MEMORANDA.

On 17th May, in lat. 20° 49, lon. 73° 17, Indian, ship Orleans discovered a vessel on her having P W, about five miles distant; she replied with the American ensign fly; she in turn gave signal down. Ran down to, and hailed the stranger; received no answer; sent a boat alongside and carried her; it proved to be the schooner Amelia, of Philadelphia, abandoned with the loss of her bowsprit and eighteen inches water in the hold. In their report the vessel appeared to have been in collision, having good sale and a quantity of provisions on board. The vessel appeared to have been boarded and have taken from her several packages in the cabin; also some dry goods, addressed Mr Wm Wilson, Philadelphia. Left her in charge of A Andrews (who had been allowed the use of one of the boats) and proceeded to Mobile with seven men, viz: Thos Hall, mate, Wm Wood, Thos Wright, Robt Smith, Robt Jones, Robt Robinson and Chas Brown. Left the schooner at Mobile, and proceeded to New Orleans. Thos Hall, mate, Chas Brown, Robt Smith, Robt Jones, Robt Robinson, Chas Brown, Wm Wood, Thos Wright, Chas Brown, Wm Wood, Thos Wright, Chas Brown, Wm Wood, Thos Wright
