COMMERCIAL.

FRIDAY EVENING, Nov. 30, 1855.

[illegible] the grain were a rather animated appearance in the past week. For Cotton, Sugar, Molasses and Rice active demand has continued to put up prices for all those articles has been very full. Prices of Flour and Corn have been light, and the Pork has been in more request, and other provisions generally firm. Freights have ruled lower rates, while Exchanges have most a better demand, and have been firmer.

COTTON—Arrivals and sales the past week have been on the same time for Liverpool, 24,627 bales; [illegible] for Havre, 1,050; Antwerp, 1,000; Genoa, 1,250; San Sebastian, 400; Hamburg, 1,700; New York, 2,114; and Boston, 4,400; coastwise, making in addition to about 14,000 bales on hand, including all in the presses and those in the neighborhood not entered into day, a stock of 281,218

STATEMENT OF COTTON.

Net receipts last week	49,776
Net receipts previously	232,442
	282,218
Net receipts last week	41,427
Net receipts previously	176,064
	217,491

[illegible] on hand and on ship'd and not shipped 64,727

[illegible] market was poorly supplied on Saturday, but the receipts to-day have been quite liberal, [illegible] the day were [illegible] 1,000 bales. On Monday factors generally [illegible] prices, notwithstanding which the demand prevailed, continuing throughout the week, and the sales of the week [illegible] to-day, prove in most of the transactions a material improvement of 1 [illegible] 1-16 on the lowest quotations. Yesterday opened with the Atlantic mails, and the demand continued to some 3,000 bales, and at the close of the week, making a total for the week of 16,000 bales, the market closing at the range of quotations.

[illegible] Stock in warehouse [illegible] bales, of which [illegible] are Upland and Florida, and 4,000 Orleans and Texas.

[illegible] Stock in warehouse [illegible] bales, of which [illegible] are Upland and Florida, and [illegible]