NEW ORLEANS:
TUESDAY MORNING, OCT. 29, 1844.

THE PROSPECT.—Our friend GRAHAM of the Republican, since his return has grown more modest than ever in his claims upon the various States. Yesterday in an article on the Prospect, he puts down as certain for POLK, Maine, New Hampshire, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia, Indiana, Tennessee, Louisiana, Illinois, Michigan, Missouri, Mississippi, Arkansas and Alabama—in all sixteen States, casting 146 electoral votes. This is very liberal to the whigs, to be sure, but it is not all. The Republican considers Connecticut as doubtful; Maryland as doubtful; New Jersey, as doubtful, but probable for POLK; Delaware, as doubtful; North Carolina, as doubtful; Ohio, as more than probable for POLK. He concedes reluctantly to the whigs the States of Vermont, Rhode Island, Massachusetts and Kentucky—casting 34 electoral votes. We are perfectly dumb-founded by this calculation, and must give it up, when the Republican gravely puts forth such a statement. Seriously, this is the richest calculation, the rilest in all the elements of absurdity and futility that we have ever laid our eyes on. It out-Herod's that prince of braggarts, the New York Plebeian.

MILLERISM.

By late accounts from the north we learn that the deluded followers of MILLER, who rely implicitly on his assurances that the world will come to an end on the 23d October, have in many places abandoned their occupations, and taken to praying and weeping in anticipation of the period when time shall be no more.—The Advent Herald—a journal published in the city of Boston, has given notice that the paper will be discontinued, in consequence of the full and abiding conviction of the Editor, that on the 23d October, the world must be destroyed by a general conflagration. Such has been the excitement and consternation amid the unguided lunatics of Boston, that the police were compelled to interfere in order to preserve the peace. The N. Y. Express says, that the meetings at the Tabernacle in that city, are daily crowded with "Adventists," as they call themselves, waiting for the 23d October.—Mechanics and store keepers have given up their business, to be ready. Some have sold off their stock of goods. Some curious examples of this delusion are furnished by the papers. One man in Brooklyn, after announcing his belief in the second advent, declares that he has shut up his shop, and given up the vending of fancy articles which the daughters of Zion lust after." The poor devil was a shoemaker

One RICHARD PLUMER, residing in Newburyport, Mass., makes the following announcement, which we suspect, is a pretty cunning mode of getting rid of an old stock:

NOTICE.—As I am fully satisfied that the end of all things is near at hand, and that in a few days the Saviour will come in the clouds of Heaven, I offer for sale my stock of dry goods, ladies' and children's shoes, at reduced prices.

I will sell the whole together, or in lots to suit purchasers.

My only object in offering my goods for sale, is that I may meet all obligations to my fellow men, as far as possible, before that day arrives.

All persons indebted, will oblige me by settling the same immediately—and all to whom I am indebted will oblige me by send their accounts for settlement.

RICHARD PLUMER.

Oct. 16, 1844.

The Collector of the port of New York, received some days since the resignation of one of the officers of the customs, who sent a copy of one of the Millerite papers, as containing his reasons.

We find quite a large batch of similar instances of folly and fanaticism, in looking over our exchanges, but the examples cited will serve to show the prevailing mania among the ignorant people of the north, whose religious sentiments are unregulated either by reason or education. Now the 23d of October—the day finally and solemnly set apart, for the consummation of Madame Rose, and the destruction by fire of our globe—has come and gone, and behold, the world yet endures, and as far as we know to the contrary, will flourish just as it has until the continuance forever. There is the second third time that the miserable leaders of Millerism have witnessed the practical refutation of their absurd prophecies, and we suppose, that as the firm earth and all which it inhabits, have not faded away, crackled under a general conflagration, their followers will be inclined to open their eyes, and come to their senses. There is, however, among the humbler and ill-educated classes a dangerous proclivity to associate religion with every preposterous crotchet which moonstruck lunatics originate and propagate, and though this last blow up of Millerism may consign that particular doctrine to limpsyte, we haven't a doubt, that in less than six months, some other one will arise, equally fallacious and foolish, and like its predecessor, number thousands of true believers.

THE CATHOLIC SENTINEL.—We have received the first number of a Weekly Journal, bearing the above title, and issued under the editorial auspices of the Rev. J. J. MULLON. It is a handsome quarto sheet, and is conducted with spirit and ability. Its object may be readily gathered from its title.

THE WHIGS OF New York were to have a grand mass celebration in that city, on the 23d instant. Among the speakers who have positively promised to be present, are DANIEL WEBSTER, RUFUS CHOATE, JOHN Q. ADAMS, Senators HUNTINGTON, of Conn., SIMMONS, of R. I., DAYTON and MILLER, of New Jersey. It has probably been one of the most distinguished gatherings ever held in this country.

VIRGINIA.

The Richmond Whig is full of cheering assurances as to the vote of the "Old Dominion." It says: Opinion strengthens constantly that the whigs will carry Virginia. They certainly will, if Virginia west of the mountains does as well as the whigs there promise. In 1840 the whigs crossed the Blue Ridge with about 2,800 majority. They will do as well or better now, notwithstanding the loss in Wise's district, which we believe has been much magnified.

ILLEGAL VOTING IN BALTIMORE.—The Baltimore American contains the names of TWENTY-two individuals already convicted for fraudulent voting in that city. These twenty two scamps cast TWENTY-eight votes. One hardened scoundrel voted four times. Seven more write for illegal voting have been served since the 17th instant. Unfortunately the greater number of the miscreants engaged in this abominable fraud, were imported from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Washington, and despatched home the morning after the election, so that it is impossible now to catch and punish them.

NEW DEFINITION OF THE WORD VICTORY.—The loss of a Governor, a Senate, and a Whig Senator in Congress in Ohio.

The loss of over 19,000 votes in a gubernatorial election in Pennsylvania.

The loss of a Governor and State Legislature in Maryland.

THE POLK GAINS.

A working man who has not much time to study the details of Politics, but who hears a good deal from his locofoco neighbors of the astonishing gains of their party this year—as compared with the overwhelming Harrison majority of 1840—suggests that we should (whenever go back to 1828 or 1832, and count the whig gains thus:

	1828.	1832.	1844.
Jackson's maj.	50,000	225000	3700
Pennsylvania,	40,000	30,000	20,000.

Whig gain from '28, 43,300; do. from '33, 20,300.

And so of other States.

The play is not worth the candle. Every body does know that locofocoism never before had so narrow an escape in a State election as Pennsylvania as it has had this year; every body knows that when Pennsylvania is doubtful the UNION is safe. Such is the case at present. Locofocoism shouted just as hearty over Pennsylvania at the time in 1840 as it does now, and talked of 10,000 and 20,000 majority for Van Buren. George Twenty five Thousand majority. We all know what the result was. Our friends in Pennsylvania assure us so.—N. Y. Tribune.

From the Winchester (Va.) Republican.

THE LOCOS BETTING AMONG THEMSELVES OF CLAY'S ELECTION.

A day or two since a staunch locofoco of Baltimore city, who feels confident of the success of Polk and Dallas, sent a check for $800 to a friend in Winchester with the request that it be staked against $1000 on the general result in November. The check had been in town but a very short time, hardly long enough for the whigs to learn the fact, before another locofoco planted himself with the money, and offered to bet, for any amount, that Clay would be elected President. The whigs have been betting all the time, and are now laying odds on Clay's election, they and have confident reason for so thinking that many of our locofoco friends will be disappointed in the result, and have taken the odds in the chance of being able to offset.

(Correspondence of the Bee)

WHIG BARBACUE AT DONALDSONVILLE.

The Barbacue given by the Whigs of Ascension and St. James at Donaldsonville on Sunday the 27th inst., was decidedly one of the most recherché affairs of the present exciting canvas. Although the morning was lowering, accompanied with frequent showers, the gallant Whigs came pouring into the town from the River and Interior Parishes in every variety of land and water conveyance. The delegation from New Orleans was not as numerous as was anticipated in consequence of the steamer chartered for their conveyance not having arrived at the city at the promised hour and the boat afterward selected for their accommodations, the Edna, not being sufficiently with sufficient publicity. There were 200 gentlemen and 200 ladies present on the occasion.

After the conclusion of Divine Worship at the Church the ladies, accompanied by their Whig friends of the opposite sex, assembled in the spacious and beautiful Hall Room of Ferdinand Torres, on Attakapas street. The wall above the Rostrum for the Speakers was handsomely decorated. In the centre was placed the banner of the Junior Clay Club of New Orleans surmounted by the National flag, and the Whig banners of the adjoining parishes suspended on either side. Previous to the opening of the meeting, Col. Hunters company of Frelinghuysen Rangers, with the other members of the New Orleans delegation were provided with seats adjacent to the Rostrum.

The meeting was called to order by Arisse Landry, by nominating as

PRESIDENT:
Hon. Henry Johnson.

VICE PRESIDENTS:

Hon. A B Roman,	Narcisse Landry,
B Winchester,	Michel Bourgeois,
J Harrison,	D F Kenner,
Hypolite Vivea,	Dr Joseph Martin,

SECRETARIES:
B S Wabre, Dr. Tissot, J K Gandet.

Gov. H. Johnson, on taking the Chair, addressed the meeting for a few moments; when he had concluded his remarks, Gov. Roman being loudly called upon, made a speech in Czech of great force and beauty, which was exceedingly well received by the audience.

J. P. Benjamin, Esq., having been introduced by the President, made a thrilling speech in English, which was rapturously applauded.

E. Mazureau, Esq., then addressed the meeting in the Spanish language. This gentleman's speech was listened to with the most profound attention, and the Spanish portion of the audience seemed highly pleased with it.

At the intervals between the speeches the Frelinghuysen Rangers delighted the audience with several popular and patriotic whig songs.

The meeting then adjourned for refreshments—the ladies to the saloon attached to the Hall Room, where a sumptuous and splendid banquet was spread for them. The gentlemen retired to a beautiful and well shaded piece of ground near by, to partake of the handsome repast prepared by the noble and hospitable whigs of Ascension and St James. Over five hundred plates were laid on eight different tables, all of which were supplied with every species of viand the New Orleans market and the country around could afford.

After the Barbacue, the meeting re-assembled when the whig tariff of 1842, and explained and defended whig principles. He was followed by John W. ISTLEY, Esq., who came forward and explained in a sensible address his reasons for renouncing locofocoism and for supporting HENRY CLAY. Mr. Isley is well known as an influential and respectable citizen of Ascension. His change cannot but be productive of the happiest results.

Speeches were likewise made by the Hon. Bannon G. Thibodaux and by Duncan F. Kenner, Esq. The latter took occasion to state that having been challenged by a gentleman of the locofoco party to a discussion of principles, he would meet on the following week at the Barbacue to be given in Donaldsonville.

The proceedings were characterized by the utmost enthusiasm, harmony and good feeling. The whigs of Donaldsonville with accustomed hospitality, not only had their lunch strings hanging out, but had provided themselves at the corners of the principal streets and sented strange way-farer whom they chanced to meet.

Yours, S.

FROM FRANCE.

The N. Y. Commercial Advertiser of the 19th, contains the following items of European intelligence:

The packet ship Baltimore, Funk, arrived this morning from Havre, whence she sailed on the 20th of September. We have Paris papers to the 16th, from which we glean the following items:

M Camille Perier, Peer of France, died at Paris on the 16th September.

The Marquis Algerom of the 15th, reports the return of Marshal Bugeaud to Algiers. He was received with triumphal arch and a brilliant arch had been erected, and the streets were placed the trophies of the victory of Isly. The troops were drawn out in honor of his arrival, and all the authorities and foreign consuls waited upon him with congratulations. The following letter had been addressed to the marshal by the King, dated Neuilly, Aug. 29th:

"MY DEAR MARSHAL.—It is with lively and profound emotion that I congratulate you on the brilliant exploits which you have just added to all those which have made our flag illustrious. The noble resolution you took to fight the battle of Isly with an army so disproportioned in number to what you attacked has produced in the minds of our brave soldiers the sensation which I experienced, on learning it.

"I have felt that this appeal to French soldiers must have rendered them invincible, and they entered into my organ, my dear Marshal with them. Tell them it is the wishes of France, as well as my own, that I ask you to offer the brave arms which you led so gloriously, the expression of national gratitude, and of the admiration excited by so valor and devotedness. Receive, my dear Marshal, the assurance of all the sentiments which will ever be felt towards you, by your affectionate LOUIS PHILIPPE."

A letter from Constantine of the 5th September, says, the emigration of the tribes from the adjoining territories under the Bey of Tunis continued. They could reckon 3,000 tents of the tribe of Meyargins. Their emigration was caused by her support for the Bey's regular troops. The Duke D'Aumale had taken every precaution to prevent an interruption in their relations with Tunis. Two hundred and fifty Harachs horsemen had been surprised making a razzia upon the Ouldachas. The tribe had been punished by a fine of 3,000.

Capt. Autray, of the Spahis, had died of wounds received at the battle of Isly.

The Madrid journals of September 19th say that in some of the provinces the Carlist party had received an large majorities in the elections.

A Vienna letter says the Government has given permission to a company to establish a central rail road in Hungary.

A number of distinguished persons went on the 16th ult. at Neuilly to offer the King their congratulations on the conclusion of the peace with Morocco.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The National Intelligencer of the 21st inst. says:—

"The Harrisburg papers contain the official vote cast for Governor at the late election in Pennsylvania, in all the counties but nine, and in these nine counties the reported majorities are given.

"Adding these majorities up, they exhibit a majority for Mr. SHUNK of 3,566 votes, which may be somewhat increased when the remainder of the official returns are received. Presuming that Mr. Shunk's majority cannot exceed 4,000, the Whig gain since the last Governor's election is about nineteen thousand votes. The amount of the Abolition vote is not yet known. The returns indicate a large majority in favor of the sale of the main line of the State's public works; which question was submitted by the Legislature to the popular suffrage."

From this statement it would appear that SHUNK's majority will not after all, exceed 4,000, and this opinion is sustained by remarking the extraordinary difference between the returns as given by the locofoco paper, and the official votes as they come in. The Baltimore Argus, (L. L.) makes Shunk's majority 5,300, but the official returns in 12 counties make a difference of 573 votes on the side of the Whigs, as follows:

Majorities for Shunk.

	Argus.	Official
Centre,	650	598
Cambria,	179	160
Clarion,	1,476	1,196
Clinton,	150	118
Jefferson,	590	140
McKean,	163	102
Tioga,	950	926
Wayne,	764	742
Total,	4,872	3,940

Majorities for Markle.

	Argus.	Official.
Erie,	1,250	1,303
Franklin,	568	586
Indiana,	676	589
Total,	2,486	2,577

Argus gives Shunk too much	492
" Markle too little	91
Error in favor of Argu's side	573
Reducing Shunk's majority to	4,727

The locofoco estimates in Green, Elk, Carbon, Potter, Susquehanna, Venango and other counties are all extravagantly and improbably high, and will be cut down to the same manner by the official returns. We have little doubt that SHUNK's real majority will prove to be about 4,000, if not under that figure.

The Congressmen elect are 10 Whigs, 2 Native and 12 Locofocos. Almost every where, says the Tribune, and there is a clean majority of THOUSANDS against the Locofoco candidates for Congress throughout the State. From this our friends may judge of Mr. POLK's chance of obtaining the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

OHIO AND INDIANA.

A letter from one of the most prominent men in Ohio, and thoroughly acquainted with the political character of every section of the state, communicates the following information. We find the letter in the N. Y. Courier of the 19th.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 11, 1844.

My Dear Sir:—

We have just passed through one of the most lively contested elections in which politicians were ever engaged; and we have come out victorious. We have elected our Governor by about 2000 majority. We have, probably, a majority of six in the Senate and of twelve in the House of Representatives. This is the first time we have had a majority in both branches of the Legislature since 1837—8.

The vote of the state is certain for CLAY in November. Our opponents said before the election that if we elected our Governor by ever so small a majority they had no hope of carrying the State for POLK. Our Governor has run behind the average party vote in nearly every county in the state, so far as we have been able to ascertain the facts.

In many of our counties we have held political meetings in nearly every school district, when we have addressed the people in mild and conciliatory speeches, responded with them calmly and kindly, read documents, official reports and explained the great political questions in the clearest and most flexible manner. We have organized every man of information in every township, of our political opponents, and many, very many, have joined us. For we have had no overcome the power of distinguished foreign orators, who have been going the round of our state, for the purpose of defeating us. We have had no overcome the power of distinguished foreign orators, who have been going the round of our state, for the purpose of defeating us. We have had no overcome the power of distinguished foreign orators, who have been going the round of our state, for the purpose of defeating us.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

Founded in 1837 by Madame Lemee and conducted since that by Madame Desnarres (Rampal) widow, former of Louisville.

THE course of instruction pursued in this establishment of reading and grammar to the study of literature and the elements of the sciences is unparalleled in a polished school.

The pupils are distributed into seven classes, suited to their different ages and capacities.

The French and English languages are cultivated with equal attention, and a good opportunity is afforded for her Creoles with Americans.

Vocal and instrumental music is taught by ladies, exclusively attached to the establishment, and their constant presence is a guarantee of unremitting attention, both in lessons and practice.

The performance of religious duties, by the boarders, is duly attended to; a priest, authorized by the Bishop, attends the establishment twice a week, to instruct Catholic pupils and prepare them for their first communion.

From the 1st November, 1844 this institution will no longer receive young boys, and will be exclusively conducted to young ladies.

Parents are informed that the house in Bienville street, contiguous to the Church edifice, has been added to the establishment, for the better accommodation of boarders.

Examinations will take place from November to April on the 1st Saturday of each month. At the end of May, general examination and distribution of prizes.
