BILLIARD CUSHIONS—NEW PATTERN.
M ANTOGNINI, Cabinet Maker and Manufacturer of Billiard Tables—No. 366 Bourbon street.
OFFERS the public a new style of stuffing billiard cushions. This method, which is his own invention, possesses the advantage of preventing the balls from bouncing back off of a solidity that cannot be overcome. It is highly guaranteed by M. Antognini, who only received payment, after its superiority has been proved. It has already been adopted in several of the principal establishments of our city, and has given the utmost satisfaction.
Persons from the country, desirous of having the cushions of their billiard tables stuffed, have only to send the cushions to the above address. They will be arranged immediately and returned as soon as possible.
M. ANTOGNINI also offers for sale several excellent Billiard Tables, French and American; also billiar cloths, cues, balls, games of thirty-one, &c. &c. ly 3

J. N. GLAUDIN.
o16 MARSLAN, West Coast of Mexico, September 1st, 1843.
By the present we make known to whom it may concern that a Spaniard of the name of ANTONIO GARAITA, has been living held here a shop for a couple of years, and taking out goods in the different stores, has left this place clandestinely, and succeeded to escape the hand of the law which were sent after him, and to embark last month at Vera Cruz in the steamer Petrita, which vessel was bound for New Orleans.
His debts he left uncovered here amount to about sixteen hundred to two thousand pounds sterling; and although he owes to us only about fifty pounds, we wish to publish the proceedings, that it be possible to serve as a warning and prevent Garaita from committing more robberies.
UHDE & PINI.
☞ Any communication of the whereabouts of the above named ANTONIO GARAITA, will be thankfully received by the undersigned correspondents of the respectable house of Uhde & Pini.

MR. BENJ. LACOSTE has the honor to inform the public that on retiring from business he yielded his custom, particularly as regards wines, to his son NUMA LACOSTE.
Having enjoyed for many years the privilege of furnishing the wine, a large number of families of this city and state, Mr. Benj. Lacoste, while offering his thanks to all persons who have honored him with their custom, takes the liberty of recommending his successor to their favor.
The office of Mr. B. Lacoste for the liquidation of his former business is still at No. 103 Royal street, and he requests all persons indebted to him, to settle their accounts as soon as possible.
Mr. NUMA LACOSTE, successor to Mr. Benj. Lacoste, his father, has the honor to inform the public that he will have constantly on hand wines of the best qualities for family use. He will endeavor by his zeal to merit the confidence heretofore extended to his father.
His store is situated at the former establishment of Mr. Benj. Lacoste, No. 103 Royal street. o3 6t
