NEW YORK, May 8.

Wall Street—One o'clock.—The excitement continues in Wall street, and the people put Tenpenny under wheels. Among the columns of the day is the suspension of the strong house of John Ward & Co—and many others who have given way, they have no extraordinary of means, but cannot command

[illegible] order to illustrate the true state of things, we state Among the suspensions of Saturday, was one [illegible] housed dollars, to pay which they offer the best securities for fifty thousand dollars—But not [illegible] it. One other transaction also on the swap sal with an actual loss of a surplus of hundred thousand dollars. And so with many [illegible]

[illegible] business in uncurrent money, to day has been [illegible] to nothing—here were plenty to offer, but [illegible]

[illegible] to day are a blown with the exception of N[illegible] and Ohio Rail Road. The former closed at 74, [illegible] 103, cash. United States closed at 95, a [illegible] 97 per cent on Stock Exchange, Delaware [illegible] at 50½; Harrisburg 69, Boston and Providence 84 and Worcester at 76.

[illegible] stocks in other those mentioned above they [illegible] Illinois were sold at 73, 82 of City at same and 80 State at 70.

[illegible] Philadelphia we learn by private advices that [illegible] to be big on to break both in earnest [illegible] day, and that it will, probably, be [illegible] greater violence to day. We are without [illegible]

[illegible] Market, Continues a very unsettled, as [illegible] pressed influence.

[illegible] York Dry Dock Bank has been closed by an [illegible] from the Vice Chancellor. The Directors [illegible] Banks had a meeting at half past [illegible] morning and unanimously resolved to cash the [illegible] the Dry Dock Bank.

[illegible] street has been in a state of excitement, but is [illegible] in consequence of the prompt course taken [illegible] our City Banks.

DRY DOCK BANK

[illegible] Mayor has put off [illegible] the multitude from [illegible] of this bank, stating that all the Banks in [illegible] street have agreed to redeem the bills of the [illegible] bank. The up town Banks were not fully represented at the meeting—but there is little doubt but they will follow suit. We know this measure, so that holders may not be ill-[illegible]

[illegible] bales.

[illegible] sales consist of 7,400 bales, viz:

[illegible] bales Louisiana, from middling to very fair, [illegible]

[illegible] bales Mobile, from middling to ordinary, 951 to [illegible]

[illegible] bales Georgia and Florida, very ordinary to [illegible]

[illegible] bales Virginia, middling to good ordinary 97[illegible]

[illegible] bales Mines fair, 130[illegible]

[illegible] the line which we noticed for the end of the week and the eagerness which holders evinced to [illegible] several transactions, this day after [illegible] review, nearly 5000 bales were disposed of in [illegible] Among the sales, there was one involving [illegible] bales Louisiana and Mobile, bought at [illegible] ranging from good ordinary to fair, up to speculation [illegible] francs, duty paid. This transaction was [illegible] to give a strong impulse to the market and [illegible] soon very sensibly felt; but the holders, rather [illegible] secure on the future sales of cotton determined [illegible] their prices.

[illegible] real heavy purchasers were made at a rise of [illegible] francs on the prices previously paid; but this rise did not make transactions more active, they [illegible] on the contrary rather stationary, on account [illegible] over, though disposed to pay some what higher [illegible] would not determine to follow the impulsive [illegible] holders were held to produce. In fact the sales [illegible] more important—for the end of the week a small [illegible] sales Louisiana, middling fair, has been [illegible] 97 f 50th, on speculation.

[illegible] amount for this month to 20,000 bales, and [illegible] quarter to 66,000.

[illegible] stock is now 67,000 bales United States, 10,[illegible] and 3,000 bales of several sorts; in all 79,[illegible] against 55,000 bales in 1837.

[illegible] market which was so far New York and Liverpool has been detained to the 1st of March [illegible] from New York of the 24th February reached Liverpool, reports a change in the cotton [illegible] but by no means favorable to growers [illegible] to conclude that other expeditions will sail to [illegible] in the southern ports.
