that visitors desirous of taking a water excursion, a dozen or so miles under ground, can be accommodated. Large edifices have been made in the Hotel, and from all accounts, a visit to that greatest wonder of the world should be delightful in every respect.

MAINE WARING UP.—The Norridgewock Peoples Press says:—

"We stop the Press to announce to our readers that it is expected that Hon. David Williams, the great statesman of New England, will be present at the whig State Convention, to be held at Augusta on Wednesday next, and that he will add one the thousand people upon national affairs, and in favor of the election of CLAY and FRELINGHUYSEN."

MOB LAW IN WESTERN NEW YORK.—On Wednesday last, Sheriff White, in company with two of his deputies, two constables, and one other person, went into the town of Hornellsville, to execute a writ of possession, in favor of one of the owners of land purchased at the Holland company. The officers on arriving at the house, where they were intercepted by a body of men to the number of about 150, who had assembled with guns, many of them disguised with paint and Indian blankets, and driven from the premises. Sheriff White had his coat torn in pieces, and his Deputy Sheriff Walker also had his coat torn, and was injured by a blow upon his throat. After the officers left the premises, they were followed by a mob of about fifteen miles in time until they were out of reach.—The factors upon which they rode were also badly broken. In their retreat they observed 60 or 70 men, some of them armed, proceeding towards the scene of action, so that the whole number finally gathered together, must have exceeded 200.

What course the Sheriff intends to pursue we are not advised. This certainly is a bad state of things, and as the law and its officers are set at defiance, no one can foresee the result.—Cattaraugus Whig.

COUNTERFEIT GOLD COIN.—D. H. Mason, Esq., counsel of the Dahlonega mint, cautions the public against some counterfeit quarter eagles now in circulation. He says they are well executed, being a combination of zinc and copper, gilt by the electro galvanic process. The surest mode of detecting them is by the weight, they only weighing forty and a half grains, whereas the genuine coin weighs sixty-four and a half grains.

THE WHIG STATEM.—Young men of America, work at home, buy at home, sell at home, spend at home; employ our own mechanics in preference to foreign Americans; protect American labor, and encourage home industry; let the South feed the North; the North supply the South, what we don't want we will ship away; what we can't do without we will import from foreign lands. That is the whig system, there is Henry Clay's policy. We love our own dear country and our own fellow men, before any other people; we love our own wives and children and American girls and American boys, and American men. We want no other people; we must and we will have our own food and clothes up; and we mean to take care of our own interests, and our own welfare, or any power, foreign or domestic. Hence we want a domestic and protective tariff.—Annapolis Rep.

The Boston papers announce the death of Mr. Sam Sprague, an aged, active and enterprising merchant, and one of the surviving patriots of 1776.

A HOAX.—The story of a coal and Franklin Fuel, resulting English frigate, proves to be a hoax.

☞ The location of the following named towns of this latitude, but in goodly number of the Pilgrims will signify that Mr. Polk will now two months ago, and will be remained for ever in ignorance of their bare him.

WHAT IS HIS NAME.—A gentleman in illustration of the forbearance of the Democracy, has given the following, which he says he has heard from the lips of the Democrats themselves, in the presence of Gen. Pierce, Gen. Cass, Gen. Dix, &c. &c. It was the Democratic Convention of Illinois, in the Hall of the House of Representatives, at Springfield, when the Hon. Stephen A. Douglas was nominated for President. The speaker was a Democrat, and a member of the Legislature, and was introduced by the Hon. Sidney Breese, the Democratic candidate for Governor. The speaker was introduced from Brownsville, Marion County, Illinois, and was received by the Democratic Convention with great enthusiasm. The speaker said, "Gentlemen of the Convention, I have come all the way from Marion County, Illinois, to see the man I intend to vote for, but I have forgotten his name, and I want you to help me out with it." Hartford Journal.

BUSINESS ON THE RUNNER.—Mr. Hartman, connected with Mr Mitchell's Washington Hall, proposed to the young ladies, who assisted in serving up the refreshments during the Sing Song, that if they would be at their post at 6 o'clock next morning, he would treat them to a breakfast, which he had ordered, and which, he presumed, would be equally as good as the supper they had just partaken of. The young ladies, to a man, responded, "Agreed, agreed!" and the Sing Song broke up. Mr Hartman, on his way home, met a friend, who, on being informed of the arrangement, said, "Why, Hartman, you are a fool! You had did you any big business!"—Hartman's Journal.

BUSTING ON THE RUNNER.—Capt. Wm. Harper, commander of the Washington Guards, left here yesterday evening, in the steamer St. Landry, to spend the Fourth of July, at Natchez.—The company was in excellent order, and while embarking a complementary salute was fired by the Native American company of Artillery.
